214 Insert the following new Clause—

“Governance and institutional arrangements

- (1) Before exit day, a Minister of the Crown must make provision that all powers and functions which form part of retained EU law, which relate to any right, freedom or protection that any person might reasonably expect to exercise, which were carried out by EU entities or other public authorities anywhere in the United Kingdom before exit day, and which do not cease as a result of the withdrawal agreement (“relevant powers and functions”), will—
 - (a) continue to be carried out by an EU entity or public authority;
 - (b) be carried out by an appropriate existing or newly established entity or public authority in the United Kingdom; or
 - (c) be carried out by an appropriate international entity or public authority.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, relevant powers and functions include, but are not limited to—
 - (a) monitoring and measuring compliance with legal requirements;
 - (b) reviewing and reporting on compliance with legal requirements;
 - (c) enforcement of legal requirements;
 - (d) setting standards or targets;
 - (e) co-ordinating action;
 - (f) publicising information.

- (3) Responsibility for any powers and functions as defined in subsection (1) for which no specific provision has been made immediately after commencement of this Act will belong to a relevant Minister until such a time as specific provision has been made.”

So far as they commit the United Kingdom, paragraphs 49 and 50 of the joint report from the negotiators of the EU and the United Kingdom Government on progress during phase 1 of negotiations under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union on the United Kingdom’s orderly withdrawal from the EU have effect.”

VISCOUNT HAILSHAM
 LORD DYKES

216 Insert the following new Clause –

“Parliamentary approval for the outcome of negotiations with the European Union

- (1) The Prime Minister may not conclude an agreement with the European Union under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union on the terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU without the approval of both Houses of Parliament.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) such approval must be achieved before the European Parliament debates and votes on that agreement.
- (3) The prior approval of both Houses of Parliament is also required in relation to an agreement on the future relationship of the United Kingdom with the EU.
- (4) The prior approval of both Houses of Parliament is also required in relation to any decision by the Prime Minister that the United Kingdom shall leave the EU without an agreement as to the applicable terms.
- (5) Any approval required by this section must be either by way of an Act of Parliament or by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) In the event that approval is by way of a resolution of each House of Parliament, subsection (7) of this section applies.
- (7) In the event that any resolution proposed for the purposes of this section and previously approved by the House of Commons (“the Commons Resolution”) is rejected by the House of Lords, the Commons Resolution is, unless the House of Commons directs otherwise and after a period of 7 working days from its approval by the House of Commons, deemed to be a resolution of each House of Parliament for all the purposes that are specified in this section.

- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7) the Commons Resolution is deemed to be rejected by the House of Lords if, within 7 working days of its approval by the House of Commons, a resolution in the same terms is not approved by the House of Lords either without amendment or with only such amendments as may be agreed by both Houses.
- (9) Any period of time prescribed in this section may be varied by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Insert the following new Clause—

“Parliamentary control

- (1) Not less than 30 days before exit day, a Minister of the Crown must lay the terms agreed with the EU in the negotiations under Article 50 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) (the “agreed terms”) before each House of Parliament, whereupon—
 - (a) if both Houses pass a resolution approving the agreed terms, the terms may be ratified;
 - (b) no agreed terms may be ratified unless they are approved as provided in paragraph (a);
 - (c) if both Houses by a resolution so require, the agreed terms must be put to a national referendum on a question to be determined by both Houses of Parliament and within the period of time specified in the resolution;
 - (d) if both Houses pass a resolution to the effect that Her Majesty’s Government must withdraw the notification made under Article 50 TFEU, Her Majesty’s Government must do so.
- (2) Not less than 30 days before exit day, in the event that Her Majesty’s Government has not by then concluded a transitional or final agreement with the European Union in the negotiations under Article 50 TFEU, a Minister of the Crown must lay a report before each House of Parliament explaining the reasons that no such agreement has been made and making recommendations on how to proceed.
- (3) After a report under subsection (2) has been laid before each House—
 - (a) any recommendation contained in that report is subject to approval, amendment or rejection by resolution of each House;
 - (b) if both Houses by resolution so require, a national referendum on a question to be determined by both Houses of Parliament must be held within the period of time specified in the resolution;
 - (c) if both Houses pass a resolution to the effect that Her Majesty’s Government must withdraw the notification made under Article 50 TFEU, Her Majesty’s Government must do so.
- (4) Any resolution proposed by a Minister of the Crown and considered by either House of Parliament pursuant to this section must, if amended by that House, be pursued by Her Majesty’s Government in the amended terms.

