Amendment
No.

After Clause 5

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD PURVIS OF TWEED

45

Insert the following new Clause—

“Future partnership with the European Union: services

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to take all necessary steps to implement a future trade agreement with the European Union that—

- (a) ensures no additional barriers to trade in services between the European Union and the United Kingdom are erected after exit day;
- (b) protects—
  - (i) the right of UK nationals and businesses to provide or receive services in the European Union, and
  - (ii) reciprocal rights for EU nationals and businesses to provide or receive services in the United Kingdom;
- (c) protects—
  - (i) the right of UK businesses to establish a company in an EU member state, and
  - (ii) reciprocal rights for EU businesses to establish a company in the United Kingdom.”

LORD HAIN
LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA

46 Insert the following new Clause –

“Continuation of North-South trade and the prevention of customs arrangements at borders

An international trade agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union may not be ratified under sections 20 to 25 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 unless the agreement –

(a) is compatible with the terms of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, and

(b) does not –

(i) negatively affect any form of North-South trade in goods or services or the operation of the relevant North-South implementation bodies, or

(ii) create or facilitate customs arrangements between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland after exit day which feature –

(a) physical infrastructure related to customs checks,

(b) a requirement for customs or regulatory compliance checks,

(c) random checks on goods vehicles, or

(d) any other checks and controls related to trade, that did not exist before exit day and which are not subject to an agreement between Her Majesty’s Government and the Government of Ireland.”

LORD GRANTCHESTER
BARONESS NEVILLE-ROLFE

47 Insert the following new Clause –

“Time sensitive goods

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to take all the necessary steps to ensure that after exit day a trade agreement is in place to facilitate the transport of time-sensitive commercial goods by rail, road or a combination of the two between the United Kingdom and the European Union.”

48 Insert the following new Clause –

“Tripartite agreement on the movement of horses

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to take all necessary steps to implement an international trade agreement which enables the United Kingdom, after exit day, to participate in the Tripartite Agreement on the movement of horses between the United Kingdom, France and the Republic of Ireland to the extent necessary to allow cross-border trade in horses.”

49 Insert the following new clause—

“Pet Travel Scheme: cross-border trade

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to take all necessary steps to implement an international trade agreement which enables the United Kingdom, after exit day, to participate in a reformed Pet Travel Scheme to the extent necessary to allow cross-border trade in small animals.”

50 [Withdrawn]

LORD PURVIS OF TWEED

51 Insert the following new Clause—

“Reciprocal rules of origin

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to secure a binding commitment from the European Union that international trade agreements it signs or revises with third countries will make provision for goods subject to those agreements which have originated in the United Kingdom to be treated as if they had originated in the European Union.”

52 Insert the following new Clause—

“Review of the impact on the UK economy

- (1) Before the end of the initial three year period, the Secretary of State must publish and lay before both Houses of Parliament an assessment of the impact of all international trade agreements implemented under section 2 of this Act on—
  - (a) the economy of the United Kingdom,
  - (b) the economy of the different parts of the United Kingdom and different regions of England, and
  - (c) individual economic sectors.
- (2) The assessment under subsection (1) must so far as practicable analyse the expected difference in outcomes between the international trade agreements implemented under section 2 of this Act and those international trade agreements to which the United Kingdom would have been a signatory had it continued to participate in the EU Customs Union.
- (3) In this section—

“the initial three year period” has the same meaning as in section 2(7)(a);

“parts of the United Kingdom” means—

  - (a) England,
  - (b) Scotland,
  - (c) Wales, and
  - (d) Northern Ireland;

“regions of England” has the same meaning as that used by the Office for National Statistics.”

53 Insert the following new Clause –

“Conditions for future trade deals

Any future international trade agreement not implemented under section 2 shall only be eligible for signature or ratification by the United Kingdom if –

- (a) the provisions of that international trade agreement do not conflict with, and are consistent with –
  - (i) the provisions of the Sustainable Development Goals adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 25 September 2015,
  - (ii) international human rights law and international humanitarian law,
  - (iii) the United Kingdom’s obligations on workers’ rights and labour standards as established by, but not limited to, the commitments under the International Labour Organisation’s Declaration on Fundamental Rights at Work and its Follow-up Conventions,
  - (iv) the United Kingdom’s environmental obligations in international law and as established by, but not limited to, the Paris Agreement adopted under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES), and the Convention on Biological Diversity, including the Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety,
  - (v) existing standards for food safety and quality as set and administered by the Department of Health, the Food Standards Agency and any other public authority specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State,
  - (vi) the United Kingdom’s obligations as established by the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and by the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and
  - (vii) the sovereignty of Parliament, the legal authority of UK courts, the rule of law and the principle of equality before the law,
- (b) the provisions of that international trade agreement do not in any way restrict the ability to determine whether public services at a national or local level are delivered by public sector employees, and
- (c) the Secretary of State has laid before Parliament an assessment of the potential economic, social, human rights and environmental impacts of the international trade agreement on the contracting parties.”

