

United Kingdom Internal Market Bill

REVISED
SECOND
MARSHALLED
LIST OF AMENDMENTS
TO BE MOVED
IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE

The amendments have been marshalled in accordance with the Instruction of 20th October 2020, as follows –

Clauses 1 to 10	Clauses 18 to 30
Schedule 1	Schedule 3
Clauses 11 to 17	Clauses 31 to 56
Schedule 2	Title

[Amendments marked ★ are new or have been altered]

Amendment
No.

Clause 2

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

7 Page 2, line 4, leave out “or imported into”

LORD ROOKER

8 Page 2, line 18, at end insert –

“(4) The mutual recognition principle for goods does not apply to food or animal feedingstuffs.

(5) In this section –

“food” has the same meaning as in section 1 of the Food Safety Act 1990 (Meaning of “food” and other basic expressions);

“animal feedingstuffs” has same meaning as in section 36 of the Food Standards Act 1999 (Interpretation).”

Clause 3

LORD CALLANAN

9 Page 2, line 21, leave out “any” and insert “a particular”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that the purpose of Clause 3 is to identify what are the relevant requirements that apply to a specific sale of goods (the word "sale" being defined broadly in Clause 14).

- 10 Page 2, line 28, after first "requirement" insert "in relation to the sale"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that a statutory requirement that meets the conditions in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Clause 3(2) is a relevant requirement in relation to the sale mentioned in Clause 3(1).

LORD HOPE OF CRAIGHEAD

- 11 Page 3, line 11, at end insert –

“() A manner of sale requirement is not within the scope of the mutual recognition principle if it gives effect to an agreement that has been the subject of a common framework.”

LORD FOX

- 12 Page 3, line 25, leave out subsection (8)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State's regulation-making power, as recommended by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee in its 24th Report.

BARONESS ANDREWS
BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

- 13 Page 3, line 25, leave out subsections (8) to (10)

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

- 14 Page 3, line 27, leave out subsection (9) and insert –

“(9) Regulations under subsection (8) are subject to super-affirmative resolution procedure (see Schedule (Super-affirmative resolution procedure)).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that regulations under subsection (8) are subject to super-affirmative resolution procedure and introduces the supportive Schedule in respect of super-affirmative resolution procedure.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN
LORD HOPE OF CRAIGHEAD
BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

- 15 Page 3, line 30, leave out "consult" and insert "obtain the consent of"

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of the devolved administrations before making regulations amending Clause 3(3), which specifies the types of statutory requirement that are within the scope of the mutual recognition principle.

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN
 BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
 BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

16 Page 3, line 30, after “consult” insert “and seek the consent of”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
 BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED

17 Page 3, line 31, at end insert –

“() The Secretary of State must publish the results of the consultation and give reasons for any decision reached.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to publish the results of the consultation and give reasons for any decision reached.

Clause 4

LORD CALLANAN

18 Page 3, line 38, after first “a” insert “particular”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would clarify that Clause 4(1)(a) relates to a specific sale of goods (the word “sale” being defined broadly in Clause 14). This is for consistency with Clause 3(1) as proposed to be amended by my amendment to Clause 3 at page 2, line 21.

19 Page 3, line 38, leave out second “a” and insert “that”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would correct a misleading reference in subsection (1)(a) of Clause 4 that should refer to the same part of the United Kingdom as is mentioned in the opening words of the subsection.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

20 Page 4, line 3, leave out paragraph (b)

Member’s explanatory statement

This is a probing amendment to seek the Government’s interpretation of Clause 4(3)(b).

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
 LORD GERMAN

21 Page 4, line 5, leave out from the first “day” to “into” on line 6 and insert “in relation to a statutory requirement relating to a subject is the day before the day on which regulations under section (Legislation to which market access principles apply) specifying that subject come”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is related to the new Clause inserted by another amendment in the name of Baroness Finlay. It means that the mutual recognition principle does not apply to a statutory requirement that applied in one part of the United Kingdom before regulations came into force specifying the subject of the requirement as one to which the principle applies.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

22 Page 4, line 9, leave out subsection (5)

Member's explanatory statement

This is a consequential amendment.

LORD CALLANAN

23 Page 4, line 12, leave out from “have” to “place” and insert “had the same effect in relation to the sale (if it had taken)”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would bring the wording of Clause 4(5) into line with Clause 4(2).

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

24 Page 4, line 14, leave out “subsections (2) and (5)” and insert “subsection (2)”

Member's explanatory statement

This is a consequential amendment.

