- (4) In carrying out their duties and functions arising by virtue of this Act, public authorities must take account of the public interest in—
  - (a) promoting sustainable development in the United Kingdom and overseas,
  - (b) preserving, protecting and improving the environment,
  - (c) the prudent and rational utilisation of natural resources,
  - (d) promoting measures at the international level to deal with regional or worldwide environmental problems, and combat climate change,
  - (e) guaranteeing participatory rights including—
    - (i) access to information,
    - (ii) public participation in decision making, and
    - (iii) access to justice, in relation to environmental matters, and
  - (f) acting in a way that takes account of available scientific and technical data.

- (5) When making proposals concerning environmental protection, public authorities shall take as a base a high level of protection, taking account in particular of any new development based on scientific facts.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies in any proceedings in which a court or tribunal determines whether a provision of primary or subordinate legislation is compatible with the environmental principles.
- (7) If the court is satisfied that the provision is incompatible with the environmental principles, it may make a declaration of that incompatibility.”

If the House of Commons declines to approve a motion tabled in the name of the Minister of the Crown or Parliament declines to pass the statute under section 9(1) in respect of the final terms of the withdrawal agreement or future relationship with the European Union, it will be the policy of the Government to seek to maintain the existing arrangements and relationship with the EU and to seek an extension to the period set out in Article 50(3) of the TEU.”

LORD SHARKEY

200 Insert the following new Clause—

“Statutory instruments under other Acts of Parliament for the purposes of withdrawal

- (1) The Statutory Instruments Act 1946 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 9, insert—

“9A Instruments relating to the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union

- (1) Any statutory instrument under any Act of Parliament containing regulations to make provisions for the same purposes as set out under section 7, 8 or 9 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, is subject to the same parliamentary procedure as an instrument made for the same purposes under a power provided for in those sections.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies instead of the parliamentary procedure set out in any Act under which the instrument is made.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—

“the same purposes as a power provided for in those sections” means—

- (a) under section 7, regulations which make such provision as the Minister considers appropriate to prevent, remedy or mitigate—
  - (i) any failure of retained EU law to operate effectively, or
  - (ii) any other deficiency in retained EU law, arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU;
- (b) under section 8, regulations which make such provision as the Minister considers appropriate to prevent or remedy any breach, arising from withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, of the international obligations of the United Kingdom; and

- (c) under section 9, regulations which make such provision as the Minister considers appropriate for the purposes of implementing the withdrawal agreement if the Minister considers that such provision should be in force on or before exit day;
 “exit day” has the same meaning as in section 14 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.””

LORD BASSAM OF BRIGHTON

201 Insert the following new Clause –

“Additional requirements for regulations under sections 7, 8 and 9

- (1) This section applies to regulations under sections 7, 8 and 9.
 (2) A Minister may not decide that it is appropriate to make regulations to which these sections apply unless that Minister –
 (a) has considered whether there are good reasons to make those regulations and has determined that there are, and
 (b) has considered whether making such regulations is a reasonable course of action and has determined that it is.”

BARONESS SMITH OF NEWNHAM
 BARONESS LUDFORD
 LORD JUDD
 LORD ROBERTS OF LLANDUDNO

202 Insert the following new Clause –

“Rights of EU citizens

A Minister of the Crown must by regulations make provision to maintain, preserve and protect the rights of any citizen of an EU member State who was lawfully resident in the United Kingdom immediately before exit day, and in particular to continue their right to be lawfully resident in the United Kingdom.”

 BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB
 LORD JUDD

211 Insert the following new Clause—

“Maintaining individual rights and protections

- (1) When making any agreement under subsection (2), the Secretary of State must take steps to ensure that UK citizens enjoy standards of rights and protections equivalent to those enjoyed by citizens of the EU under EU law.
- (2) This section applies to—
  - (a) any agreement between the United Kingdom and the EU which prepares for, or implements, the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU;
  - (b) any international trade agreement—
    - (i) between the United Kingdom and the EU, or
    - (ii) between the United Kingdom and another signatory which seeks to replicate in full or in part the provisions of an international trade agreement between the EU and the other signatory.
- (3) In relation to any agreement under subsection (2), the Secretary of State must have regard to the desirability of maintaining the highest standards of transparency.”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
 LORD JUDD

212 Insert the following new Clause—

“Border arrangements relating to animal welfare

- (1) It is an objective of the Government to seek agreement with the EU on appropriate border arrangements relating to the transport of live animals from the EU to the United Kingdom.
- (2) “Appropriate” arrangements under subsection (1) are arrangements which ensure, among other things, that the responsible UK authority is able to ascertain that the transported animal has been raised and kept according to the applicable UK welfare standards, even where these are more stringent than the EU equivalents.