54 Insert the following new Clause –

“Report on tariff rate quota policy

- (1) A Minister of the Crown must, within the period of one month beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, lay a report before both Houses of Parliament detailing the United Kingdom’s proposed treatment of tariff rate quotas after exit day.
- (2) A report under subsection (1) must include –

- (a) a statement on whether, during negotiations on free trade agreements meeting the requirements of section 2(2) –
  - (i) the United Kingdom and the European Union intend to apportion between them the existing tariff rate quotas in the equivalent free trade agreements to which the European Union is a signatory, or
  - (ii) the United Kingdom intends to offer additional quotas,
- (b) a statement on the progress of the United Kingdom’s negotiations under Article XXVIII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, and
- (c) an assessment of if, and how, the objections raised by other countries that gave rise to the negotiations in paragraph (b) will affect the ability of the United Kingdom to trade on the schedule of goods it has submitted to the World Trade Organisation after exit day.”

BARONESS KRAMER

55 Insert the following new Clause –

“Future partnership with the European Union: financial services

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to take all necessary steps to implement a future trade agreement with the European Union that –

- (a) ensures that no additional barriers to trade in financial services between the European Union and the United Kingdom are erected after exit day; and
- (b) protects –
  - (i) the right of UK nationals, businesses and banks to provide or receive financial services in the European Union after exit day, and
  - (ii) reciprocal rights for EU nationals, businesses and banks to provide or receive financial services in the United Kingdom after exit day.”

56 Insert the following new Clause –

“Multilateral investment tribunal

A trade agreement is not eligible for signature or ratification by the United Kingdom unless the agreement includes a commitment by all parties to the agreement to pursue with other trading partners the establishment of a multilateral investment tribunal and appellate mechanism for the resolution of investment disputes.”

BARONESS RANDESON

57 Insert the following new Clause –

“Aviation arrangements

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to achieve before exit day the implementation of an international agreement that –

- (a) enables UK-owned and EU-owned airlines to operate to, from and within the territory of both the United Kingdom and the European Union on an equal basis, and
- (b) enables the United Kingdom to continue to participate in the Single European Sky initiative in order to prevent the erection of non-tariff barriers after exit day.”

58 Insert the following new Clause—

“Reciprocal access to rail services

It shall be the objective of an appropriate authority to take all necessary steps to implement an international trade agreement which enables the United Kingdom and the European Union to maintain existing reciprocal access to rail services between and within the United Kingdom and the European Union.”

LORD PURVIS OF TWEED

59 Insert the following new Clause—

“Parliamentary approval of the future trading relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union

- (1) Subsections (2) to (14) only apply if the negotiated withdrawal agreement has been ratified and the House of Commons has approved the framework for the future relationship in accordance with section 13 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.
- (2) Subsections (3) to (14) only apply to an international trade agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union that gives effect to any or all of the provisions set out in the framework for the future relationship so far as they relate to trade.
- (3) An international trade agreement that meets the condition in subsection (2) may be signed only if—
  - (a) a Minister of the Crown has laid before each House of Parliament—
    - (i) a statement that, in the Minister’s opinion, political agreement has been reached on the terms of a future international trade agreement, and
    - (ii) a copy of the draft international trade agreement as negotiated,
  - (b) the draft international trade agreement has been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown,
  - (c) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the draft international trade agreement has been tabled in the House of Lords by a Minister of the Crown and—
    - (i) the House of Lords has debated the motion, or
    - (ii) the House of Lords has not concluded a debate on the motion before the end of the period of five Lords sitting days beginning with the first Lords sitting day after the day on which the House of Commons passes the resolution mentioned in paragraph (b), and

