LORD KERSLAKE
BARONESS BAKEWELL OF HARDINGTON MANDEVILLE

78 Leave out Clause 84

After Clause 90

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

78A Insert the following new Clause –

“Reducing local authority influence over private registered providers

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the purpose of limiting or removing the ability of local authorities to exert influence over private registered providers through –
  - (a) appointing or removing officers of private registered providers;
  - (b) exercising or controlling voting rights.
- (2) The regulations may in particular –
  - (a) limit the number of officers that a local authority may appoint;
  - (b) prohibit a local authority from appointing officers;
  - (c) confer power on a private registered provider to remove officers appointed by a local authority;
  - (d) prohibit a local authority from doing things that would result in it obtaining voting rights in a private registered provider;
  - (e) require a local authority to take steps to reduce or get rid of any voting rights that it has in a private registered provider.

- (3) Regulations under this section may override or modify any contractual or other rights (whenever created) or anything in a private registered provider's constitution.
- (4) Regulations under this section may –
  - (a) confer a power to amend the constitution of a private registered provider in consequence of provision made by the regulations;
  - (b) make provision about the procedure for exercising that power.
- (5) In this section –

“appointing”, in relation to an officer, includes nominating or otherwise influencing the selection of the officer;

“constitution” includes rules;

“local authority” has the meaning given by section 106 of the Housing Associations Act 1985;

“officer”, in relation to a private registered provider, has the meaning given by section 270 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008;

Clause 91

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

- 78B Page 39, line 36, after “administration” insert “(which, for this purpose, includes housing administration under Chapter 5 of Part 4 of the Housing and Planning Act 2016)”

Clause 92

- 78D Page 40, line 22, leave out “references in this section” and insert “the reference in subsection (1)(b)”
- 78E Page 40, line 23, leave out “are references” and insert “is a reference”

Clause 93

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

- 78F Page 40, line 25, leave out subsections (1) to (8) and insert –
- (1) A housing administrator has two objectives –
    - (a) Objective 1: normal administration (see section (Objective 1: normal administration)), and
    - (b) Objective 2: keeping social housing in the regulated sector (see section (Objective 2: keeping social housing in the regulated sector)).
  - (2) Objective 1 takes priority over Objective 2 (but the housing administrator must, so far as possible, work towards both objectives).

- (3) It follows that, in pursuing Objective 2, the housing administrator must not do anything that would result in a worse distribution to creditors than would be the case if the administrator did not need to pursue Objective 2.
- (4) A reference in this Chapter to the objectives of a housing administration is to the objectives to be pursued by the housing administrator.”

After Clause 93

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

78G Insert the following new Clause –

“Objective 1: normal administration

- (1) Objective 1 is to –
  - (a) rescue the registered provider as a going concern,
  - (b) achieve a better result for the registered provider’s creditors as a whole than would be likely if the registered provider were wound up (without first being in housing administration), or
  - (c) realise property in order to make a distribution to one or more secured or preferential creditors.
- (2) The housing administrator must aim to achieve Objective 1(a) unless the housing administrator thinks –
  - (a) that it is not reasonably practicable to achieve it, or
  - (b) that Objective 1(b) would achieve a better result for the registered provider’s creditors as a whole.
- (3) The housing administrator may aim to achieve Objective 1(c) only if –
  - (a) the housing administrator thinks that it is not reasonably practicable to achieve Objective 1(a) or (b), and
  - (b) the housing administrator does not unnecessarily harm the interests of the registered provider’s creditors as a whole.
- (4) In pursuing Objective 1(a), (b) or (c) the housing administrator must act in the interests of the registered provider’s creditors as a whole so far as consistent with that Objective.”

78H Insert the following new Clause –

“Objective 2: keeping social housing in the regulated sector

- (1) Objective 2 is to ensure that the registered provider’s social housing remains in the regulated housing sector.
- (2) For this purpose, social housing remains in the regulated housing sector for so long as it is owned by a private registered provider.”