- (3) This section applies both to animals raised and kept in the EU and to those transported to the United Kingdom via the EU from a third country.”

LORD ADONIS
LORD DAVIES OF STAMFORD

213 Insert the following new Clause—

“Terms of withdrawal: approval by Parliament

- (1) The Government may not conclude any agreement on terms of withdrawal from the European Union, or on the United Kingdom’s future relationship with the EU, until those terms have been approved by resolution of both Houses of Parliament.
- (2) Approval by resolution of both Houses of Parliament for the purposes of subsection (1) must take place no later than three months before exit day.”

LORD HASKEL
BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB

214 Insert the following new Clause—

“Governance and institutional arrangements

- (1) Before exit day, a Minister of the Crown must make provision that all powers and functions which form part of retained EU law, which relate to any right, freedom or protection that any person might reasonably expect to exercise, which were carried out by EU entities or other public authorities anywhere in the United Kingdom before exit day, and which do not cease as a result of the withdrawal agreement (“relevant powers and functions”), will—
- (a) continue to be carried out by an EU entity or public authority;
  - (b) be carried out by an appropriate existing or newly established entity or public authority in the United Kingdom; or
  - (c) be carried out by an appropriate international entity or public authority.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, relevant powers and functions include, but are not limited to—
- (a) monitoring and measuring compliance with legal requirements;
  - (b) reviewing and reporting on compliance with legal requirements;
  - (c) enforcement of legal requirements;
  - (d) setting standards or targets;
  - (e) co-ordinating action;
  - (f) publicising information.

“Withdrawal agreement: Irish border

So far as they commit the United Kingdom, paragraphs 49 and 50 of the joint report from the negotiators of the EU and the United Kingdom Government on progress during phase 1 of negotiations under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union on the United Kingdom’s orderly withdrawal from the EU have effect.”

VISCOUNT HAILSHAM

216 Insert the following new Clause—

“Parliamentary approval for the outcome of negotiations with the European Union

- (1) The Prime Minister may not conclude an agreement with the European Union under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union on the terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU without the approval of both Houses of Parliament.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) such approval must be achieved before the European Parliament debates and votes on that agreement.
- (3) The prior approval of both Houses of Parliament is also required in relation to an agreement on the future relationship of the United Kingdom with the EU.
- (4) The prior approval of both Houses of Parliament is also required in relation to any decision by the Prime Minister that the United Kingdom shall leave the EU without an agreement as to the applicable terms.
- (5) Any approval required by this section must be either by way of an Act of Parliament or by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) In the event that approval is by way of a resolution of each House of Parliament, subsection (7) of this section applies.
- (7) In the event that any resolution proposed for the purposes of this section and previously approved by the House of Commons (“the Commons Resolution”) is rejected by the House of Lords, the Commons Resolution is, unless the House of Commons directs otherwise and after a period of 7 working days from its approval by the House of Commons, deemed to be a resolution of each House of Parliament for all the purposes that are specified in this section.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7) the Commons Resolution is deemed to be rejected by the House of Lords if, within 7 working days of its approval by the House of Commons, a resolution in the same terms is not approved by the House of Lords either without amendment or with only such amendments as may be agreed by both Houses.
- (9) Any period of time prescribed in this section may be varied by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

