“Child's consent in relation to information society services

In Article 8(1) of the GDPR (conditions applicable to child's consent in relation to information society services) –

- (a) references to “16 years” are to be read as references to “13 years” provided that the information society service meets the minimum standards of age-appropriate design as determined by the Commissioner, and
- (b) the reference to “information society services” does not include preventive or counselling services.”

After Clause 8

BARONESS KIDRON
 BARONESS HARDING OF WINSCOMBE
 LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
 LORD STOREY

19 Insert the following new Clause—

“Parental consent in relation to children under the age of 13 years

A data controller which offers information society services direct to a child under the age of 13 years may lawfully process the personal data of that child based on the consent or authorisation of the holder of parental responsibility for that child provided that the data controller meets the minimum standards of age-appropriate design as determined by the Commissioner under section (Guidance on minimum standards of age-appropriate design).”

LORD MCNALLY
 LORD STOREY

20 Insert the following new Clause—

“Education for children of school age relating to the rights of data subjects

- (1) Upon the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must make arrangements for all children of school age to receive education relating to the rights of data subjects, appropriate to their age.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) “the rights of data subjects” must include—
 - (a) rights under this Act and other Acts and Regulations relating to data protection and privacy,
 - (b) security of personal data, and
 - (c) other matters related to the understanding and exercise of rights under this Act and other Acts and Regulations relating to data protection.”

 LORD KENNEDY OF SOUTHWARK

20A Insert the following new Clause—

“Review of section 8

- (1) Within the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must publish a report reviewing the operation of section 8 in order to determine the optimal arrangements for children to consent to the use of their personal data in relation to information society services.

After Clause 8 - continued

- (2) The report must include, but is not limited to—
- (a) an assessment of the efficacy of age verification processes for the purposes of gaining consent of children aged 13 years and over; and
 - (b) the extent to which Article 8 of the GDPR and section 8 of this Act interact with and support wider aspects of the safety of children using information society services.
- (3) The report must be laid before both Houses of Parliament.”

“15A(1) This condition is met if –

- (a) the processing is necessary for the purposes of –
 - (i) automatically renewing a pre-GDPR insurance contract, or
 - (ii) carrying out, or managing the expiry of, an insurance contract resulting from the automatic renewal of a pre-GDPR insurance contract,
 - (b) the controller has taken reasonable steps to obtain the data subject’s consent to the processing of personal data necessary for those purposes in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), and
 - (c) the controller is not aware of the data subject withholding such consent.
- (2) The steps described in sub-paragraph (1)(b) must have been taken –
- (a) in the case of a contract which automatically renews after a period of less than 10 months, on at least one automatic renewal of the contract in each period of 12 months that has ended since 25 May 2018;
 - (b) in any other case, each time the contract has automatically renewed since 25 May 2018.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph, an insurance contract is automatically renewed if –
- (a) a new insurance contract between the same parties is made without the insured person taking any steps, and
 - (b) the new contract provides cover which is the same as, or substantially similar to, the cover provided by the expired contract, and references in this paragraph to the automatic renewal of a contract include both the first automatic renewal on the expiry of that contract and subsequent automatic renewal originating with that contract.

- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (3)(a), the new contract and the expired contract are to be treated as made with the same insurer if they are made with different insurers but arranged by the same intermediary.
- (5) In this paragraph –
- “insurance contract” means a contract of general insurance or long-term insurance;
 - “insurer” means a person carrying on business which consists of effecting or carrying out insurance contracts;
 - “pre-GDPR”, in relation to an insurance contract, means made before 25 May 2018.

Schedule 1 - continued

- (6) Terms used in the definition of “insurance contract” in sub-paragraph (5) and also in an order made under section 22 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (regulated activities) have the same meaning in that definition as they have in that order.”

182 Insert the following new Clause –

“Super-affirmative resolution procedure

- (1) For the purposes of this Act the “super-affirmative resolution procedure” is as follows.
- (2) The Minister must have regard to –
 - (a) any representations,
 - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
 - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft order, made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft order.
- (3) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make an order in the terms of the draft, he must lay before Parliament –
 - (a) a statement –
 - (i) stating whether any representations were made under subsection (2)(a), and
 - (ii) if any representations were so made, giving details of them; and
 - (b) an assessment of the likely impact of the order on –
 - (i) industry,
 - (ii) charities, and
 - (iii) public authorities.
- (4) The Minister may after the laying of such a statement make an order in the terms of the draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

- (5) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft order may, at any time after the laying of a statement under subsection (3) and before the draft order is approved by that House under subsection (4), recommend under this subsection that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the draft order.
- (6) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under subsection (5) in relation to a draft order, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the draft order in that House under subsection (4) unless the recommendation is, in the same session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (7) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make an order consisting of a version of the draft order with material changes, he must lay before Parliament—
 - (a) a revised draft order;
 - (b) a statement giving details of—
 - (i) any representations made under subsection (2)(a); and
 - (ii) the revisions proposed; and
 - (c) an assessment of the likely impact of the revised order on—
 - (i) industry;
 - (ii) charities; and
 - (iii) public authorities.
- (8) The Minister may after laying a revised draft order and statement under subsection (7) make an order in the terms of the revised draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (9) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the revised draft order may, at any time after the revised draft order is laid under subsection (7) and before it is approved by that House under subsection (8), recommend under this subsection that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the revised draft order.
- (10) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under subsection (9) in relation to a revised draft order, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the revised draft order in that House under subsection (8) unless the recommendation is, in the same session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (11) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (8) an order is made in the terms of a draft order if it contains no material changes to the provisions of the draft order.
- (12) In this section the “60-day period” means the period of 60 days beginning with the day on which the draft order was laid before Parliament.”