98 Insert the following new Clause—

“Overcrowding in shared residential buildings

- (1) Local authorities may set limits for the number of residents that may lawfully reside in each rented property in a shared residential building.
- (2) Local authorities may set limits under subsection (1) for each relevant rented property whenever the contract for renting the property changes at any point after the day on which this section is brought into effect.
- (3) If a complaint is made to a local authority about overcrowding in a rented property for which a limit has been set under subsection (1), the local authority may investigate whether the limit is being exceeded and, if so, order the landlord of the property to take action to end the overcrowding.
- (4) Where the local authority orders a landlord to take action under subsection (3), the local authority may charge the landlord a fee to cover the reasonable costs of the investigation and action undertaken by the local authority.”

99 Insert the following new Clause—

“Overcrowding and subletting in shared residential buildings

The head lessee, freeholder or members of the right to manage company in a shared residential block may investigate whether any leaseholder within that block is allowing overcrowding in his or her property, or is allowing any subletting contrary to the terms of the lease, or is permitting a continuing nuisance to be made or a risk to the security of the block to be posed by those residing in the property.”

100 Insert the following new Clause—

“Client money protection for lettings agents

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person may not accept money from another person (“T”) in the course of lettings agency work unless there are in force authorised arrangements under which, in the event of his or her failing to account for that money to the person entitled to it, his or her liability will be made good by another.
- (2) In this section “T” is any person who seeks residential accommodation which is to let, or who has a tenancy of, or other right or permission to occupy, residential premises; and a “relevant payment” means any sum of money which is received from T in the circumstances described in subsection (1).
- (3) In this section “lettings agency work” has the same meaning as in section 83 of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013 (redress schemes: lettings agency work) and a “lettings agent” is a person who engages in lettings agency work.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument—
  - (a) specify any persons or classes of persons to whom subsection (1) does not apply;
  - (b) specify arrangements which are authorised for the purposes of this section including arrangements to which an enforcement authority nominated for the purpose by the Secretary of State or any other person so nominated is a party;
  - (c) specify the terms and conditions upon which any payment is to be made under such arrangements and any circumstances in which the right to any such payment may be excluded or modified;
  - (d) provide that any limit on the amount of any such payment is to be not less than a specified amount; and
  - (e) require a person providing authorised arrangements covering any person carrying on lettings agency work to issue a certificate in a form specified in the regulations certifying that arrangements complying with the regulations have been made with respect to that person.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (4) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) Every guarantee entered into by a person who provides authorised arrangements covering a lettings agent shall tenure for the benefit of every person from whom the lettings agent has received a relevant payment as if the guarantee were contained in a contract made by the insurer with every such person.”

101 Insert the following new Clause—

“Changes to leases: qualifying threshold for right to manage

- (1) Where leaseholders in a shared building have the right to manage and a beneficial change or modification is proposed to the terms of the leases in relation to communal services or general safeguards held in that shared building, the change shall be agreed and made if a simple majority of the eligible leaseholders vote in favour of the proposal.
- (2) In respect of a vote under subsection (1), a leaseholder shall —
  - (a) have the right to appoint a proxy to vote on his or her behalf; and
  - (b) be given adequate notice of when the vote will take place.
- (3) A change to the terms of the leases under subsection (1) may include leasehold enfranchisement.
- (4) If a leaseholder or his or her proxy fails to participate in the vote held under subsection (1) and reasonable arrangements have been made to enable him or her to do so, he or she shall be deemed to have voted in favour of the proposal.”

102 Insert the following new Clause—

“Sinking funds for repairs: leaseholds

- (1) The buyer of a leasehold in a shared residential building with common parts is required to make periodic deposits of sums into a fund to be maintained and used for the purpose of making repairs to the building in which the leasehold property is situated.
- (2) The fund shall be held and administered by the person designated to fulfil that role by the leaseholders.
- (3) The sums to be deposited and the timetable for their deposit shall be determined by those holding rights in the shared building, and the collection of those sums may be incorporated into the building’s service charge arrangements.
- (4) The requirement provided for by subsection (1) applies to any buyer of a leasehold who completes the purchase of that leasehold at any point after the day on which this section is brought into effect.”

