“Amendment of statutory instruments

- (1) If each House of Parliament passes a resolution that regulations laid in draft under this Act shall have effect with a specified amendment or amendments, a Minister of the Crown must make those regulations as amended within 10 sitting days, beginning on the sitting day after the second House passes its resolution.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) a sitting day is any day on which both Houses of Parliament sit.
- (3) If resolutions are passed as described in sub-paragraph (1) in respect of an instrument subject to annulment, those regulations have effect as amended –

- (a) if they have already come into force, from the day after the second House passes its resolution; or
 - (b) if they have not yet come into force, from the date set out for them to come into force in the instrument.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph affects anything done by virtue of regulations under this Act before they are amended.”

“Amendments to statutory instruments subject to the affirmative procedure

- (1) This paragraph applies to any statutory instrument of which, pursuant to this Act, a draft (“the draft instrument”) must be laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (2) The draft instrument may be amended by resolution in the House of Parliament by which it is being considered.
- (3) If each House of Parliament passes a resolution that the draft instrument must have effect with the same specified amendment or amendments, a Minister of the Crown must make those regulations as amended within 10 sitting days, beginning on the sitting day after the second House passes its resolution.
- (4) In the event that a draft instrument previously approved by a resolution in the House of Commons is rejected by the House of Lords, the draft resolution in the form approved by the House of Commons will, after 28 sitting days from its approval by a resolution of the House of Commons, and unless the House of Commons directs otherwise, be deemed to have been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4), the draft instrument as approved by a resolution of the House of Commons will be deemed rejected by the House of Lords if, within 28 sitting days from its approval by a resolution of the House of Commons, it is not approved by the House of Lords either without amendments or with only such amendments as may be agreed by both Houses of Parliament.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph, a sitting day is any day on which both Houses of Parliament sit.
- (7) The periods of time prescribed by this paragraph may be varied by a resolution approved by each House of Parliament.”

- (1) If a Minister of the Crown proposes to make a statutory instrument under this Act he or she must –
- (a) publish a draft of the instrument not less than 60 days before it is laid before Parliament;
 - (b) consult such organisations as appear to him or her to be representative of interests substantially affected by the proposals; and
 - (c) consult such other persons as he or she considers appropriate.
- (2) If, before the day on which this paragraph comes into force, any consultation was undertaken which, had it been undertaken after that day, would to any extent have satisfied the requirements of this section, those requirements shall to that extent be taken to have been satisfied.
- (3) If, after the conclusion of the consultation, the Minister considers it appropriate to proceed with the making of an instrument under this Act, he or she must lay before Parliament –
- (a) a draft of the instrument, or a made instrument, together with
 - (b) an explanatory document.
- (4) The explanatory document must give details of –
- (a) any consultation undertaken under this paragraph;
 - (b) any representations received as a result of the consultation; and
 - (c) the changes (if any) made as a result of those representations.”

“Northern Ireland: the Belfast principles

- (1) In exercising any of the powers under this Act to make any provision affecting Northern Ireland, a Minister of the Crown or any devolved authority must have regard to the requirement to preserve and abide by the principles and obligations contained within the Belfast Agreement and given effect by the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (“the Belfast principles”).
- (2) The Belfast principles include, but are not limited to –
 - (a) partnership,
 - (b) equality, and
 - (c) mutual respect,
 as the basis of relationships within Northern Ireland, between the North and South of Ireland, and between the islands of Ireland and Great Britain.
- (3) In particular, in relation to this Act –
 - (a) a Minister of the Crown must not give consent under paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to this Act before any provision is made by a Northern Ireland department except where the Secretary State has considered the requirement to preserve and abide by the Belfast principles and considers the provision is necessary only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, and
 - (b) the powers under paragraph 16(b) of Schedule 7 to this Act to make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision (including provision restating any retained EU law in a clearer or more accessible way) may not be exercised to do anything beyond the minimum changes strictly required only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU.

Before Clause 10 - continued

- (4) Section 11(3) of this Act does not permit the Northern Ireland Assembly to do anything which is not in accordance with the Belfast principles.”