25 Page 4, line 16, at end insert—

“() In subsection (4) “substantive change” means “significant amendment”.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment probes the Government's understanding of the phrase “substantive changes” in relation to changes to statutory requirements.

Clause 5

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

26 Page 4, line 29, leave out “of no effect” and insert “not law”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment probes the meaning of Clause 5(3) regarding the effect of a statutory requirement under Clause 6.

Clause 6

LORD FOX

27 Page 5, line 23, leave out subsection (5)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State's regulation-making power, as recommended by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee in its 24th Report.

BARONESS ANDREWS

28 Page 5, line 23, leave out subsections (5) to (7)

Clause 6 - continued

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

29 Page 5, line 25, leave out subsection (6) and insert –

“(6) Regulations under subsection (5) are subject to super-affirmative resolution procedure (see Schedule (Super-affirmative resolution procedure)).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that regulations under Clause 6 will be subject to super-affirmative procedure. This amendment also introduces the supportive Schedule in respect of super-affirmative resolution procedure.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF

LORD GERMAN

LORD HOPE OF CRAIGHEAD

LORD WIGLEY

30 Page 5, line 28, leave out “consult” and insert “obtain the consent of”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of the devolved administrations before making regulations amending Clause 6(3), which specifies the types of statutory provision that are within the scope of the non-discrimination principle.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED

31 Page 5, line 29, at end insert –

“() The Secretary of State must publish the results of the consultation and give reasons for any decision reached.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to publish the results of the consultation and give reasons for any decision reached.

Clause 7

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

32 Page 5, line 41, leave out “actual or hypothetical”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment probes the description of local goods in Clause 7(3).

Baroness McIntosh of Pickering gives notice of her intention to oppose the Question that Clause 7 stand part of the Bill.

Clause 8

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF

33 Page 6, line 21, leave out paragraph (d)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment in Baroness Finlay's name which leaves out Clause 10 and inserts a new Clause. It removes the provision that a relevant requirement is indirectly discriminatory if (among other things) it cannot reasonably be considered a necessary means of achieving a legitimate aim. The issue is addressed more generally in the new Clause 10.

34 Page 6, line 45, leave out subsections (6) to (9)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment removes provisions about the meaning and application of Clause 8(1)(d), as a consequence of the amendment in Baroness Finlay's name removing Clause 8(1)(d).

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD ANDERSON OF IPSWICH
BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB
LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM

35 Page 6, line 47, at end insert –

- “(c) the protection of consumers;
- (d) the protection of environmental standards;
- (e) the promotion of social and labour standards;
- (f) the protection of public health;
- (g) the protection of animal health.”

LORD HOPE OF CRAIGHEAD

36 Page 6, line 47, at end insert –

- “(c) the regulation of animal welfare and the protection of the environment.”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED

37 Page 6, line 47, at end insert –

- “(c) the protection of public morality;
- (d) the protection of public policy;
- (e) the protection of national treasures possessing artistic historic or archaeological value; or
- (f) the protection of industrial and commercial property.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the definition of legitimate aim is brought into line with the source EU law as contained in Articles 34-36 TFEU.

LORD FOX

38 Page 7, line 1, leave out subsection (7)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State's regulation-making power, as recommended by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee in its 24th Report.

BARONESS ANDREWS

39 Page 7, line 1, leave out subsections (7) and (8)

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
BARONESS NORTHOVER
LORD FAULKNER OF WORCESTER

39A Page 7, line 2, leave out “vary or remove” and insert “or broaden”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment amends Clause 8(7) to limit the ability of the Secretary of State to amend by regulations Clause 8(6), which sets out the meaning of “legitimate aim”, such that “legitimate aim” can only be added or broadened by regulations and not varied or removed.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

40 Page 7, line 3, leave out subsection (8) and insert –

“(8) Regulations under subsection (7) are subject to super-affirmative resolution procedure (see Schedule (Super-affirmative resolution procedure)).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that regulations under Clause 8 will be subject to super-affirmative procedure. This amendment also introduces the supportive Schedule in respect of super-affirmative resolution procedure.

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN
BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

41 Page 7, line 4, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (7) the Secretary of State must consult and seek the consent of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers, and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

42 Page 7, line 4, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (7) the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the Secretary of State must consult with the Devolved Administrations before amending the list of legitimate aims.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED

43 Page 7, line 4, at end insert –

“() The Secretary of State must publish the results of the consultation and give reasons for any decision reached.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the Secretary of State must publish the results of any consultation with the Devolved Administrations along with the reasons for reaching any decision on the consultation.