- (5) In the event that any resolution proposed for the purposes of this section and previously approved by the House of Commons (“the Commons Resolution”) is rejected by the House of Lords, the Commons Resolution is, unless the House of Commons directs otherwise and after a period of 7 working days from its approval by the House of Commons, deemed to be a resolution of each House of Parliament for all the purposes specified in this section.
- (6) The Commons Resolution is deemed to be rejected by the House of Lords if, within 7 working days of its approval by the House of Commons, it is not approved by the House of Lords either without amendment or with only such amendments as may be agreed by both Houses.
- (7) Any period of time prescribed in this section may be varied by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

220 Insert the following new Clause –

“Maintenance of rights in the area of insolvency and restructuring law

- (1) Within the period of six months of the passing of this Act, a Minister of the Crown must publish a report outlining the extent to which the benefits afforded by EU insolvency and restructuring law will continue to exist in domestic law after exit day.
- (2) The report provided for under subsection (1) must include –
 - (a) the steps, if any, taken by Ministers of the Crown to negotiate the continuation of reciprocal arrangements between the United Kingdom and member States in the field of insolvency and restructuring law;
 - (b) the nature and duration of these reciprocal arrangements, if such arrangements have been negotiated; and
 - (c) a declaration from the Minister of the Crown outlining whether, in their view, the UK’s insolvency and restructuring framework has been weakened.
- (3) The Minister of the Crown must lay the report before both Houses of Parliament.”

LORD CARLILE OF BERRIEW

221 Insert the following new Clause –

“Implementation of agreements reached with the European Union on radiopharmaceutical products

- (1) Before exit day, the Secretary of State must publish a report which includes the details of any agreements reached with the EU –
 - (a) for the efficient importation of radiopharmaceutical products for use in medical treatment and research in the United Kingdom;
 - (b) for the efficient export of radiopharmaceutical products for use in medical treatment and research outside the United Kingdom;
 - (c) for the purposes described in paragraphs (a) and (b) in circumstances of urgency, including protocols for retrospective authorisation in exceptional cases;
 - (d) to protect the safety of persons coming into contact with the products described;
 - (e) for continued participation in relevant research and clinical projects;
 - (f) to replace the responsibilities and activities of the European Observatory on the Supply of Medical Isotopes;
 - (g) to replace all statutory, treaty and other responsibilities and actions undertaken by Euratom prior to 29 March 2019 in connection with radiopharmaceuticals.
- (2) In addition to the report described in subsection (1), at the same time the Secretary of State must make regulations providing for the implementation of any agreements described in the report.

- (3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (2) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

222 Insert the following new Clause –

“Co-operation with the European Union on tackling violence against women and girls

- (1) Within one month of the passing of this Act, and then once in every subsequent calendar year, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on continued co-operation with the EU after exit day on tackling violence against women and girls.
- (2) That report must include, in particular, an assessment of how co-operation with the EU will replicate mechanisms which exist within the EU before exit day to –
- (a) maintain common rights for victims of domestic and sexual abuse when moving across borders,
 - (b) reduce female genital mutilation,
 - (c) reduce human trafficking,
 - (d) reduce child sexual exploitation, and
 - (e) enable data sharing relating to paragraphs (a) to (d).”

223 Insert the following new Clause –

“Co-operation with the European Union on child maintenance claims

Within one month of the passing of this Act, and then once in every subsequent calendar year, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report containing an assessment of how, following exit day, co-operation between the United Kingdom and the EU will replicate mechanisms which exist within the EU to enforce cross-border child maintenance claims, and enable data sharing in relation to such matters.”

224 Insert the following new Clause –

“Funding for ending violence against women and girls

- (1) Within one month of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on the funding provided by the EU before exit day to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls.
- (2) That report must include in particular –
- (a) an assessment of the amount and nature of funding provided by EU institutions to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls; and

- (b) whether comparable resources for research, service provision and other activities relating to ending violence against women and girls will be made available in the United Kingdom.”

LORD ADONIS

225 Insert the following new Clause –

“EEA Agreement

- (1) No Minister of the Crown may notify the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EEA Agreement, whether under Article 127 of that Agreement or otherwise.
- (2) Regulations under this Act may not make any provision that would constitute a breach of the United Kingdom’s obligations under the EEA Agreement.
- (3) Regulations under this Act may not amend or repeal subsection (1) or (2).”