107A Insert the following new Clause –

“Planning freedoms: right for local areas to request alterations to planning system

- (1) A local planning authority in England shall have the right to submit a proposal to the Secretary of State for the disapplication or modification of any legislation to do with planning (“planning freedoms”) if the authority considers those planning freedoms would contribute to a significant increase in housing delivery in the authority’s area.
- (2) An authority’s area under subsection (1) may comprise the area of one local planning authority, or the area of more than one local planning authority where those authorities are working together to increase housing delivery.
- (3) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that the planning freedoms requested in a proposal under subsection (1) will contribute to a significant increase in housing delivery in that authority’s (or group of authorities’) area, he or she may make regulations to disapply or modify any legislation to do with planning which apply to that area as he or she considers necessary to enable those authorities to increase housing delivery.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulation specify the maximum number of authorities in which the Secretary of State may implement planning freedoms at any one time, and that the planning freedoms provided for each area may last no more than 10 years.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations end the planning freedoms in an area where –
  - (a) the local planning authority concerned requests that he or she do so;
  - (b) the Secretary of State considers the local planning authority is failing to deliver the increase in housing delivery committed to in their proposals; or
  - (c) there are any exceptional circumstances.
- (6) Regulations made under subsection (3) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) If a draft of regulations made by the Secretary of State under subsection (6) would, apart from this subsection, be treated for the purposes of the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament as a hybrid instrument, it shall proceed in that House as if it were not such an instrument.”

- (2) Fees or charges under subsection (1) may exceed the costs incurred by the local planning authority in performing functions relating to the relevant project.
- (3) Local planning authorities shall retain any fees or charges paid in accordance with subsection (1), and use them as they see fit.”

After Clause 141

LORD DUBS

109 Insert the following new Clause –

“Code of practice for subterranean development works

- (1) A local planning authority may promulgate a code of practice on the excavation and construction of a subterranean development with a view to lessening the adverse impact of the excavation and construction on adjacent properties and their owners and occupiers and on the wider neighbourhood.
- (2) The code may include, but need not be limited to, the provisions listed in Schedule (Provisions in local authority code of practice for subterranean development).
- (3) Local planning authorities shall take account of any guidance issued by the Secretary of State in drawing up such a code of practice.
- (4) If a local planning authority has promulgated such a code, it may make the granting of planning consent for a subterranean development conditional on the developer undertaking to abide by the code or specified elements of it.”

110 Insert the following new Clause –

“Presumption against subterranean development

- (1) A local planning authority may not grant planning permission on an application to the authority under section 58 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (granting of planning permission: general) in respect of subterranean development which is either –
- (a) in a flood zone classified by the Environment Agency as subject to a high probability of flooding;
- (b) within a terrace; or
- (c) such that the local planning authority has reasonable grounds to believe that the subterranean development is likely to cause unreasonable interference to the use or enjoyment of the land of others either during its construction or after its completion; unless it can be demonstrated that the development will achieve substantial public benefits.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a “terrace” means a row of adjoining buildings where each building has a wall built at the line of juncture between itself and the adjoining property which provides structural support to itself and a building on the adjoining property.”

111 Insert the following new Clause –

“Notice to adjoining owners

- (1) Any owner of a property intending to undertake subterranean development works shall serve notice for any subterranean development in the manner set out in section 6(5) (adjacent excavation and construction) of the Party Wall etc Act 1996 (“the 1996 Act”) as if the distance of six metres is replaced by a distance of 12 metres.
- (2) For the purposes of section 6 of the 1996 Act, where the buildings or structures of different owners are above the site of the subterranean development, the owners of those buildings or structures shall be deemed to be adjoining owners.
- (3) If a building owner fails to serve notice in accordance with this section and with the 1996 Act before commencing subterranean development works, he or she shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or 10 per cent of the contract value reasonably to be expected in relation to the notifiable works, whichever shall be the greater and which, in the absence of agreement, shall be determined by surveyors appointed in accordance with the 1996 Act or as otherwise directed by the court.”

