- (2) In this Part “exceptional market conditions” exist where –
- (a) there is a severe disturbance in agricultural markets or a serious threat of a severe disturbance in agricultural markets, and

- the Secretary of State may make and publish a further declaration extending the effect of the original declaration for such period (not exceeding three months) as the further declaration may specify. 10
- (7) The fact that a declaration under this section has expired or been revoked does not prevent the Secretary of State from making and publishing another declaration relating in whole or part to the same exceptional market conditions. 15

- (7) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) prevents the Secretary of State from giving, or agreeing to give, financial assistance under subsection (2)—
- (a) after the end of the period for which the declaration has effect, but
 - (b) in response to an application duly made during that period. 45

23 Modification of certain retained direct EU legislation in connection with exceptional market conditions and for general purposes

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations modify retained direct EU legislation relating to public market intervention or aid for private storage, for the purpose of altering the operation of provisions of such legislation so far as they have effect in relation to England in connection with exceptional market conditions which are the subject of a declaration under section 21. 5
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations modify retained direct EU legislation relating to public market intervention or aid for private storage, for either or both of the following purposes – 10

INTERVENTION IN AGRICULTURAL MARKETS 25

Declaration relating to exceptional market conditions

- 7 (1) The Welsh Ministers may make and publish a declaration in accordance with this paragraph if the Welsh Ministers consider that there are exceptional market conditions which justify making the powers conferred by or referred to in paragraph 8 available for use. 30
- (2) In this Part “exceptional market conditions” exist where –
- (a) there is a severe disturbance in agricultural markets or a serious threat of a severe disturbance in agricultural markets, and

- the Welsh Ministers may make and publish a further declaration extending the effect of the original declaration for such period (not exceeding three months) as the further declaration may specify.
- (7) The fact that a declaration under this paragraph has expired or been revoked does not prevent the Welsh Ministers from making and publishing another declaration relating in whole or part to the same exceptional market conditions. 25
- (8) A copy of any declaration made and published under this paragraph must be laid before Senedd Cymru by the Welsh Ministers as soon as practicable after it is published. 30

- (6) The conditions may (among other things) include provision under which the financial assistance is to be repaid or otherwise made good (with or without interest). 5
- (7) Nothing in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) prevents the Welsh Ministers from giving, or agreeing to give, financial assistance under sub-paragraph (2) –

 - (b) in response to an application duly made during that period.
