TO

Enable the Secretary of State or an immigration officer to refuse entry, or to vary or curtail leave to enter or remain which has already been granted, to a person who is known to be, or to have been, involved in gross human rights abuses and who is not a UK or EEA national.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Immigration restriction measures

- (1) The Secretary of State or an immigration officer may, in respect of a person who is a non-UK or non-EEA national who is known to be, or to have been, involved in conduct constituting the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation— 5
- (a) refuse entry clearance or leave to enter the United Kingdom;
  - (b) refuse leave to enter in relation to a person in possession of an entry clearance;
  - (c) cancel leave to enter or remain which is in force while the person is at port or outside the United Kingdom; 10
  - (d) vary the conditions of leave to enter or remain; or
  - (e) curtail leave to enter or remain.
- (2) Conduct constitutes the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation if the three conditions referred to in section 241A of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (gross human rights abuse or violation) are met. 15

2 Administration of control

After section 4(2)(d) of the Immigration Act 1971 (administration of control), insert—

- “(e) the exercise by immigration officers of their powers under section 1 of the Immigration Control (Gross Human Rights Abuses) Act 2020.” 20

3 Extent, commencement and short title

- (1) This Act extends to England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.
- (2) This Act comes into force on the day on which it is passed.
- (3) This Act may be cited as the Immigration Control (Gross Human Rights Abuses) Act 2020.
