Amendment
No.

The Schedule

BARONESS HAMWEE

- 1 Page 3, line 15, leave out from “judge” to end of line 19 and insert “as soon as practicable.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is to make the period within which a person must be brought before a judge consistent with other provisions of the Extradition Act 2003.

LORD KENNEDY OF SOUTHWARK
LORD JUDGE
LORD ANDERSON OF IPSWICH

- 2 Page 4, line 38, at end insert –
“() Regulations made under subsection (7)(a) shall designate no more than one territory.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require regulations which add, vary or remove a reference to a territory under Schedule A1 to contain no more than one territory. This will allow Parliament to reject a particular territory.

LORD KENNEDY OF SOUTHWARK

- 3 Page 4, line 38, at end insert –
“() The Secretary of State may only make regulations under subsection (7) if the following conditions are first met –
(a) the Secretary of State has consulted on the merits of the change with –
(i) each devolved administration, and

The Schedule - continued

- (ii) non-governmental organisations which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, have a relevant interest,
- (b) the Secretary of State has laid an assessment before each House of Parliament on the risks of the change, and
- (c) if the regulations are to add a reference to a territory to Schedule A1, the Secretary of State has laid a statement before each House of Parliament confirming that the territory does not abuse the Interpol Red Notices system.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would create further requirements before adding, varying or removing a reference to a territory.