LORD WIGLEY

226 Insert the following new Clause –

“Referendum on terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union

- (1) Prior to the enactment of the statute referred to in section 9(1), a Minister of the Crown must by regulations made by statutory instrument provide for a referendum to determine whether the terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU are acceptable.
- (2) In subsection (1) “the terms of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal” includes any proposed agreement or framework agreement regarding future relations between the United Kingdom and the EU and any proposal about how to conduct future relations in the absence of such an agreement or framework agreement.
- (3) The regulations under subsection (1) must also make provision for –
 - (a) the conduct of the referendum, including the eligible franchise;
 - (b) the question to be posed in the referendum; and
 - (c) only two possible answers, one being acceptance of the recommendation made by the Government and the other the pursuit of the maintenance of the status quo regarding United Kingdom's membership of the EU.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

227A Insert the following new Clause—

“Replication of EU law: consultation on impact and equivalence

- (1) This section applies to regulations (whether or not under this Act) which—
 - (a) are designed to replicate a provision of EU legislation (with or without modifications), or
 - (b) amend or replace legislation which was made under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 or which was otherwise made for the purpose of giving effect to EU obligations.
- (2) Before making the regulations a Minister of the Crown must publish a statement that the Minister is satisfied that a draft has been published in such a manner, and for such a period, as to give persons representing interests affected by the regulations a reasonable opportunity to consider and make representations about—
 - (a) the environmental, social and other impacts of the regulations; and
 - (b) equivalence with EU legislation.
- (3) The period referred to in subsection (2) must not be less than 3 months, except where the Minister includes a statement that—
 - (a) the Minister is satisfied that 3 months' notice could not reasonably be given in the circumstances; and
 - (b) as much notice was given as the Minister considers reasonably practicable.”

LORD EMPEY

227B Insert the following new Clause—

“Mutual Recognition Agreements relating to the safeguarding of public health

In respect of mutual recognition agreements relating to the safeguarding of public health, within one month of the passing of this Act, a Minister of the Crown must publish a strategy for ensuring that existing United Kingdom notified bodies, in accordance with provisions laid out in the EU Medical Devices Regulation, may continue to conduct conformity assessment certification for both United Kingdom and EU medical devices to ensure continuity within and beyond the EU.”

LORD CAMPBELL-SAVOURS

227BA Insert the following new Clause—“Failure to negotiate a withdrawal agreement by 29 January 2019

- (1) In the event that no withdrawal agreement under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on the European Union acceptable to both Houses of Parliament has been reached between the United Kingdom and the EU by 29 January 2019, a Minister of the Crown may move a motion in each House of Parliament to provide for a referendum on whether the United Kingdom should seek to revoke notification of withdrawal under Article 50 and re-negotiate membership of the EU with—
 - (a) restrictions on the arrangements for the free movement of persons between the United Kingdom and the EU;
 - (b) a renegotiation of the Own Resources Decision to provide a new mechanism for calculating the United Kingdom’s reduced contribution, replacing the rebate; and
 - (c) amendments to other regulatory arrangements as they affect the United Kingdom as proposed by both Houses of Parliament.
- (2) If such a motion is agreed to in the House of Commons, the Minister of the Crown may not make regulations under section 9(1) but must bring forward proposals to hold such a referendum, and the Government must seek such an extension of the Article 50 period as may be necessary for this purpose.”

LORD BERKELEY

227BB Insert the following new Clause—“Recreational boating

- (1) Before exit day, a Minister of the Crown must lay before both Houses of Parliament a report setting out the extent to which, and how, the rights currently enjoyed by recreational boaters from the United Kingdom in the EU will be maintained after exit day.
- (2) The report under subsection (1) must include consideration of—
 - (a) the ability of recreational craft to retain Union Goods status;
 - (b) the ability of UK recreational craft that do not have Union Goods status to continue to be able to visit the EU without being subject to an 18-month restriction on Temporary Admission procedures for relief on customs duties and VAT provided they do not change ownership;
 - (c) the ability of recreational craft to travel between the United Kingdom and the EU without being subject to border controls;
 - (d) the ability of UK citizens who are accredited as Royal Yachting Association instructors to continue to work on a seasonal basis in EU member States for such purposes.”

 - (a) proposes to make a statutory instrument to which paragraph 1(3), 6(3), 7(3) or 11 applies, and
 - (b) is of the opinion that the instrument should be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament (“the negative procedure”).
- (2) Before making the instrument, the Minister must lay before both Houses of Parliament a draft of the instrument together with a memorandum setting out the reasons for the Minister’s opinion that the instrument should be subject to the negative procedure.
- (3) The negative procedure applies unless within the relevant period either House of Parliament requires the affirmative procedure to apply, in which case the affirmative procedure applies.
- (4) A House of Parliament is taken to have required the affirmative procedure to apply within the relevant period if –
 - (a) a committee of the House charged with reporting on the instrument has recommended, within the period of 10 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the draft instrument was laid before the House, that the affirmative procedure should apply, and
 - (b) that House has not by resolution rejected the recommendation within a period of 5 sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the recommendation is made.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph –
 - (a) where an instrument is subject to the affirmative procedure, it may not be made unless the draft of the instrument laid under sub-paragraph (2) has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament,
 - (b) “sitting day” means, in respect of either House, a day on which that House sits.

