Amendment
No.

Clause 15

LORD PONSONBY OF SHULBREDE

- 1 Page 16, line 1, leave out subsections (4) to (6) and insert—
- “(4) Subsections (5) to (8) apply if a person proposes to apply for a knife crime prevention order under section 14 in respect of a defendant who—
- (a) is under the age of 18, and
  - (b) will be under that age when the application is made.
- (5) Before making the application the person must obtain and consider a pre-injunction report from the youth offending team established under section 39 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 in whose area it appears to the person that the defendant lives.
- (6) If it appears to the person that the defendant lives in the area of two or more youth offending teams, the obligation in subsection (5) is to obtain and consider a pre-injunction report from such of those teams as the person thinks appropriate.
- (7) An application to a court for a knife crime prevention order made under this section must include a copy of the pre-injunction report.
- (8) In this section a “pre-injunction report” means a report which—
- (a) with a view to assisting the applicant and the court in determining the most suitable method of dealing with a defendant, is made or submitted by a youth offending team, and
  - (b) contains information as to such matters, presented in such manner, as may be prescribed by rules made by the Secretary of State, including but not limited to—
    - (i) an assessment of the defendant,
    - (ii) an analysis of the circumstances of the defendant,
    - (iii) the involvement of parents and carers in those circumstances,

- (iv) an assessment of any need for a referral to children’s social care services for an assessment under the Children Act 1989,
- (v) an assessment of any need for a referral to the National Referral Mechanism for an assessment under the Modern Slavery Act 2015,
- (vi) any background to the concerns around knives and the circumstances of the defendant which may be considered relevant.”

Clause 16

- “(5A) In a case where the defendant is aged under 18, in forming any such opinion as is mentioned in subsection (5), the court may consult the youth offending team established under section 39 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 in whose area it appears to the court that the defendant lives.
- (5B) If it appears to the court that the defendant lives in the area of two or more youth offending teams, the provision in subsection (5A) is to consult such of those teams as the court thinks appropriate.”

Clause 20

LORD PONSONBY OF SHULBREDE

5 Page 19, line 9, leave out subsections (2) and (3) and insert –

- “(2) Before making the application the prosecution must obtain and consider a pre-injunction report from the youth offending team established under section 39 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 in whose area it appears to the prosecution that the defendant lives.

- (3) If it appears to the prosecution that the defendant lives in the area of two or more youth offending teams, the obligation in subsection (2) is to obtain and consider a pre-injunction report from such of those teams as the prosecution thinks appropriate.
- (4) An application to a court for a knife crime prevention order made under this section must include a copy of the pre-injunction report.
- (5) In this section a “pre-injunction report” means a report which –
- (a) with a view to assisting the prosecution and the court in determining the most suitable method of dealing with the defendant, is made or submitted by a youth offending team, and
  - (b) contains information as to such matters, presented in such manner, as may be prescribed by rules made by the Secretary of State, including but not limited to –

7 Page 21, line 13, leave out subsections (4) and (5) and insert –

- “(4) An interim knife crime prevention order under section 17 has effect for a period not longer than 28 days after the order takes effect, subject to section 27 (variation, renewal or discharge).
- (5) An interim knife crime prevention order under section 17 has effect until the determination of the application mentioned in subsection (1) of that section, subject to subsection (4) and section 27.
- (5A) An interim knife crime prevention order under section 18 has effect for a period not longer than 28 days after the order takes effect, subject to section 27.
- (5B) An interim knife crime prevention order under section 18 has effect until the determination of the application mentioned in subsection (1) of that section, subject to subsection (5A) and section 27.”

Clause 38

LORD KENNEDY OF SOUTHWARK

8 Page 32, line 32, at end insert –

“(aa) the delivery is not made by a trusted courier of bladed products, and”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, and the amendment at page 32, line 37, would allow for the Government to create a "trusted courier" scheme, and to exempt sales using "trusted couriers" from restrictions in this section. This follows the Minister's undertaking on 4 March (HL Deb, column 448).

9 Page 32, line 37, at end insert –

- “( ) The Secretary of State may by regulations determine the conditions of being designated a trusted courier of bladed products in England and Wales for the purposes of section 38(1)(aa).
- ( ) Scottish Ministers may by regulations determine the conditions of being designated a trusted courier of bladed products in Scotland for the purposes of section 38(1)(aa).
- ( ) The Department of Justice in Northern Ireland may by regulations determine the conditions of being designated a trusted courier of bladed products in Northern Ireland for the purposes of section 38(1)(aa).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, and the amendment at page 32, line 32, would allow for the Government to create a "trusted courier" scheme, and to exempt sales using "trusted couriers" from restrictions in this section. This follows the Minister's undertaking on 4 March (HL Deb, column 448).

Clause 45

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

10 Page 42, line 19, at end insert –

“(14A) After subsection (12) insert –

- “(12A) An order under this section which has the effect that possession in private of a weapon of a particular description is, or is to become, an offence under subsection (1A) may make provision –
  - (a) enabling arrangements to be made for the surrender of weapons of that description;
  - (b) as to the procedure to be followed in relation to the surrender of such weapons;
  - (c) for the payment of compensation in respect of weapons surrendered in accordance with the arrangements;
  - (d) as to the requirements that must be met by a person making a claim for compensation;
  - (e) as to the procedure to be followed in respect of a claim and for the determination of a claim;

- (f) enabling a person to exercise a discretion in determining whether to make a payment in response to a claim and the amount of such a payment.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that, where weapons are brought within the prohibition on possession in section 141(1A) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 by order, the order can provide for compensation if required to do so by Article 1 of the First Protocol to the European Convention on Human Rights (but need not make this provision if not required to do so).

Clause 46

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

- 11 Page 43, line 3, leave out “(7)” and insert “(7B)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment and the Minister's amendments at page 43, line 43 and page 43, line 44 would create defences to the offences in section 141(1) and (1A) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 and section 50(2) and (3) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 relating to the presentation of Sikh kirpans. This follows the Minister's undertaking on 4 March (HL Deb, column 470).

- 12 Page 43, line 43, at end insert –

“5B(1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies to –

- (a) a person charged with an offence under section 141(1) or (1A) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 in respect of any conduct of the person relating to a curved sword, and
  - (b) a person charged with an offence under section 50(2) or (3) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 in respect of any conduct of the person relating to a curved sword.
- (2) It is a defence for the person to show that the person's conduct was for the purpose only of making the sword available for presentation by a Sikh to another person at a religious ceremony or other ceremonial event.
  - (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under section 141(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 of giving a curved sword to another person to show that the person's conduct consisted of the presentation of the sword by a Sikh to another person at a religious ceremony or other ceremonial event.
  - (4) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under section 141(1A) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 of possession of a curved sword in private to show that –
    - (a) the person was a Sikh at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed and possessed the sword for the purpose only of presenting it to another person at a religious ceremony or other ceremonial event, or

(b) the sword was presented to the person by a Sikh at a religious ceremony or other ceremonial event.

(5) In this paragraph—

“curved sword” means a weapon to which section 141 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 applies by virtue of paragraph 1(r);
“Sikh” means a follower of the Sikh religion.”

(7B) In paragraph 6, for “and 5A” substitute “, 5A and 5B”.
