“15A(1) This condition is met if –

Schedule 1 - continued

- (a) the processing is necessary for the purposes of—
 - (i) automatically renewing a pre-GDPR insurance contract, or
 - (ii) carrying out, or managing the expiry of, an insurance contract resulting from the automatic renewal of a pre-GDPR insurance contract,
 - (b) the controller has taken reasonable steps to obtain the data subject’s consent to the processing of personal data necessary for those purposes in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), and
 - (c) the controller is not aware of the data subject withholding such consent.
- (2) The steps described in sub-paragraph (1)(b) must have been taken—
- (a) in the case of a contract which automatically renews after a period of less than 10 months, on at least one automatic renewal of the contract in each period of 12 months that has ended since 25 May 2018;
 - (b) in any other case, each time the contract has automatically renewed since 25 May 2018.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph, an insurance contract is automatically renewed if—
- (a) a new insurance contract between the same parties is made without the insured person taking any steps, and
 - (b) the new contract provides cover which is the same as, or substantially similar to, the cover provided by the expired contract,
- and references in this paragraph to the automatic renewal of a contract include both the first automatic renewal on the expiry of that contract and subsequent automatic renewal originating with that contract.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (3)(a), the new contract and the expired contract are to be treated as made with the same insurer if they are made with different insurers but arranged by the same intermediary.
- (5) In this paragraph—
- “insurance contract” means a contract of general insurance or long-term insurance;
 - “insurer” means a person carrying on business which consists of effecting or carrying out insurance contracts;
 - “pre-GDPR”, in relation to an insurance contract, means made before 25 May 2018.
- (6) Terms used in the definition of “insurance contract” in sub-paragraph (5) and also in an order made under section 22 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (regulated activities) have the same meaning in that definition as they have in that order.”

“21(1) This condition is met if the processing is carried out—

- (a) in connection with measures designed to protect sport in the United Kingdom from athletes taking performance enhancing substances listed in the World Anti-Doping Code which are undertaken by UK Anti-Doping (UKAD) or any successor body mandated by the Secretary of State as a non-departmental public body responsible for such objectives, or
 - (b) for the purposes of national governing bodies of sports, sports clubs, institutions of higher education, schools or managers of sporting events providing information about individual athletes who may be in receipt of performance enhancing substances to UKAD or its successor body.
- (2) The reference in sub-paragraph (1)(a) to measures designed to protect sport in the United Kingdom from athletes taking performance enhancing substances include measures designed to identify or prevent doping including, but not limited to, requesting information about the gender of the data subject if thought to be relevant to the use of banned performance enhancing substances.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) data controllers include, but are not limited to, the UK Anti-Doping Agency, medical practitioners recognised by the British Medical Association, national governing bodies of sport, sports clubs, higher education institutions, schools and managers of sporting events;
 - (b) data processors include but are not limited to all sports bodies and individuals appointed by the controller; and

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS RELATING TO BIOMETRIC DATA

Biometric data for identity verification and authentication to increase security

28A(1) This condition is met if –

- (a) the processing is necessary for identity verification or authentication as an integral and ongoing security or identity assurance feature of a service the individual has chosen to use;
 - (b) the processing is a necessary and proportionate method for an employer to secure access to their premises; or
 - (c) the processing is necessary for internal research and development to improve a biometric identity verification and authentication mechanism.
- (2) Processing under sub-paragraph (1)(b) must be accompanied by a data protection impact assessment.
- (3) Processing under sub-paragraph (1)(c) is to be carried out so that –
- (a) the data is not processed to support measures or decisions with respect to particular individuals, and
 - (b) the data is not processed in such a way that substantial damage or substantial distress is, or is likely to be, caused to any data subject.

- (4) Processing carried out in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) is deemed compatible with the purposes for which the data was obtained and with Article 5(1)(b) of the GDPR (“purpose limitation principle”).
- (5) Personal data processed under sub-paragraph (1)(c), in accordance with sub-paragraph (3), can be kept indefinitely.
- (6) Processing carried out in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) is exempt from Article 15 of the GDPR (“subject access right”) providing that the results of the research and any resulting statistics are not made available in a form which identifies data subjects.”