Clause 10

LORD BLENCATHRA

262 Page 7, line 23, at end insert –

- “(2) Regulations made under this section, in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 2, remain in force for no more than five years after this Act is passed.
- (3) Before the period of five years under subsection (2) has expired, a Minister of the Crown must review with the devolved authorities whether the regulations materially affect the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales or the Northern Ireland Assembly.
- (4) If, and only if, the Minister of the Crown and the relevant devolved authorities agree that a regulation does not materially affect the relevant legislative competence, the Minister of the Crown may by regulations provide that subsection (2) no longer applies to that regulation.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations made under subsection (4) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by, a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

314 Insert the following new Clause—“UK-wide frameworks

- (1) A Minister of the Crown must lay before each House of Parliament proposals for replacing European frameworks with UK ones.
- (2) UK frameworks may be proposed only if they are necessary to—
 - (a) enable the functioning of the UK internal market,
 - (b) ensure compliance with international obligations,
 - (c) ensure that the UK can negotiate, enter into and implement new trade agreements and international treaties,
 - (d) enable the management of common resources,
 - (e) administer and provide access to justice in cases with a cross-border element, or
 - (f) safeguard the security of the UK.

315 Insert the following new Clause—“Saving of acquired rights: Gibraltar

- (1) Nothing in this Act is to be construed as removing, replacing, altering or prejudicing the exercise of an acquired right.
- (2) Any power, howsoever expressed, contained in this Act may not be exercised if the exercise of that power is likely to or will remove, replace or alter or prejudice the exercise of an acquired right.
- (3) In subsection (2) a reference to a power includes a power to make regulations.

- (4) In this section an acquired right means a right that existed immediately before exit day whereby –
- (a) a person from or established in Gibraltar could exercise that right (either absolutely or subject to any qualification) in the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) the right arose in the context of the United Kingdom’s membership of the EU and Gibraltar’s status as a European territory for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible within the meaning of Article 355(3) TFEU and to which the provisions of the EU Treaties apply, subject to the exceptions specified in the 1972 Act of Accession.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the use of the powers conferred by this Act to the extent that acquired rights are not altered or otherwise affected to the detriment of persons enjoying such rights.
- (6) In this section, reference to the “1972 Act of Accession” is reference to the treaty concerning the accession of the Kingdom of Denmark, Ireland, the Kingdom of Norway and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the European Economic Community and to the European Atomic Energy Community.”

 - (ii) proposals to amend retained EU law;
 - (iii) the legal and policy frameworks in relation to how retained EU law is to operate throughout the United Kingdom;
 - (iv) a concordat setting out the process for concluding the legal and policy frameworks mentioned in sub-paragraph (iii); and
 - (b) for seeking a consensus on the above mentioned matters between the Government and the other members of the Joint Ministerial Committee.
- (2) Within the period of one month of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must produce a document for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee setting out—
 - (a) the Government’s objectives and strategy in negotiating and concluding a withdrawal agreement;
 - (b) the Government’s objectives and strategy in relation to establishing a framework for the United Kingdom’s future relationship with the European Union;
 - (c) the steps the Government intends to take to keep the Joint Ministerial Committee informed of progress in reaching a withdrawal agreement;
 - (d) the steps the Government intends to take to consult each member of the Joint Ministerial Committee before entering into a withdrawal agreement and how the Government intends to take the views of each member into account;
 - (e) the steps the Government intends to take to seek the approval of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales and the Northern Ireland Assembly before entering into a withdrawal agreement.
- (3) Until a withdrawal agreement is concluded, the Secretary of State must produce a report every three months for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee setting out—
 - (a) the Government’s assessment of the progress made against their objectives—
 - (i) to negotiate and conclude the withdrawal agreement;
 - (ii) to establish a framework for the United Kingdom’s future relationship with the European Union;
 - (b) any change to the matters listed in subsection (2)(a) to (e).

