

Counter-Terrorism and Border Security Bill

AMENDMENT
TO BE MOVED
ON REPORT

After Clause 21

LORD MARLESFORD

Insert the following new Clause—

“Review: national identity numbers

- (1) Within the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State must lay a report before both Houses of Parliament reviewing the case for the introduction of national identity numbers to assist in countering terrorism and ensuring border security.
- (2) The review must consider whether unique national identity numbers should be linked to a secure and central database containing biometric data to assist with establishing and verifying the identity of possible terrorism suspects or those engaged in hostile state activity, accessible by the relevant national authorities.”