217 Insert the following new Clause –

“Parliamentary control

- (1) Not less than 30 days before exit day, a Minister of the Crown must lay the terms agreed with the EU in the negotiations under Article 50 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) (the “agreed terms”) before each House of Parliament, whereupon –
  - (a) if both Houses pass a resolution approving the agreed terms, the terms may be ratified;
  - (b) no agreed terms may be ratified unless they are approved as provided in paragraph (a);
  - (c) if both Houses by a resolution so require, the agreed terms must be put to a national referendum on a question to be determined by both Houses of Parliament and within the period of time specified in the resolution;
  - (d) if both Houses pass a resolution to the effect that Her Majesty’s Government must withdraw the notification made under Article 50 TFEU, Her Majesty’s Government must do so.
- (2) Not less than 30 days before exit day, in the event that Her Majesty’s Government has not by then concluded a transitional or final agreement with the European Union in the negotiations under Article 50 TFEU, a Minister of the Crown must lay a report before each House of Parliament explaining the reasons that no such agreement has been made and making recommendations on how to proceed.
- (3) After a report under subsection (2) has been laid before each House –
  - (a) any recommendation contained in that report is subject to approval, amendment or rejection by resolution of each House;
  - (b) if both Houses by resolution so require, a national referendum on a question to be determined by both Houses of Parliament must be held within the period of time specified in the resolution;
  - (c) if both Houses pass a resolution to the effect that Her Majesty’s Government must withdraw the notification made under Article 50 TFEU, Her Majesty’s Government must do so.
- (4) Any resolution proposed by a Minister of the Crown and considered by either House of Parliament pursuant to this section must, if amended by that House, be pursued by Her Majesty’s Government in the amended terms.
- (5) In the event that any resolution proposed for the purposes of this section and previously approved by the House of Commons (“the Commons Resolution”) is rejected by the House of Lords, the Commons Resolution is, unless the House of Commons directs otherwise and after a period of 7 working days from its approval by the House of Commons, deemed to be a resolution of each House of Parliament for all the purposes specified in this section.
- (6) The Commons Resolution is deemed to be rejected by the House of Lords if, within 7 working days of its approval by the House of Commons, it is not approved by the House of Lords either without amendment or with only such amendments as may be agreed by both Houses.

218 Insert the following new Clause—

“Provisions of the Good Friday Agreement

Before making any regulations under section 9, a Minister of the Crown must publish a strategy which seeks to ensure that the provisions of the Good Friday Agreement and all subsequent agreements agreed between the United Kingdom and Ireland since 1998 continue to remain in force after exit day, including—

- (a) the free movement of people, goods and services on the island of Ireland,
- (b) citizenship rights,
- (c) the preservation of institutions set up relating to strands 1, 2 and 3 of the Good Friday Agreement,
- (d) human rights and equality,
- (e) the principle of consent,
- (f) the status of the Irish language, and
- (g) a Bill of Rights.”

LORD JUDD

219 Insert the following new Clause—

“Status of Irish citizens in the United Kingdom

Before making any regulations under section 9, a Minister of the Crown must publish a strategy to ensure that Irish citizens lawfully resident in the United Kingdom after exit day are entitled to any status, rights and entitlements available to Irish citizens before exit day, inclusive of, and in addition to, their status, rights and entitlements as EU citizens.”

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

220 Insert the following new Clause—

“Maintenance of rights in the area of insolvency and restructuring law

- (1) Within the period of six months of the passing of this Act, a Minister of the Crown must publish a report outlining the extent to which the benefits afforded by EU insolvency and restructuring law will continue to exist in domestic law after exit day.
- (2) The report provided for under subsection (1) must include—
  - (a) the steps, if any, taken by Ministers of the Crown to negotiate the continuation of reciprocal arrangements between the United Kingdom and member States in the field of insolvency and restructuring law;

- (b) the nature and duration of these reciprocal arrangements, if such arrangements have been negotiated; and
  - (c) a declaration from the Minister of the Crown outlining whether, in their view, the UK's insolvency and restructuring framework has been weakened.
- (3) The Minister of the Crown must lay the report before both Houses of Parliament."

LORD CARLILE OF BERRIEW

221 Insert the following new Clause—

“Implementation of agreements reached with the European Union on radiopharmaceutical products

- (1) Before exit day, the Secretary of State must publish a report which includes the details of any agreements reached with the EU—
- (a) for the efficient importation of radiopharmaceutical products for use in medical treatment and research in the United Kingdom;
  - (b) for the efficient export of radiopharmaceutical products for use in medical treatment and research outside the United Kingdom;
  - (c) for the purposes described in paragraphs (a) and (b) in circumstances of urgency, including protocols for retrospective authorisation in exceptional cases;
  - (d) to protect the safety of persons coming into contact with the products described;
  - (e) for continued participation in relevant research and clinical projects;
  - (f) to replace the responsibilities and activities of the European Observatory on the Supply of Medical Isotopes;
  - (g) to replace all statutory, treaty and other responsibilities and actions undertaken by Euratom prior to 29 March 2019 in connection with radiopharmaceuticals.
- (2) In addition to the report described in subsection (1), at the same time the Secretary of State must make regulations providing for the implementation of any agreements described in the report.
- (3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (2) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

BARONESS KENNEDY OF THE SHAWS

222 Insert the following new Clause—

“Co-operation with the European Union on tackling violence against women and girls

- (1) Within one month of the passing of this Act, and then once in every subsequent calendar year, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on continued co-operation with the EU after exit day on tackling violence against women and girls.

