LORD TOPE

44 Insert the following new Clause—

“Permitted development: cumulative impact assessments

- (1) A local planning authority may publish a document (“a cumulative impact assessment”) stating that the local planning authority considers that developments taking place under permitted development rights, including change of use, of a kind described in the assessment, are having an adverse impact on the sustainability of the provision of particular services in the area.
- (2) A cumulative impact assessment must set out the evidence for the authority’s opinion as set out in the assessment in accordance with subsection (1).
- (3) Where such a cumulative impact assessment has been published, the local planning authority may suspend, with immediate effect, the relevant permitted development rights, as described in the cumulative impact assessment.
- (4) Where a local planning authority publishes a cumulative impact assessment, as described in subsection (1), it may review the assessment, from time to time, to consider whether it remains of the opinion stated in the assessment.”

LORD KENNEDY OF SOUTHWARK
LORD SCRIVEN
LORD SHIPLEY
BARONESS CUMBERLEGE

45 Insert the following new Clause—

“Local authorities and development management services

- (1) A local planning authority may set a charging regime in relation to its development management services.
- (2) In setting the amount of a charge under subsection (1), a local planning authority must secure that, taking one financial year with another, its income from charges does not exceed the cost to the authority of delivering the development management services for which the charges are imposed.”

BARONESS YOUNG OF OLD SCONE
BARONESS PARMINTER
LORD JUDD

46 Insert the following new Clause—

“Planning: duty to have regard to the protection of ancient woodland and veteran and aged trees

In section 197 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (planning permission to include appropriate provision for preservation and planting of trees), after paragraph (b) insert—

- “(c) to refuse permission for any development which may result in the loss or deterioration of ancient woodland, and the loss of aged or veteran trees found outside ancient woodland, unless the need for, and benefits of, the development in that location are wholly exceptional;
  - (d) to refuse permission for a development in respect of which there is insufficient provision made for the preservation of woodland and planting of trees; and
  - (e) to impose any such conditions and make any such orders as are necessary to protect woodland and trees.
- (2) The local planning authority must—
- (a) ensure that all planning applications are compatible with the protection and enhancement of the environment; and
  - (b) ensure that the protection and enhancement of the environment is identified as a strategic priority in the authority’s area under section 19 or 35 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.
- (3) In this section—
- (a) “ancient woodland” means an area that has been continuously wooded since the year 1600;
  - (b) “veteran and aged trees” means trees which because of their age, size or condition are of exceptional value culturally, in the landscape or to wildlife.””

LORD TOPE
LORD SHIPLEY

47 Insert the following new Clause—

“Local authorities and development control services

- (1) A local planning authority may set a charging regime in relation to their development control services to allow for the cost of providing the development control service to be recouped.
- (2) Any such charging regime must be subject to consultation prior to implementation.”

47A [Retabled as Amendment 49A]

BARONESS GARDNER OF PARKES

48 Insert the following new Clause—

“Planning applications: setting of fees

- (1) Local planning authorities may make provision for the payment of fees or charges to them in respect of the performance of their functions and anything done by them which is calculated to facilitate or is conducive or incidental to the performance of their functions, and may vary such fees or charges according to the value of the project concerned or any other material concerns.
- (2) Fees or charges under subsection (1) may exceed the costs incurred by the local planning authority in performing functions relating to the relevant project.

- (3) Local planning authorities shall retain any fees or charges paid in accordance with subsection (1), and use them as they see fit.”

49 Insert the following new Clause—

“Retrospective planning permission

- (1) Where there has been a breach of planning control, as defined under section 171A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (“the 1990 Act”), the person or body who has caused the breach must make a retrospective planning application for planning permission under section 73A of the 1990 Act (planning permission for development already carried out).
- (2) In respect of a retrospective planning application, the person or body who has caused the breach of planning control is liable for the payment of fees or charges to the local planning authority in respect of the costs incurred in carrying out the functions connected with the retrospective planning application.
- (3) The person or body who has caused the breach of planning control is liable for the payment of a significant additional charge, connected to the retrospective nature of the planning application, in addition to the fees and charges the person or body is liable for under subsection (2).
- (4) In carrying out the functions connected with a retrospective planning application, the local planning authority must consult the people residing in the local area to which the retrospective planning application relates.”

BARONESS BAKEWELL OF HARDINGTON MANDEVILLE
LORD SHIPLEY

49A Insert the following new Clause—

*“Public land registerRegister of public land

- (1) Every local planning authority must keep a register of all public land in its area, for the purpose of identifying land in their area which could be used for development.
- (2) The register must be kept in such manner as is prescribed by the Secretary of State by regulations made by statutory instrument.”

BARONESS PINNOCK
LORD SHIPLEY

49B Insert the following new Clause—

“Development on previously developed land

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for a scheme to maximise development on previously developed land.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide access to land remediation grants where this would enable the land to be developed.

- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) must be made by statutory instrument and may not be made unless a draft of the instrument containing the regulations has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

For section 75ZB of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (information about neighbourhood development plans) substitute –

“75ZB Responsibilities of decision-makers in respect of neighbourhood development plans in the exercise of planning functions

- (1) In considering whether to grant planning permission or permission in principle for development which affects land all or part of which is included within the area covered by a made or emerging neighbourhood development plan, the local planning authority must –
  - (a) have special regard to the desirability of upholding the policies and proposals contained in the neighbourhood development plan;
  - (b) send a copy of the application to the relevant neighbourhood planning body;
  - (c) allow the relevant neighbourhood planning body a period of 21 days from receipt of the application to make recommendations about how the application should be determined; and
  - (d) take into account any recommendations made under paragraph (c).
- (2) Where a neighbourhood planning body recommends that planning permission should not be granted in respect of the application and the following conditions are met, the local planning authority may not approve the application without first consulting the Secretary of State.
- (3) The conditions mentioned in subsection (2) are that –
  - (a) the development is not classed as a householder development; and
  - (b) the development is not on a site identified for the proposed development in the relevant neighbourhood development plan.

After Clause 13 - continued

- (4) Consultations with the Secretary of State under subsection (2) must follow the procedures set out in provisions 10 to 12 of the Town and Country Planning (Consultation) (England) Direction 2009.
- (5) In this section –
 “emerging neighbourhood development plan” means a neighbourhood development plan that has been examined, is being examined, or is due to be examined, having met the public consultation requirements necessary to proceed to this stage;
 “householder development” means proposals to alter or enlarge a single house, including works within the curtilage of the house;
 “neighbourhood planning body” means a town or parish council or neighbourhood forum, as defined in section 61F.””