- (d) an Act of Parliament has been passed that sets out the text of the international trade agreement as negotiated, contains provision (if necessary) for the implementation of the agreement and authorises the Secretary of State to sign the proposed agreement.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the House of Commons decides not to pass the resolution mentioned in subsection (3)(b).
- (5) A Minister of the Crown must, within the period of three Commons sitting days beginning with the day on which the House of Commons decides not to pass the resolution, make a statement setting out how Her Majesty's Government proposes to proceed in relation to negotiations on the future trade relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union.
- (6) A statement under subsection (5) must—
  - (a) be made in writing,
  - (b) be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate, and
  - (c) specify whether the United Kingdom intends to—
    - (i) extend any transition period provided for in the negotiated withdrawal agreement,
    - (ii) comply with any provisions in the negotiated withdrawal agreement designed to address the unique circumstances on the island of Ireland,
    - (iii) reopen negotiations on the international trade agreement, or
    - (iv) make other arrangements.
- (7) A Minister of the Crown must make arrangements for—
  - (a) a motion drafted in terms which permit amendment, to the effect that the House of Commons approves the strategy set out in the statement mentioned in subsection (5), to be moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of seven Commons sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement is made, and
  - (b) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the statement to be moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of seven Lords sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement is made.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies if the Prime Minister makes a statement before the end of 21 October 2020 that no agreement in principle can be reached in negotiations on an international trade agreement that gives effect to the provisions, so far as they relate to trade, set out in the framework for the future relationship.
- (9) A Minister of the Crown must, within the period of three Commons sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement mentioned in subsection (8) is made—
  - (a) make a statement setting out how Her Majesty's Government proposes to proceed, and
  - (b) make arrangements for—

- (i) a motion drafted in terms which permit amendment, to the effect that the House of Commons approves the strategy set out in the statement mentioned in paragraph (a), to be moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of seven Commons sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement is made, and
  - (ii) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the statement to be moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of seven Lords sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement is made.
- (10) A statement under subsection (8) or (9)(a) must—
  - (a) be made in writing, and
  - (b) be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate.
- (11) A statement under subsection (9)(a) must specify whether the United Kingdom intends to—
  - (a) extend the transition period provided for in the negotiated withdrawal agreement,
  - (b) comply with the provisions of the negotiated withdrawal agreement designed to address the unique circumstances on the island of Ireland,
  - (c) continue negotiations on the international trade agreement, or
  - (d) make other arrangements.
- (12) Subsection (13) applies if, at the end of 21 October 2020, there is no agreement in principle in negotiations on an international trade agreement that gives effect to the provisions, so far as they relate to trade, set out in the framework for the future relationship.
- (13) A Minister of the Crown must, within the period of three Commons sitting days beginning with the end of 21 October 2020—
  - (a) make a statement setting out how Her Majesty's Government proposes to proceed, and
  - (b) make arrangements for—
    - (i) a motion drafted in terms which permit amendment, to the effect that the House of Commons approves the strategy set out in the statement mentioned in paragraph (a), to be moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of seven Commons sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement is made, and
    - (ii) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the statement to be moved in that House by a Minister of the Crown within the period of seven Lords sitting days beginning with the day on which the statement is made.
- (14) A statement under subsection (13)(a) must—
  - (a) be made in writing,
  - (b) be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate, and
  - (c) specify whether the United Kingdom intends to—

- (i) extend any transition period provided for in the negotiated withdrawal agreement,
  - (ii) comply with any provisions in the negotiated withdrawal agreement designed to address the unique circumstances on the island of Ireland,
  - (iii) reopen negotiations on the international trade agreement, or
  - (iv) make other arrangements.
- (15) For the purposes of this section –
  - (a) a statement made under subsection (5), (9)(a) or (13)(a) may be combined with a statement made under another of those provisions,
  - (b) a motion falling within subsection (7)(a), (9)(b)(i) or (13)(b)(i) may be combined into a single motion with another motion falling within another of those provisions, and
  - (c) a motion falling within subsection (7)(b), (9)(b)(ii) or (13)(b)(ii) may be combined into a single motion with another motion falling within another of those provisions.
- (16) Subsections (17) and (18) only apply if –
  - (a) the United Kingdom is not a member of the European Union, and
  - (b) no negotiated withdrawal agreement has been ratified in accordance with section 13 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.
- (17) An international trade agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union may be signed only if, on or before 29 March 2019, the House of Commons has passed a motion “That this House approves of the United Kingdom leaving the European Union without a withdrawal agreement and a framework for a future relationship.”
- (18) An international trade agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union may be signed only if –
  - (a) a Minister of the Crown has laid before each House of Parliament a copy of the draft international trade agreement as negotiated,
  - (b) the draft international trade agreement has been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown,
  - (c) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the draft international trade agreement has been tabled in the House of Lords by a Minister of the Crown and –
    - (i) the House of Lords has debated the motion, or
    - (ii) the House of Lords has not concluded a debate on the motion before the end of the period of five Lords sitting days beginning with the first Lords sitting day after the day on which the House of Commons passes the resolution mentioned in paragraph (b), and
  - (d) an Act of Parliament has been passed that sets out the text of the international trade agreement as negotiated, contains provision (if necessary) for the implementation of the agreement and authorises the Secretary of State to sign the proposed agreement.