- (2) That report must include, in particular, an assessment of how co-operation with the EU will replicate mechanisms which exist within the EU before exit day to –
  - (a) maintain common rights for victims of domestic and sexual abuse when moving across borders,
  - (b) reduce female genital mutilation,
  - (c) reduce human trafficking,
  - (d) reduce child sexual exploitation, and
  - (e) enable data sharing relating to paragraphs (a) to (d).”

223 Insert the following new Clause –

“Co-operation with the European Union on child maintenance claims

Within one month of the passing of this Act, and then once in every subsequent calendar year, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report containing an assessment of how, following exit day, co-operation between the United Kingdom and the EU will replicate mechanisms which exist within the EU to enforce cross-border child maintenance claims, and enable data sharing in relation to such matters.”

224 Insert the following new Clause –

“Funding for ending violence against women and girls

- (1) Within one month of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on the funding provided by the EU before exit day to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls.
- (2) That report must include in particular –
  - (a) an assessment of the amount and nature of funding provided by EU institutions to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls; and
  - (b) whether comparable resources for research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls will be made available in the United Kingdom.”

LORD WIGLEY

226 Insert the following new Clause—

“Referendum on terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union

- (1) Prior to the enactment of the statute referred to in section 9(1), a Minister of the Crown must by regulations made by statutory instrument provide for a referendum to determine whether the terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU are acceptable.
- (2) In subsection (1) “the terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal” includes any proposed agreement or framework agreement regarding future relations between the United Kingdom and the EU and any proposal about how to conduct future relations in the absence of such an agreement or framework agreement.
- (3) The regulations under subsection (1) must also make provision for—
  - (a) the conduct of the referendum, including the eligible franchise;
  - (b) the question to be posed in the referendum; and
  - (c) only two possible answers, one being acceptance of the recommendation made by the Government and the other the pursuit of the maintenance of the status quo regarding United Kingdom’s membership of the EU.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

  - (a) are designed to replicate a provision of EU legislation (with or without modifications), or
  - (b) amend or replace legislation which was made under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 or which was otherwise made for the purpose of giving effect to EU obligations.
- (2) Before making the regulations a Minister of the Crown must publish a statement that the Minister is satisfied that a draft has been published in such a manner, and for such a period, as to give persons representing interests affected by the regulations a reasonable opportunity to consider and make representations about—
  - (a) the environmental, social and other impacts of the regulations; and
  - (b) equivalence with EU legislation.
- (3) The period referred to in subsection (2) must not be less than 3 months, except where the Minister includes a statement that—
  - (a) the Minister is satisfied that 3 months’ notice could not reasonably be given in the circumstances; and
  - (b) as much notice was given as the Minister considers reasonably practicable.”

- (a) proposes to make a statutory instrument to which paragraph 1(3), 6(3), 7(3) or 11 applies, and
  - (b) is of the opinion that the instrument should be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament (“the negative procedure”).
- (2) Before making the instrument, the Minister must lay before both Houses of Parliament a draft of the instrument together with a memorandum setting out the reasons for the Minister’s opinion that the instrument should be subject to the negative procedure.
- (3) The negative procedure applies unless within the relevant period either House of Parliament requires the affirmative procedure to apply, in which case the affirmative procedure applies.
- (4) A House of Parliament is taken to have required the affirmative procedure to apply within the relevant period if—
- (a) a committee of the House charged with reporting on the instrument has recommended, within the period of 10 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the draft instrument was laid before the House, that the affirmative procedure should apply, and
  - (b) that House has not by resolution rejected the recommendation within a period of 5 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the recommendation is made.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) where an instrument is subject to the affirmative procedure, it may not be made unless the draft of the instrument laid under sub-paragraph (2) has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament,
  - (b) “sitting day” means, in respect of either House, a day on which that House sits.