112 Insert the following new Clause –

“Expenses and losses

- (1) Where an adjoining owner does not notify the building owner in writing within 14 days that the works notified under section (notice to adjoining owners) are agreed, or agreed subject to conditions that are acceptable to the building owner, and a dispute is deemed to have arisen, the surveyors appointed in accordance with the 1996 Act shall –
  - (a) determine a sum to be held as security for expenses and losses which reasonably reflects –
    - (i) the risk of damage to the adjoining owner’s building likely to occur in consequence of the works;
    - (ii) the likely cost of completing the works, sufficiently to safeguard the adjoining owner’s building and to leave it weather tight if those works are suspended or left incomplete;
    - (iii) the cost of any loss to the adjoining owner as a result of the adjoining owner being unable to sell or lease his or her property for the normal market value as a result of the subterranean development works; and

- (iv) the cost of appropriate alternative accommodation if the surveyors determine that the adjoining owner or any member of his or her household who normally undertakes remunerative work in their building is unable to do so because of the disturbance caused by the subterranean development works, or that alternative accommodation is required for a member of the household seriously affected by the disturbance by reason of his or her physical condition; and
  - (b) hold and administer the determined sum.
- (2) Any liability arising from works shall remain with the owner or owners of the land or buildings where the subterranean works are taking or took place, and may be registered as a charge against the property for the purposes of the Land Registration Act 2002.”

113 Insert the following new Clause –

“Other works taking place on the subterranean development site

Non-subterranean works taking place on the building owner’s building during the period of the works on the subterranean development shall be treated –

- (a) as part of the subterranean development works for the purposes of sections 2 and 4 of this Act; and
- (b) as part of the works described in section 6(1) and (2) of the 1996 Act (adjacent excavation and construction) for the purposes of section 7(1) and (2) of that Act (compensation etc).”

114 Insert the following new Clause –

“Subterranean development: definitions

For the purposes of this Act –

“subterranean development” means development which comprises excavation or building below the prevailing ground level other than for the purposes of repairing, strengthening or supporting an existing building or structure; and

“owner”, “adjoining owner” and “building owner” have the same meanings as under the Party Wall etc Act 1996.”

115 Insert the following new Clause –

“Development not exempt from planning permission: subterranean development

- (1) Schedule 2, Part 1, of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995 (development within the curtilage of a dwellinghouse) is amended as follows.
- (2) In Class A, after paragraph A.1 (h), insert –
  - “(ha) the enlargement, improvement or other alteration would be subterranean.”
- (3) After “For the purposes of Part 1– ” insert ““subterranean” in relation to the enlargement, improvement or other alteration of a dwellinghouse, means excavation or building below the prevailing ground level other than for the purposes of repairing, strengthening or supporting an existing building or structure.”

“Retrospective planning permission

- (1) Where there has been a breach of planning control under section 171A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (“the 1990 Act”), the person or body who has caused the breach must make a retrospective planning application for planning permission under section 73A of the 1990 Act.
- (2) In respect of a retrospective planning application, the person or body who has caused the breach of planning control is liable for the payment of fees or charges to the local planning authority in respect of the costs incurred in carrying out the functions connected with the retrospective planning application.
- (3) The person or body who has caused the breach of planning control is liable for the payment of a significant additional charge, connected to the retrospective nature of the planning application, in addition to the fees and charges the person or body is liable for under subsection (2).
- (4) In carrying out the functions connected with a retrospective planning application, the local planning authority must consult the people residing in the local area to which the retrospective planning application relates.”

- (2) In reaching any decision on the conversion of offices to residential use the local planning authority shall be able to take account of all representations from the public or businesses, and all aspects of an approved local plan, neighbourhood plan or supplementary local planning document incorporated within its approved plan, provided that it has passed a resolution under subsection (1).
- (3) A resolution under subsection (1) may be adopted if—
  - (a) the local authority can demonstrate that active businesses within its area are being expelled from office space to enable conversion to residential use, or
  - (b) the local authority has concluded that the retention of office space is necessary for the future economic development of its area.”