Clause 9

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN

44 Page 7, line 10, leave out subsection (1) and insert –

“(1) Statutory provision relating to a subject is not a relevant requirement for the purposes of the non-discrimination principle for goods if the same provision was in force in the part of the United Kingdom concerned on the day before the day on which regulations under section (Legislation to which market access principles apply) specifying that subject come into force.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is related to the new Clause inserted by another amendment by Baroness Finlay. It means that the non-discrimination principle does not apply to a statutory requirement that applied in part of the United Kingdom before regulations came into force specifying the subject of the requirement as one to which the market access principles apply.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

45 Page 7, line 14, leave out “substantive change” and insert “significant amendment”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment probes the Government's understanding of the phrase substantive change in relation to changes to statutory requirements.

Clause 10

LORD FOX

46 Page 7, line 23, leave out subsection (2)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State's regulation-making power, as recommended by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee in its 24th Report.

BARONESS ANDREWS

47 Page 7, line 23, leave out subsections (2) and (3)

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
BARONESS NORTHOVER
LORD FAULKNER OF WORCESTER

47A Page 7, line 23, leave out “amend that Schedule” and insert “broaden the exclusions to the market access principles set out in Schedule 1.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment amends Clause 10(2) to limit the ability of the Secretary of State to amend by regulations Schedule 1, Exclusions from market access rules, such that the exclusions can only be broadened by regulations and not varied or removed.

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN
 BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE
 LORD MORRIS OF ABERAVON

48 Page 7, line 25, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (2) the Secretary of State must consult and seek the consent of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers, and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING
 LORD MORRIS OF ABERAVON

49 Page 7, line 25, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (2) the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the Secretary of State must consult with the Devolved Administrations before amending Schedule 1 of the Bill.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
 LORD FOX
 BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB

50 Leave out Clause 10 and insert the following new Clause –

“Exclusions from market access principles: public policy etc.

- (1) The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of) any legislation so far as it satisfies the conditions set out in subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) The first condition is that the aim of the legislation is –
 - (a) the protection of the life or health of humans, animals or plants,
 - (b) the protection of public safety or security,
 - (c) the protection of the environment,
 - (d) the protection of animal welfare,
 - (e) consumer protection,
 - (f) the improvement of working conditions, or
 - (g) a combination of any of those aims.
- (3) The second condition is that the legislation can reasonably be considered a proportionate means of achieving that aim or those aims.
- (4) The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of) any legislation so far as it imposes, or relates to the imposition of, any tax, rate, duty or similar charge.
- (5) A relevant requirement is not to be taken indirectly to discriminate against goods for the purposes of section 8 if –
 - (a) it is statutory provision contained in, or in subordinate legislation made under, an Act of Parliament,
 - (b) the same, or substantially the same, statutory provision applies in the originating part,

Clause 10 - continued

- (c) the statutory provision that applies in the originating part is also contained in, or in subordinate legislation made under, an Act of Parliament, and
- (d) no substantive change to the statutory provision has come into force—
 - (i) in the destination part but not the originating part, or
 - (ii) in the originating part but not the destination part.
- (6) In subsection (5), “relevant requirement”, “statutory provision”, “originating part” and “destination part” have the meanings they have in relation to the non-discrimination principle for goods (see sections 5 and 6).
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend subsection (2).
- (8) Regulations under subsection (7) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (9) Before making regulations under subsection (7) the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers;
 - (b) the Welsh Ministers;
 - (c) the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment specifies exclusions from the United Kingdom market access principles, in place of the narrower exclusions in Schedule 1. In particular, it means the principles will not apply to legislation which can reasonably be considered a proportionate means of achieving any of the policy aims listed in subsection (2).

After Clause 10

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD ANDERSON OF IPSWICH
BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

51

Insert the following new Clause—

“Exclusions from market access principles: public interest derogations

- (1) The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to, and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of, any requirements which—
 - (a) pursue a legitimate aim,
 - (b) are a proportionate means of achieving that aim, and
 - (c) are not a disguised restriction on trade.
- (2) A requirement is considered to pursue a legitimate aim if it makes a contribution to the achievement of—
 - (a) environmental standards and protection,
 - (b) animal welfare,
 - (c) consumer standards, including digital and artificial intelligence privacy rights,
 - (d) employment rights and protections,
 - (e) health and life of humans, animals or plants,
 - (e) cultural expression,

After Clause 10 - continued

- (f) regional socio-cultural characteristics, or
 - (g) equality entitlements, rights and protections.
- (3) A requirement is considered disproportionate if the legitimate aim being pursued in the destination part of the United Kingdom is already achieved to the same or higher extent by requirements in the originating part of the United Kingdom.”