- (19) This section does not affect the operation of Part 2 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (ratification of treaties) in relation to the international trade agreement.
- (20) In this section –
- “framework for the future relationship” has the same meaning as in section 13(15) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018;
  - “negotiated withdrawal agreement” has the same meaning as in section 13(16) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018;
  - “Lords sitting day” means a day on which the House of Lords is sitting (and a day is only a day on which the House of Lords is sitting if the House begins to sit on that day);
  - “Commons sitting day” means a day on which the House of Commons is sitting (and a day is only a day on which the House of Commons is sitting if the House begins to sit on that day).”

60 Insert the following new Clause –

“Additional review of the impact of the proposed future trading relationship with the EU on the United Kingdom economy

- (1) Within three months of the passing of this Act, the Chancellor of the Exchequer must publish and lay before both Houses of Parliament an additional assessment of the economic impact of the United Kingdom’s future trading relationship with the EU.
- (2) The assessment under subsection (1) must include –
  - (a) an assessment of the short-term economic impact of each of the four scenarios for the United Kingdom’s future trading relationship with the EU that are modelled in the Command Paper of November 2018 “EU Exit: Long-term economic analysis” (Cm 9742),
  - (b) an assessment of the short-term and long-term economic impact should the future trading relationship between the United Kingdom and the EU be based for the long-term on the provisions of the Protocol on Ireland/Northern Ireland to the initial draft withdrawal agreement, and
  - (c) an assessment of the short-term and long-term economic impact of a scenario which, in the Chancellor of the Exchequer’s opinion, represents the most likely outcome of the negotiations on the United Kingdom’s future trading relationship with the EU that is consistent with the initial draft political declaration.
- (3) The assessment under subsection (1) must consider the impact of each of the scenarios specified in subsection (2) on –
  - (a) the economy of the United Kingdom,
  - (b) the different parts of the United Kingdom and different regions of England, and
  - (c) individual economic sectors.
- (4) The assessment under subsection (1) must so far as practicable analyse the expected difference in outcomes between each of the scenarios specified in subsection (2) and continued membership of the EU.

(5) In this section—

“long-term” means around 15 years after the United Kingdom’s future trading relationship with the EU comes into effect;

“initial draft withdrawal agreement” means the Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community which was laid before the House of Commons on 26 November 2018;

“initial draft political declaration” means the Political Declaration setting out the framework for the future relationship between the European Union and the United Kingdom which was laid before the House of Commons on 26 November 2018;

“Free Zones

- (1) Within three months of the passing of this Act the Treasury must launch a consultation on proposals for the establishment in the United Kingdom of Free Zones, as defined by the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979.
- (2) The Treasury must lay a report of the consultation under subsection (1) before both Houses of Parliament within six months of its launch.
- (3) The report under subsection (2) must include—
  - (a) proposals for the Free Zones to be established, and
  - (b) an account of the extent to which each proposed Free Zone would allow UK manufacturers to secure an integrated supply and value-added production.
- (4) Within six months of the report under subsection (2) being laid, a Minister of the Crown must by regulations made by statutory instrument make provision for the establishment of Free Zones as set out in the report under subsection (2).
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.”

62 Insert the following new Clause—

“Medicines and medical devices: good manufacturing practice

- (1) It is an objective of an appropriate authority to insert into any international trade agreement which the United Kingdom is to ratify provision requiring the mutual recognition of good manufacturing practice as set out in European Commission Directive 91/412/EEC, European Commission Delegated Regulation No. 1253/2014 and European Commission Directive 2003/94/EC.
- (2) An appropriate authority must by regulations made by statutory instrument update the references to EU legislation in this section in accordance with changes to EU legislation.
- (3) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, both Houses of Parliament.”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
LORD DYKES
LORD BROWNE OF LADYTON

    - (v) the European Union Intellectual Property Office.”

