

Richmond Burgage Pastures Bill

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill amends two outdated provisions of the Richmond Burgage Pastures Act 1853 (“the 1853 Act”). The 1853 Act makes provision about the regulation of the pasturing and management of certain pastures in Richmond, North Yorkshire, including the disused racecourse. It also established the Richmond Burgage Pastures Committee (“the Committee”), which continues to manage the pasture land in accordance with the 1853 Act.

Clause 1 deals with citation.

Clause 2 amends two provisions of the 1853 Act.

First, it amends section 5 of the 1853 Act by removing a requirement that members of the Committee must reside no more than seven miles from the boundaries of the old borough of Richmond.

Secondly, it amends section 10 of the 1853 Act by removing restrictions on the Committee's power to lease land under that section. Those restrictions require that any leases must be granted from year to year and at the best yearly rent that can reasonably be had.

Clause 3 enables the costs of preparing for, obtaining and passing of the Bill paid or payable by the Committee to be paid out of the Committee's revenue.

EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

In the view of the Richmond Burgage Pastures Committee the provisions of the Bill are compatible with the Convention Rights.
