LORD ROSSER

Page 1, line 8, leave out subsection (3)

After Clause 1

BARONESS RANDESON

Insert the following new Clause—

“Potential impact of leaving the European Union on consumer protection under the ATOL scheme

- (1) The Secretary of State must carry out an assessment of the potential impact that leaving the European Union will have on consumer protection in the United Kingdom under the Air Travel Organisers' Licence scheme.
- (2) The Secretary of State must lay a report of the assessment before Parliament within the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.”

LORD ROSSER

Insert the following new Clause—

“Potential impact on consumer protection of UK consumers using EU-based companies

- (1) The Secretary of State may, within two years of the Act coming into force, require that the Air Travel Insolvency Protection Advisory Committee review the impact on UK consumers of booking a holiday through an EU-based company rather than a UK-based company.
- (2) The Secretary of State must lay a report of any assessment carried out under subsection (1) before both Houses of Parliament.”

Clause 2

BARONESS RANDEKSON

Page 1, line 22, at end insert—

“(6A) Any amendments to the definition of “Air Travel Trust” in subsection (5) may not be laid before Parliament until the Secretary of State has published a full impact assessment and undertaken a consultation on the proposed amendments.”

“(6A) The Secretary of State may not amend the definition of “Air Travel Trust” under subsection (6) until a report outlining the criteria under which those amendments have been proposed has been laid before both Houses of Parliament.”