After Clause 10

LORD LUCAS

71ZA Insert the following new Clause –

“Regulations relating to the processing of personal data under Part 3 of the Digital Economy Act 2017

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the age-verification regulator under section 16 of the Digital Economy Act 2017 may publish, and revise from time to time, regulations relating to the processing of personal data for purposes of age verification under types of arrangements for making pornographic material available not prohibited by section 14 of the Digital Economy Act 2017 in order to –
 - (a) provide appropriate protection, choice and trust in respect of personal data processed as part of any such arrangements; and
 - (b) create any technical obligations necessary to achieve the aims set out in subsection (1)(a).

- (2) Once the regulator has prepared a draft of regulations it proposes to publish under subsection (1), it must submit the draft to the Secretary of State.
- (3) When draft regulations are submitted to the Secretary of State under subsection (2), the Secretary of State must lay those draft regulations before both Houses of Parliament.
- (4) If, within the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which draft regulations are laid before Parliament under subsection (3), either House resolves not to approve those draft regulations, the age-verification regulator must not publish those regulations in the form of that draft.
- (5) If no such resolution is made within that period, the age-verification regulator must publish the regulations in the form of the draft laid before Parliament.
- (6) But subsection (8) applies, instead of subsections (4) and (5), in a case falling within subsection (7).
- (7) The cases falling within this subsection are those where draft regulations are laid before Parliament under subsection (3) and no previous regulations have been published under subsection (1) by the age-verification regulator.
- (8) The regulator must not publish regulations in the form of the draft laid before Parliament unless the draft has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (9) Subsection (4) does not prevent new draft regulations from being laid before Parliament.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (4) –
 - (a) where draft regulations are laid before each House of Parliament on different days, the later day is to be taken as the day on which it was laid before both Houses, and
 - (b) in reckoning any period of 40 days, no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (11) References in this section to regulations and draft regulations include references to revised regulations and draft revised regulations.”

After Clause 11

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD KENNEDY OF SOUTHWARK

71A Insert the following new Clause –

“Right to be informed of the commercial exploitation of personal data

- (1) Data controllers must notify data subjects of all intended or actual commercial exploitation of their personal data.
- (2) The notification under subsection (1) must be made –
 - (a) at the time when the data subject consents to their personal data being processed by the data controller,
 - (b) before commercial exploitation takes place, if this is more than six months after the notification in paragraph (a), and

- (c) every six months thereafter if the commercial exploitation is ongoing.
- (3) Notifications under this section must include –
 - (a) the primary uses to which the personal data will be put, and
 - (b) the gross revenues the data controller expects to receive through the exploitation of that personal data.”

- (1) The Secretary of State must appoint an independent Personal Data Ethics Advisory Board as soon as reasonably practicable after the passing of this Act.
- (2) The Personal Data Ethics Advisory Board’s functions, in relation to the processing of personal data to which the GDPR and this Act applies, are to—
 - (a) monitor further technical advances in the use and management of personal data and their implications for the rights of data subjects;
 - (b) protect the individual and collective rights and interests of data subjects in relation to their personal data;

- (c) ensure that trade-offs between the rights of data subjects and the use and management of personal data are made transparently, accountably and inclusively;
 - (d) seek out good practices and learn from successes and failures in the use and management of personal data; and
 - (e) enhance the skills of data subjects and controllers in the use and management of personal data.
- (3) The Personal Data Ethics Advisory Board must report annually to the Secretary of State.
- (4) The report in subsection (3) may contain recommendations to the Secretary of State and the Commissioner relating to how they can improve the processing of personal data and the protection of data subjects' rights by improving methods of—
- (a) monitoring and evaluating the use and management of personal data;
 - (b) sharing best practice and setting standards for data controllers; and
 - (c) clarifying and enforcing data protection rules.
- (5) The Secretary of State must lay the report in subsection (3) before both Houses of Parliament.”