LORD PURVIS OF TWEED

71 Insert the following new Clause—

“Sustainability impact assessment

- (1) The Secretary of State shall not commence negotiations relating to a free trade agreement unless a Minister of the Crown has laid before Parliament a sustainability impact assessment that has been conducted by a credible body independent of government following consultation with—
  - (a) each devolved authority,

- (b) public bodies, businesses, trade unions and non-governmental organisations which, in the opinion of the Minister, have a relevant interest, and
  - (c) the public.
- (2) An impact assessment under subsection (1) must –
- (a) include both qualitative and quantitative assessments of the proposed trade agreement, and
  - (b) take account of social, economic, environmental, gender, human rights, labour, development and regional impacts.”

72 Insert the following new Clause –

“Mandate

The Secretary of State shall not commence negotiations relating to a free trade agreement unless –

- (a) a Minister of the Crown has laid before Parliament a draft of a negotiating mandate relating to the proposed trade agreement, setting out –
  - (i) all sectors to be included in the proposed negotiations,
  - (ii) the principles to underpin the proposed negotiations,
  - (iii) any limits on the proposed negotiations, and
  - (iv) the desired outcomes from the proposed negotiations, and
- (b) the House of Commons has approved by resolution a motion, drafted in terms which permit amendment, setting out a proposed negotiating mandate and authorising the Secretary of State to enter negotiations on the proposed trade agreement on the basis of that mandate, and
- (c) the House of Lords has approved a resolution in the same terms as that approved by the House of Commons.”

73 Insert the following new Clause –

“Transparency

The United Kingdom may not become a signatory to a free trade agreement unless –

- (a) during the course of the negotiations, the text of the trade agreement as so far agreed or consolidated with the other parties to the negotiations has been made publicly available within 10 working days of the close of each negotiating round; and
- (b) between each round of negotiations, all documents relating to the negotiations have been made available for scrutiny by select committees in both Houses of Parliament.”

74 Insert the following new Clause –

“Parliamentary scrutiny before signature

The United Kingdom may not become a signatory to a free trade agreement unless, upon conclusion of the negotiations, an Act of Parliament has been passed that sets out the text of the trade agreement as negotiated and authorises the Secretary of State to sign the proposed agreement.”

BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB

75 Insert the following new Clause –

“Objective to reform WTO procedures

- (1) It shall be an objective of an appropriate authority representing the United Kingdom in meetings of the World Trade Organisation to ensure that the World Trade Organisation modifies its procedures in a way which secures the supremacy of international treaties arrived at under the auspices of the United Nations over trade agreements not arrived at under the auspices of the United Nations.
- (2) The Secretary of State must lay before each House of Parliament at least once in each calendar year following the commencement of this section a report on any progress made in achieving the objective under subsection (1).”

After Clause 7

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD PURVIS OF TWEED

76 Insert the following new Clause –

“Convention about Ministers of the Crown legislating on devolved matters

- (1) Regulations made under section 1(1) by a Minister of the Crown may not normally make provision which would be within the devolved competence of a devolved authority unless –

“Appeals against decisions by the TRA and Secretary of State

- (1) This section applies to the following decisions –
  - (a) a decision by the TRA under provision made by or under Schedule 4 to the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018,
  - (b) a decision by the Secretary of State under provision made by or under Schedule 4 to the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018.
- (2) A person affected by a decision to which this section applies may appeal against it to the Upper Tribunal.
- (3) The means of making an appeal is by sending the Tribunal a notice of appeal in accordance with Tribunal rules.
- (4) The notice of appeal must be sent within the period specified, in relation to the decision appealed against, in those rules.
- (5) The notice of appeal must set out –
  - (a) the provision under which the decision appealed against was taken; and
  - (b) the grounds of appeal.
- (6) The grounds of appeal must be set out in sufficient detail to indicate –
  - (a) to what extent (if any) the appellant contends that the decision appealed against was based on an error of fact or was wrong in law or both; and
  - (b) to what extent (if any) the appellant is appealing against the exercise of a discretion by the TRA, by the Secretary of State or by another person.
- (7) In this section references to a decision under Schedule 4 to the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018 includes a decision not to use an action available under the powers in that Schedule.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a decision to which effect is given by the exercise or performance of a power or duty conferred or imposed by or under an enactment shall be treated, except where provision is made for the making of that decision at a different time, as made at the time when the power is exercised or the duty performed.”