“Parliamentary committees to sift regulations made under section 7, 8 or 9 and the super-affirmative procedure

3A(1) This paragraph applies if a Minister of the Crown –

- (a) proposes to make a statutory instrument to which paragraph 1(1), 6(1), or 7(1) applies, and
  - (b) is of the opinion that the instrument should be subject to approval by resolution of each House of Parliament (“the affirmative procedure”).
- (2) Before laying a draft of the instrument, the Minister must lay before both Houses of Parliament a memorandum setting out the reasons for the Minister’s opinion that the instrument should be subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (3) The affirmative procedure applies unless, within the relevant period, either House of Parliament requires the super-affirmative procedure to apply, in which case the super-affirmative procedure applies.
- (4) A House of Parliament is taken to have required the super-affirmative procedure to apply within the relevant period if –
- (a) a committee of the House charged with reporting on the instrument has recommended, within the period of 10 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the memorandum was laid before the House, that the super-affirmative procedure should apply, and
  - (b) that House has not by resolution rejected the recommendation within a period of 5 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the recommendation is made.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph –
- (a) where an instrument is subject to the super-affirmative procedure, it may not be made unless the procedures set out in paragraph 3B have been followed,
  - (b) “sitting day” means, in respect of either House, a day on which that House sits.
- (6) Section 6(1) of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 (alternative procedure for certain instruments laid before Parliament) does not apply in relation to any statutory instrument to which this paragraph applies.”

- 3B(1) For the purposes of paragraph 3A, the “super-affirmative procedure” is as follows.
- (2) The Minister must have regard to –
- (a) any representations,
  - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and

- (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft regulation, made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft regulation.
- (3) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make a regulation in the terms of the draft, he or she must lay before Parliament a statement—
- (a) stating whether any representations were made under sub-paragraph (2)(a); and
  - (b) if any representations were so made, giving details of them.
- (4) The Minister may after the laying of such a statement make a regulation in the terms of the draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft regulation may, at any time after the laying of a statement under sub-paragraph (3) and before the draft regulation is approved by that House under sub-paragraph (4), recommend under this sub-paragraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the draft regulation.
- (6) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under sub-paragraph (5) in relation to a draft regulation, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the draft regulation in that House under sub-paragraph (4) unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (7) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make a regulation consisting of a version of the draft regulation with material changes, he or she must lay before Parliament—
- (a) a revised draft regulation; and
  - (b) a statement giving details of—
    - (i) any representations made under sub-paragraph (2)(a); and
    - (ii) the revisions proposed.
- (8) The Minister may after laying a revised draft regulation and statement under sub-paragraph (7) make a regulation in the terms of the revised draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (9) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the revised draft regulation may, at any time after the revised draft regulation is laid under sub-paragraph (7) and before it is approved by that House under sub-paragraph (8), recommend under this sub-paragraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the revised draft regulation.
- (10) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under sub-paragraph (9) in relation to a revised draft regulation, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the revised draft regulation in that House under sub-paragraph (8) unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (11) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (4) and (8), a regulation is made in the terms of a draft regulation if it contains no material changes to the provisions of the draft regulation.

- (1) In exercising any of the powers under this Act to make any provision affecting Northern Ireland, a Minister of the Crown or any devolved authority must have regard to the requirement to preserve and abide by the principles and obligations contained within the Belfast Agreement and given effect by the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (“the Belfast principles”).
- (2) The Belfast principles include, but are not limited to –

- (a) partnership,
- (b) equality, and
- (c) mutual respect,

as the basis of relationships within Northern Ireland, between the North and South of Ireland, and between the islands of Ireland and Great Britain.

- (3) In particular, in relation to this Act—
  - (a) a Minister of the Crown must not give consent under paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to this Act before any provision is made by a Northern Ireland department except where the Secretary State has considered the requirement to preserve and abide by the Belfast principles and considers the provision is necessary only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, and
  - (b) the powers under paragraph 16(b) of Schedule 7 to this Act to make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision (including provision restating any retained EU law in a clearer or more accessible way) may not be exercised to do anything beyond the minimum changes strictly required only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU.
- (4) Section 11(3) of this Act does not permit the Northern Ireland Assembly to do anything which is not in accordance with the Belfast principles.”
