

Ivory Bill

AMENDMENTS TO BE MOVED ON REPORT

Clause 1

LORD CORMACK

Page 1, line 8, leave out paragraph (d)

Page 1, line 21, leave out “ivory in it” and insert “more than 20% of ivory in the case of furniture or other objects and 30% in the case of musical instruments”

Clause 2

LORD DE MAULEY

Page 2, line 11, leave out “pre-1918” and insert “pre-1947”

Member’s explanatory statement

Without this amendment, Art Deco objects of outstandingly high artistic, cultural or historical value, for example, will not be eligible for an exemption certificate.

Page 2, line 12, leave out “outstandingly”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would change the condition for the issue of an exemption certificate to be that objects containing ivory should be of high artistic, cultural or historical value.

LORD CORMACK

Page 2, line 12, leave out “outstandingly high”

Page 2, line 17, leave out “an important” and insert “a significant”

Clause 6

LORD CORMACK

Page 5, line 4, leave out “with a surface area of no more than 320cm²”

Member’s explanatory statement

Not all miniatures would be covered by this limit. This amendment would allow more flexibility in judging miniatures.

Clause 7LORD CORMACK
LORD DE MAULEY

Page 5, line 13, leave out “10%” and insert “20%”

Clause 8

LORD CORMACK

Page 5, line 21, leave out “20%” and insert “30%”

Clause 10

LORD CORMACK

Page 6, line 40, at end insert –

“() No item with an ivory content of less than 10% need be registered.”

Clause 11

LORD CORMACK

Page 7, line 13, leave out from “section 10” to end of line 15 and insert “remains valid if the ownership of the item passes by inheritance to a member of the family of the registered owner.”

Clause 18

LORD CORMACK

Page 11, line 17, leave out “or an accredited civilian officer”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment and the others which are similarly worded would prevent the appointment by the Minister of accredited civilian officers with powers of entry and seizure.

Clause 19

LORD CORMACK

Page 12, line 18, leave out “or an accredited civilian officer”

Clause 29

LORD CORMACK

Page 17, line 29, leave out “or accredited civilian officer”

Clause 30

LORD CORMACK

Page 18, line 23, leave out “or an accredited civilian officer”

Schedule 2

LORD CORMACK

Page 36, line 3, leave out “or an accredited civilian officer”

Page 36, line 18, leave out “or accredited civilian officer”

Ivory Bill

AMENDMENTS
TO BE MOVED ON REPORT

16 October 2018