86 Insert the following new Clause –

“Disposal of appeals against decisions by the TRA and Secretary of State

- (1) This section applies to an appeal against a decision referred to in section (Appeals against decisions by the TRA and Secretary of State)(1).
- (2) The Tribunal must decide the appeal on the merits and by reference to the grounds of appeal set out in the notice of appeal.
- (3) The Tribunal's decision must include a decision as to what (if any) is the appropriate action for the TRA or the Secretary of State to take in relation to the subject matter of the decision under appeal.

- (4) The Tribunal must then remit the decision under appeal to the TRA and the Secretary of State with such directions (if any) as the Tribunal considers appropriate for giving effect to its decision.
- (5) The Tribunal must not direct the TRA or the Secretary of State to take any action which they would not otherwise have power to take in relation to the decision under appeal.
- (6) It is the duty of the TRA and the Secretary of State to comply with every direction given under subsection (4).”

- (n) the principle of equality before the law.
- 3 The Committee may establish sectoral and geographical Sub-Committees whose members must include—
- (a) representatives of the devolved authorities and each region of England;
  - (b) persons with appropriate and relevant expertise in the impact of trade policy across the United Kingdom; and
  - (c) representatives of business, communities, trade unions, consumer groups and non-governmental organisations.

Access to information

- 4 In order to allow it to undertake its functions, the Secretary of State must provide the Committee as required with—
- (a) the text of any proposed agreement as so far agreed or consolidated within the period of 10 working days beginning with the day on which each negotiating round ends;
  - (b) all other documents relating to the negotiations.

Procedure

- 5 The Committee may determine its own procedure but this is subject to paragraphs 7 to 11.
- 6 The Secretary of State may confer further powers on the Committee commensurate to those of a Select Committee of Parliament if requested by the Chair.
- 7 If on any matter there is an equality of voting among the members of the Committee, the Chair of the Committee has a second or casting vote.
- 8 The Chair of the Committee may appoint another member of the Committee to act, in the Chair's absence, as the Chair of the Committee at any meeting of it.
- 9 A person so appointed does not enjoy the right conferred on the Chair of the Committee.
- 10 The quorum of the Committee is three.
- 11 The Committee may take evidence on oath, and for that purpose may administer oaths.

Membership

- 12 Each member of the Committee is to be appointed by the House of Parliament from which the member is to be drawn and is not eligible to become a member of the Committee unless the person—
- (a) is nominated for membership by the Prime Minister, and
  - (b) is not a Minister of the Crown.
- 13 Before deciding whether to nominate a person for membership of the Committee, the Prime Minister must consult the Leader of the Opposition.
- 14 A member of the Committee chosen by its members is to be the Chair of the Committee.
- 15 Subject to paragraphs 16 and 17, a person appointed as a member of the Committee during a Parliament holds office for the duration of that Parliament.

- 16 A member of the Committee vacates office if—
- (a) the person ceases to be a member of the House of Parliament which appointed the person a member of the Committee;
  - (b) the person becomes a Minister of the Crown; or
  - (c) a resolution for the person's removal is passed in the House of Parliament which appointed the person a member of the Committee.
- 17 A member of the Committee may resign at any time by notice given to—
- (a) the Chair of the Committee, or
  - (b) in the case of the member who is the Chair of the Committee, the Speaker of the House of Parliament which appointed the person a member of the Committee.
- 18 A person who ceases to be a member of the Committee is eligible for reappointment.
- 19 Section (Establishment of Committee on Trade Agreements)(1) does not affect the validity of anything done between the occurrence of a vacancy and the vacancy being filled.
- 20 Anything which, immediately before the end of a Parliament, is in the process of being done or omitted to be done by or in relation to the Committee may be continued by or in relation to the Committee in the new Parliament.
- 21 Anything done or omitted to be done by or in relation to the Committee in a Parliament (or treated as so done or omitted) is, if in force or effective immediately before the end of that Parliament, to have effect as if done or omitted by or in relation to the Committee in the new Parliament so far as that is required for continuing its effect in that Parliament.

Resources

- 22 In relation to funding and resources, a Minister of the Crown—
- (a) may make payments to either House of Parliament in respect of any expenditure incurred, or to be incurred, by either House in relation to the Committee,
  - (b) may provide staff, accommodation or other resources to either House of Parliament for the purposes of the Committee,
  - (c) may make payments, or provide staff, accommodation or other resources, to the Committee, or