“Super-affirmative procedure

- (2) The Minister must have regard to—
- (a) any representations,
 - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
 - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft regulation, made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft regulation.
- (3) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make a regulation in the terms of the draft, he or she must lay before Parliament a statement—
- (a) stating whether any representations were made under sub-paragraph (2)(a); and
 - (b) if any representations were so made, giving details of them.
- (4) The Minister may after the laying of such a statement make a regulation in the terms of the draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft regulation may, at any time after the laying of a statement under sub-paragraph (3) and before the draft regulation is approved by that House under sub-paragraph (4), recommend under this sub-paragraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the draft regulation.
- (6) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under sub-paragraph (5) in relation to a draft regulation, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the draft regulation in that House under sub-paragraph (4) unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (7) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make a regulation consisting of a version of the draft regulation with material changes, he or she must lay before Parliament—
- (a) a revised draft regulation; and
 - (b) a statement giving details of—
 - (i) any representations made under sub-paragraph (2)(a); and
 - (ii) the revisions proposed.
- (8) The Minister may after laying a revised draft regulation and statement under sub-paragraph (7) make a regulation in the terms of the revised draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

- (9) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the revised draft regulation may, at any time after the revised draft regulation is laid under sub-paragraph (7) and before it is approved by that House under sub-paragraph (8), recommend under this sub-paragraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the revised draft regulation.
- (10) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under sub-paragraph (9) in relation to a revised draft regulation, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the revised draft regulation in that House under sub-paragraph (8) unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (11) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (4) and (8), a regulation is made in the terms of a draft regulation if it contains no material changes to the provisions of the draft regulation.

“Amendments to statutory instruments subject to the affirmative procedure

- (1) This paragraph applies to any statutory instrument of which, pursuant to this Act, a draft (“the draft instrument”) must be laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (2) The draft instrument may be amended by resolution in the House of Parliament by which it is being considered.

- (3) If each House of Parliament passes a resolution that the draft instrument must have effect with the same specified amendment or amendments, a Minister of the Crown must make those regulations as amended within 10 sitting days, beginning on the sitting day after the second House passes its resolution.
- (4) In the event that a draft instrument previously approved by a resolution in the House of Commons is rejected by the House of Lords, the draft resolution in the form approved by the House of Commons will, after 28 sitting days from its approval by a resolution of the House of Commons, and unless the House of Commons directs otherwise, be deemed to have been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4), the draft instrument as approved by a resolution of the House of Commons will be deemed rejected by the House of Lords if, within 28 sitting days from its approval by a resolution of the House of Commons, it is not approved by the House of Lords either without amendments or with only such amendments as may be agreed by both Houses of Parliament.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph, a sitting day is any day on which both Houses of Parliament sit.
- (7) The periods of time prescribed by this paragraph may be varied by a resolution approved by each House of Parliament.”

- (2) The Belfast principles include, but are not limited to—
 - (a) partnership,
 - (b) equality, and
 - (c) mutual respect,
 as the basis of relationships within Northern Ireland, between the North and South of Ireland, and between the islands of Ireland and Great Britain.
- (3) In particular, in relation to this Act—
 - (a) a Minister of the Crown must not give consent under paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to this Act before any provision is made by a Northern Ireland department except where the Secretary State has considered the requirement to preserve and abide by the Belfast principles and considers the provision is necessary only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, and
 - (b) the powers under paragraph 16(b) of Schedule 7 to this Act to make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision (including provision restating any retained EU law in a clearer or more accessible way) may not be exercised to do anything beyond the minimum changes strictly required only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU.

- (2) Any power, howsoever expressed, contained in this Act may not be exercised if the exercise of that power is likely to or will remove, replace or alter or prejudice the exercise of an acquired right.
- (3) In subsection (2) a reference to a power includes a power to make regulations.
- (4) In this section an acquired right means a right that existed immediately before exit day whereby—
 - (a) a person from or established in Gibraltar could exercise that right (either absolutely or subject to any qualification) in the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) the right arose in the context of the United Kingdom’s membership of the EU and Gibraltar’s status as a European territory for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible within the meaning of Article 355(3) TFEU and to which the provisions of the EU Treaties apply, subject to the exceptions specified in the 1972 Act of Accession.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the use of the powers conferred by this Act to the extent that acquired rights are not altered or otherwise affected to the detriment of persons enjoying such rights.
- (6) In this section, reference to the “1972 Act of Accession” is reference to the treaty concerning the accession of the Kingdom of Denmark, Ireland, the Kingdom of Norway and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the European Economic Community and to the European Atomic Energy Community.”