- (4) Before concluding a withdrawal agreement, the Prime Minister must produce a document setting out the terms of the proposed withdrawal agreement for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee.
- (5) Meetings of the Joint Ministerial Committee must, until Her Majesty's Government concludes a withdrawal agreement, be chaired by –
 - (a) the Prime Minister, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union.
- (6) In this section, “the Joint Ministerial Committee” means the body set up in accordance with Supplementary Agreement A of the Memorandum of Understanding on Devolution between Her Majesty's Government, the Scottish Government, the Welsh Government and the Northern Ireland Executive Committee.”

- (3) The representative of Northern Ireland must be a senior official of the Department responsible for the area which the group are considering.
- (4) The representative of Scotland must be a Minister of the Scottish Government.
- (5) The representative of Wales must be a member of the Welsh Government.
- (6) At the first meeting of the group, the group must elect a Chair.
- (7) The first question the group must decide is which of the devolved areas of competence to include in a framework document enabling a single market to be set up in those areas in the United Kingdom.
- (8) The second question the group must decide is the terms of the framework document for each of the devolved areas of competence which the group has decided to include.
- (9) Agreement on the two questions in subsections (7) and (8) must be reached by the end of the period of three months, beginning with exit day or the day on which any transition or implementation period agreed between the United Kingdom and the EU ends.
- (10) When agreement is reached in the group on the answer to these questions, the Chair of the group must report the decisions to the appropriate officer of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales, the Northern Ireland Assembly and the Parliament of the United Kingdom.
- (11) If the group fail to reach unanimous agreement on any of the questions the Chair must report this to the appropriate officer of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales, the Northern Ireland Assembly and the United Kingdom Parliament with a statement of the reason or reasons for the disagreement, as agreed by the group.

LORD WIGLEY

As an amendment to Amendment 318A

318AA Leave out subsection (12) and insert –

- “(12) In the event of there not being unanimous agreement, the matter must be referred to a Speakers’ Panel to decide the matter.
- (13) The Speakers’ Panel shall consist of the Speaker of the House of Commons together with the Presiding Officers of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales and the Northern Ireland Assembly.
- (14) The Panel may call witnesses or take legal advice, or both, before adjudicating on the matter.
- (15) In reaching conclusions and proposing any course of action, the Panel must take into consideration –
- (a) whether it is reasonable, in all the circumstances, to confirm the proposed course of action in any area in which the group established in subsection (1) failed to agree;
 - (b) whether it is practical not to take such a course of action;
 - (c) whether the proposed course of action may have a discriminatory, disproportionately negative or constraining impact on any one of England, Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland.
- (16) The Panel must convey their decision to each of the legislatures and to the Parliament of the United Kingdom, each of which may take the necessary steps to implement the decision according to the existing division of competences under the devolution settlements.
- (17) The Panel may, if they consider it necessary, refer any question to the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom.”

LORD FOULKES OF CUMNOCK

REPORTS IN CONNECTION WITH RETAINED EU LAW RESTRICTIONS

Reports on progress towards removing retained EU law restrictions

- 3A(1) After the end of each reporting period, a Minister of the Crown must lay before each House of Parliament a report which –
- (a) contains details of any steps which have been taken in the reporting period by Her Majesty’s Government (whether or not in conjunction with any of the appropriate authorities) towards implementing any arrangements which are to replace any relevant powers or retained EU law restrictions,
 - (b) explains how principles –
 - (i) agreed between Her Majesty’s Government and any of the appropriate authorities, and
 - (ii) relating to implementing any arrangements which are to replace any relevant powers or retained EU law restrictions, have been taken into account during the reporting period,
 - (c) specifies any relevant regulations, or regulations under section 11(4B), which have been made in the reporting period,
 - (d) in relation to any retained EU law restriction which has effect at the end of the reporting period, sets out the Minister’s assessment of the progress which still needs to be made before it can be removed,
 - (e) in relation to any relevant power that has not been repealed before the end of the reporting period, sets out the Minister’s assessment of the progress which still needs to be made before it can be repealed, and
 - (f) contains any other information relating to any relevant powers or retained EU law restrictions, or the arrangements which are to replace them, that the Minister considers appropriate.
- (2) The first reporting period is the period of three months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.
- (3) Each successive period of three months after the first reporting period is a reporting period.

- (4) This paragraph ceases to apply when no retained EU law restrictions have effect and all the relevant powers have been repealed.