BARONESS BOYCOTT
BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB
LORD TEVERSON

52 Insert the following new Clause –

“Environmental derogation for market access principles

The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of) any legislation or other requirement so far as –

- (a) its purpose is to protect the environment including tackling climate change; and
- (b) it is a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this new Clause is to provide for exceptions and derogations that allow all four UK nations to put in place proportionate measures to protect the environment and improve environmental standards and includes measures which tackle climate change.

LORD YOUNG OF COOKHAM
BARONESS NORTHOVER
LORD FAULKNER OF WORCESTER

52A Insert the following new Clause –

“Exclusions to market access principles for legitimate aims

- (1) The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to legislation that can reasonably considered a necessary means of achieving a legitimate aim.
- (2) “Legitimate aim” means one, or a combination, of the following aims –
 - (a) the protection of the life or health of humans, animals or plants;
 - (b) the protection of public safety or security.
- (3) The application of subsection (1) is to be determined with regard to the availability of alternative means of achieving the aim in question.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment takes the legitimate aims exclusion from indirect non-discrimination in Clause 8 and applies it to all market access principles. It omits the ability of the Secretary of State to change the list of legitimate aims through an affirmative resolution procedure.

Before Schedule 1

LORD HOPE OF CRAIGHEAD

53 Insert the following new Schedule—

“COMMON FRAMEWORKS

Subjects to which the market access principles may not apply until the common frameworks process has been exhausted are as follows—

- (a) animal health and welfare,
- (b) plant health,
- (c) plant varieties and seeds,
- (d) cultivation and marketing of genetically modified organisms,
- (e) production, certification and labelling of organic products,
- (f) food compositional standards and labelling,
- (g) use of geographical names for foods and agricultural products,
- (h) safety and hygiene of food and animal feed,
- (i) regulation of fertilisers, including composition and labelling,
- (j) manufacture, authorisation, sale and use of chemicals and pesticides,
- (k) emissions trading schemes for greenhouse gases,
- (l) ozone depleting substances and fluorinated gases,
- (m) production, reduction, treatment, disposal and shipment of waste, including standards for products and packaging, and
- (n) zootechnical and genealogical conditions for trade in breeding animals used in agriculture.”

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN

54 Insert the following new Schedule—

“SUBJECTS TO WHICH MARKET ACCESS PRINCIPLES MAY BE APPLIED

- 1 Support for agriculture, including direct payments to farmers and rural development.
- 2 Support and management of fishing, fisheries and aquaculture, including access to fisheries, fishing quotas and marine conservation.
- 3 Zootechnical and genealogical conditions for trade in breeding animals used in agriculture and their germinal products.
- 4 Animal health and welfare.
- 5 Plant health.
- 6 Plant varieties and seeds.
- 7 Cultivation and marketing of genetically modified organisms.
- 8 Production, certification and labelling of organic products.
- 9 Food compositional standards and labelling.
- 10 Use of geographical names for foods and agricultural products.
- 11 Safety and hygiene of food and animal feed.
- 12 Regulation of fertilisers, including composition and labelling.
- 13 Manufacture, authorisation, sale and use of chemicals and pesticides.

Before Schedule 1 - continued

- 14 Emissions trading schemes for greenhouse gases.
- 15 Ozone depleting substances and fluorinated gases.
- 16 Prevention, reduction, treatment, disposal and shipment of waste, including standards for products and packaging.

Interpretation

- 17 In this Schedule, “food” includes drink.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment inserts a new Schedule listing the subjects that may be specified by regulations under the new Clause inserted by another amendment in the name of Baroness Finlay for the purpose of applying the United Kingdom market access principles in Part 1.

Schedule 1

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD FOX

- 55 Page 46, line 5, leave out sub-paragraph (1) and insert—
“(1) This paragraph sets out the conditions referred to in section 43(5).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the new Clause 10 substituted by another amendment in the name of Baroness Finlay, which means that paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 will not be relevant to Part 1 of the Bill and will apply only for the purposes of Clause 43(5).

- 56 Page 47, line 1, leave out paragraphs 2 to 12

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment removes provisions in Schedule 1 which are not needed as a consequence of the new Clause 10 substituted by another amendment in the name of Baroness Finlay, which sets out exclusions from the United Kingdom market access principles in more general terms.