 - (ii) proposals to amend retained EU law;
 - (iii) the legal and policy frameworks in relation to how retained EU law is to operate throughout the United Kingdom;
 - (iv) a concordat setting out the process for concluding the legal and policy frameworks mentioned in sub-paragraph (iii); and
 - (b) for seeking a consensus on the above mentioned matters between the Government and the other members of the Joint Ministerial Committee.
- (2) Within the period of one month of the passing of this Act, the Secretary of State must produce a document for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee setting out—
 - (a) the Government’s objectives and strategy in negotiating and concluding a withdrawal agreement;
 - (b) the Government’s objectives and strategy in relation to establishing a framework for the United Kingdom’s future relationship with the European Union;
 - (c) the steps the Government intends to take to keep the Joint Ministerial Committee informed of progress in reaching a withdrawal agreement;

- (d) the steps the Government intends to take to consult each member of the Joint Ministerial Committee before entering into a withdrawal agreement and how the Government intends to take the views of each member into account;
 - (e) the steps the Government intends to take to seek the approval of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales and the Northern Ireland Assembly before entering into a withdrawal agreement.
- (3) Until a withdrawal agreement is concluded, the Secretary of State must produce a report every three months for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee setting out—
- (a) the Government’s assessment of the progress made against their objectives—
 - (i) to negotiate and conclude the withdrawal agreement;
 - (ii) to establish a framework for the United Kingdom’s future relationship with the European Union;
 - (b) any change to the matters listed in subsection (2)(a) to (e).
- (4) Before concluding a withdrawal agreement, the Prime Minister must produce a document setting out the terms of the proposed withdrawal agreement for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee.
- (5) Meetings of the Joint Ministerial Committee must, until Her Majesty’s Government concludes a withdrawal agreement, be chaired by—
- (a) the Prime Minister, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union.
- (6) In this section, “the Joint Ministerial Committee” means the body set up in accordance with Supplementary Agreement A of the Memorandum of Understanding on Devolution between Her Majesty’s Government, the Scottish Government, the Welsh Government and the Northern Ireland Executive Committee.”

REPORTS IN CONNECTION WITH RETAINED EU LAW RESTRICTIONS

Reports on progress towards removing retained EU law restrictions

- 3A(1) After the end of each reporting period, a Minister of the Crown must lay before each House of Parliament a report which –
- (a) contains details of any steps which have been taken in the reporting period by Her Majesty’s Government (whether or not in conjunction with any of the appropriate authorities) towards implementing any arrangements which are to replace any relevant powers or retained EU law restrictions,
 - (b) explains how principles –

- (i) agreed between Her Majesty's Government and any of the appropriate authorities, and
 - (ii) relating to implementing any arrangements which are to replace any relevant powers or retained EU law restrictions,
- have been taken into account during the reporting period,
- (c) specifies any relevant regulations, or regulations under section 11(4B), which have been made in the reporting period,
 - (d) in relation to any retained EU law restriction which has effect at the end of the reporting period, sets out the Minister's assessment of the progress which still needs to be made before it can be removed,
 - (e) in relation to any relevant power that has not been repealed before the end of the reporting period, sets out the Minister's assessment of the progress which still needs to be made before it can be repealed, and
 - (f) contains any other information relating to any relevant powers or retained EU law restrictions, or the arrangements which are to replace them, that the Minister considers appropriate.
- (2) The first reporting period is the period of three months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.
 - (3) Each successive period of three months after the first reporting period is a reporting period.
 - (4) This paragraph ceases to apply when no retained EU law restrictions have effect and all the relevant powers have been repealed.

Interpretation

3B In this Part –

“appropriate authority” means –

- (a) the Scottish Ministers,
- (b) the Welsh Ministers, or
- (c) a Northern Ireland devolved authority;

“arrangement” means any enactment or other arrangement (whether or not legally enforceable);

“relevant power” means a power to make regulations conferred by –

- (a) section 30A or 57(4) of the Scotland Act 1998,
- (b) section 80(8) or 109A of the Government of Wales Act 2006, or
- (c) section 6A or 24(3) of the Northern Ireland Act 1998;
