(1) A local authority in England must make advice and information available in accordance with this section for the purpose of promoting the educational achievement of each relevant child living permanently away from their parents educated in their area.

(2) The advice and information must be made available to—

(a) the child’s parents,
After Clause 9 - continued

(b) the member of staff at the child’s school designated under section 20A of the Children and Young Persons Act 2008 or by virtue of section 2E of the Academies Act 2010, and

(c) any other person that the local authority consider appropriate.

(3) A local authority in England may do anything else that they consider appropriate with a view to promoting the educational achievement of relevant children living permanently away from their parents educated in their area.

(4) A local authority in England must appoint at least one person for the purpose of discharging the duty imposed by subsection (1).

(5) The person appointed for that purpose must be an officer employed by the authority or another local authority in England.

(6) In this section “relevant child living permanently away from their parents” means—

(a) a child who is living permanently away from their parents and is being cared for by a relative, wider family member or friend under a child arrangements order which includes arrangements relating to—

(i) with whom the child is to live, or

(ii) when the child is to live with any person,

(b) a child who is being cared for under a special guardianship order, or

(c) a child who has been adopted under section 46(1) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 having been placed for adoption with parental consent under either section 19 or section 20 of that Act.

(7) For the purposes of this section a child is educated in a local authority’s area if—

(a) the child is receiving early years provision secured by the local authority under section 7(1) of the Childcare Act 2006, or

(b) the child is of compulsory school age and—

(i) the child attends a school in the local authority’s area, or

(ii) if the child does not attend school, the child receives all or most of his or her education in the local authority’s area.

(8) A pupil at a maintained school in England is to be assigned a “designated person” responsible for promoting their educational achievement in accordance with the provisions of section 20A of the Children and Young Persons Act 2008 (inserted by section 5 of this Act) if they are—

(a) a child who is living permanently away from their parents and is being cared for by a relative, wider family member or friend under a child arrangements order which includes arrangements relating to—

(i) with whom the child is to live, or

(ii) when the child is to live with any person,

(b) a child who is being cared for under a special guardianship order, or

Insert the following new Clause—

“Support for family and friends carers where children are not looked after children

After section 17ZI of the Children Act 1989, insert—

“17Z) Support for family and friends carers where children are not looked after children

(1) Each local authority in England must make arrangements for the provision within their area of family and friends care support services, including—

(a) counselling, advice and information;
(b) such other services as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State, in regulations, in relation to family and friends care; and
(c) the appointment of at least one person as a designated lead for family and friends care, to co-ordinate the provision within their area of family and friends care support services.

(2) The power to make regulations under subsection (1)(b) is to be exercised so as to secure that local authorities provide financial support to family and friends carers.

(3) At the request of any of the following persons—

(a) a relative, wider family member or friend (hereinafter referred to as ‘C’) caring for a child in any of the circumstances set out in subsection (4),
(b) a parent or other person with parental responsibility for a child in any of the circumstances set out in subsection (4) below,
(c) a child living with C in any of the circumstances set out in subsection (4), or
(d) any other person who falls within a prescribed description,

a local authority must carry out an assessment of that person’s needs for family and friends care support services.

(4) The circumstances referred to in subsections (3)(a), (3)(b) and (3)(c) are—

(a) the child comes to live with C as a result of enquiries or plans made under section 47 of this Act;
(b) the child comes to live with C following an investigation under section 37 of this Act;
(c) C has been granted a residence order or child arrangements order to avoid the child being looked after, within care proceedings regarding the child or following the accommodation of a child;
(d) there is professional evidence of the impairment of the parents’ ability to care for the child; or
(e) the parent is dead or in prison.

(5) Where, as a result of an assessment, a local authority decides that a person has needs for family and friends care support services, they must consider whether to provide any such services to that person.

(6) Where a local authority decides to provide any family and friends care support services to a person and the circumstances fall within a description to be prescribed by the Secretary of State in regulations, the local authority must prepare a plan in accordance with which such services are to be provided to that person, and keep the plan under review.

(7) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about assessments, preparing and reviewing plans, the provision of family and friends care support services in accordance with plans, and reviewing the provision of family and friends care support services.

(8) The regulations under subsection (7) may in particular make provision about—

(a) the type of assessment which is to be carried out, or the way in which an assessment is to be carried out;
(b) the way in which a plan is to be prepared;
(c) the way in which, and the time at which, a plan or the provision of family and friends care support services is to be reviewed;
(d) the considerations to which a local authority are to have regard in carrying out an assessment or review or preparing a plan;
(e) the circumstances in which a local authority may provide family and friends care support services subject to conditions (including conditions as to payment for support or the repayment of financial support);
(f) the consequences of conditions imposed by virtue of paragraph (e) above not being met (including the recovery of any financial support provided);
(g) the circumstances in which this section may apply to a local authority in respect of persons who are outside that local authority’s area;
(h) the circumstances in which a local authority may recover from another local authority the expenses of providing family and friends care support services to any person.

(9) A local authority in England may provide family and friends care support services (or any part of them) by securing their provision by—
   (a) another local authority, or
   (b) a person within a description prescribed in regulations of persons who may provide family and friends care support services, and may also arrange with any such authority or person for that other authority or person to carry out the local authority’s functions in relation to assessments under this section.

(10) A local authority in England may carry out an assessment of the needs of any person for the purposes of this section at the same time as an assessment of the person’s needs is made under any other provision of this Act or under any other enactment.

(11) Section 27 (co-operation between authorities) applies in relation to the exercise of functions of a local authority under this section as it applies in relation to the exercise of functions of a local authority under Part 3.”

98 Insert the following new Clause—

“Duty to report on outcomes

(1) Each local authority in England must report to the Secretary of State each year on outcomes for children in need; children subject to child protection plans; children who are the subject of care proceedings; looked after children; and care leavers in relation to—
   (a) physical health, mental health and emotional well-being;
   (b) education and training;
   (c) employment;
   (d) accommodation;

“16F Local child safeguarding practice reviews

(1) The safeguarding partners for a local authority area in England must make arrangements in accordance with this section—

(a) to identify serious child safeguarding cases which raise issues of importance in relation to the area, and

(b) for those cases to be reviewed under the supervision of the safeguarding partners, where they consider it appropriate.
(2) The purpose of a review under subsection (1)(b) is to ascertain what (if any) lessons can be learned from the case about the way in which persons in the area should work to safeguard and promote the welfare of children.

(3) Where a case is reviewed under the supervision of the safeguarding partners, they must—
   (a) ensure that the reviewer provides a report on the outcome of the review;
   (b) ensure—
      (i) that the reviewer makes satisfactory progress, and
      (ii) that the report is of satisfactory quality;
   (c) provide the report to the Secretary of State and the Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel.

(4) The safeguarding partners must publish the report, unless they consider it inappropriate to do so.

(5) If the safeguarding partners consider it inappropriate to publish the report, they must publish any information relating to the lessons to be learned from the case that they consider it appropriate to publish.

(6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about—
   (a) criteria to be taken into account by the safeguarding partners in determining whether serious child safeguarding cases raise issues of importance in relation to the area;
   (b) the appointment or removal of a reviewer by the safeguarding partners, including provision for a reviewer to be appointed by the safeguarding partners from a list provided by the Secretary of State;
   (c) the time when a report is to be provided to the Secretary of State or the Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel, or published;
