“Implementation of agreements reached with the European Union on radiopharmaceutical products

- (1) Before exit day, the Secretary of State must publish a report which includes the details of any agreements reached with the European Union—

- (a) for the efficient importation of radiopharmaceutical products for use in medical treatment and research in the United Kingdom;
 - (b) for the efficient export of radiopharmaceutical products for use in medical treatment and research outside the United Kingdom;
 - (c) for the purposes described in paragraphs (a) and (b) above in circumstances of urgency, including protocols for retrospective authorisation in exceptional cases;
 - (d) to protect the safety of persons coming into contact with the products described;
 - (e) for continued participation in relevant research and clinical projects;
 - (f) to replace the responsibilities and activities of the European Observatory on the Supply of Medical Isotopes;
 - (g) to replace all statutory, treaty and other responsibilities and actions undertaken by Euratom prior to 29 March 2019 in connection with radiopharmaceuticals.
- (2) In addition to the report described in subsection (1), at the same time the Secretary of State must make regulations providing for the implementation of any agreements described in the report.
- (3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (2) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

BARONESS KENNEDY OF THE SHAWS

Insert the following new Clause –

“Co-operation with the European Union on tackling violence against women and girls

- (1) Within one month of this Act receiving Royal Assent, and then once in every subsequent calendar year, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on continued co-operation with the European Union after exit day on tackling violence against women and girls.
- (2) That report must include, in particular, an assessment of how co-operation with the European Union will replicate mechanisms which exist within the European Union before exit day to –
- (a) maintain common rights for victims of domestic and sexual abuse when moving across borders,
 - (b) reduce female genital mutilation,
 - (c) reduce human trafficking,
 - (d) reduce child sexual exploitation, and
 - (e) enable data sharing relating to paragraphs (a) to (d).”

Insert the following new Clause—

“Co-operation with the European Union on child maintenance claims

Within one month of this Act receiving Royal Assent, and then once in every subsequent calendar year, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report containing an assessment of how, following exit day, co-operation between the United Kingdom and the European Union will replicate mechanisms which exist within the European Union to enforce cross-border child maintenance claims, and enable data sharing in relation to such matters.”

Insert the following new Clause—

“Funding for ending violence against women and girls

- (1) Within one month of this Act receiving Royal Assent, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on the funding provided by the European Union before exit day to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls.
- (2) That report must include in particular—
 - (a) an assessment of the amount and nature of funding provided by European Union institutions to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls; and
 - (b) whether comparable resources for research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls will be made available in the United Kingdom.”