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA

- 57 Page 47, line 2, leave out “the conditions” and insert “a condition”
- 58 Page 47, line 32, leave out paragraph (a) and insert—
“(a) in relation to food, means injurious to health, causing a probable cumulative toxic effect, or not maintaining UK levels of statutory protection provided for by or under any primary legislation, subordinate legislation, or retained direct EU legislation in the areas of food safety, food hygiene, food traceability and, to the extent that it affects food safety, animal welfare;”
- 59 Page 50, line 17, at end insert—
“13 The United Kingdom market access principles do not apply to, (and sections 2(3) and 5(3) do not affect the operation of,) any legislation so far as it relates to public procurement.”

Clause 11

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD FOX

60 Page 8, line 9, leave out subsections (6) and (7)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment in Baroness Finlay's name replacing Clause 10, which will mean that Schedule 1 no longer sets out exclusions from the United Kingdom market access principles. It removes provisions modifying one of the exclusions in Schedule 1.

LORD FALCONER OF THOROTON

61 Page 8, line 16, leave out subsection (8)

Clause 12

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

62 Page 8, line 22, at end insert—

“(1A) Before preparing guidance under subsection (1) the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the Secretary of State must consult with the Devolved Administrations before preparing guidance under Clause 12.

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

63 Page 8, line 31, at end insert—

“() Before issuing, revising or withdrawing any guidance, the Secretary of State must consult and seek the consent of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN
BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE
LORD WIGLEY

64 Page 8, line 31, at end insert—

“(4A) Before issuing, revising or withdrawing any guidance the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of the devolved administrations before issuing, revising or withdrawing guidance on the operation of the United Kingdom market access principles or of Part 1 of the Bill.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

65 Page 8, line 31, at end insert –

”(4A) Before revising or withdrawing any guidance issued under subsection (1) the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This is a consequential amendment.

Clause 14

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

66 Page 9, line 13, leave out subsection (4) and insert –

“(4) “Sale” has the meaning given in section 61 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment brings Clause 14 into conformity with the existing law of sale.

67 Page 9, line 25, leave out paragraph (c)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment deletes Clause 14(6)(c) from the bill.

Before Clause 16

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

68 Insert the following new Clause –

“Purpose of Part 2

This Part promotes the continued functioning of the internal market for services in the United Kingdom for the benefit and protection of consumers.”

Clause 16BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN

69 Page 11, line 26, leave out paragraph (c) and insert –

“(c) a requirement that –

- (i) is in force, or otherwise has effect, in relation to a service on the relevant day, and has not been substantively changed after that day, or
- (ii) comes into force, or otherwise takes effect, in relation to a service after the relevant day, if it re-enacts or replicates (without substantive change) a legislative requirement in force or having effect in relation to the service immediately before the relevant day;”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is related to new Clause 17 substituted by another amendment in Baroness Finlay's name, which means that Part 2 applies only to services specified in regulations. This amendment and Baroness Finlay's amendment to page 12, line 3 mean that Part 2 does not generally apply to requirements that have effect before the regulations come into force.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

70 Page 11, line 32, leave out “substantive change” and insert “significant amendment”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment probes the Government's understanding of the phrase ‘substantive change’ in relation to changes to statutory requirements.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN

71 Page 12, line 3, leave out subsection (7) and insert –

“(7) For the purposes of subsections (5)(c) and (6) –

- (a) the “relevant day” is the day before the day on which section 18 first applies, or sections 19 and 20 first apply, in relation to a service by virtue of regulations under section (Services: application of sections 18 to 20);
- (b) an authorisation requirement corresponds to another authorisation requirement if it relates to the same, or substantially the same, services.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is related to the new Clause 17 substituted by another amendment in Baroness Finlay's name, which means that Part 2 applies only to services specified in regulations. This amendment and Baroness Finlay's amendment to page 11, line 26 mean that Part 2 does not generally apply to requirements that have effect before the regulations come into force.

Clause 17

LORD FOX

72 Page 12, line 35, leave out subsection (2)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State's regulation-making power, as recommended by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee in its 24th Report.

BARONESS ANDREWS

73 Page 12, line 35, leave out subsections (2) to (4)

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN
BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE
LORD HAIN

74 Page 12, line 40, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (2) the Secretary of State must consult and seek the consent of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers, and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Clause 17 - continued

LORD HAIN

75 Page 12, line 40, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (2) the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the Secretary of State must consult with the Devolved Administrations before amending Schedule 2 to the bill.

LORD WIGLEY

75A Page 12, line 40, at end insert –

“() Before making any regulations under subsection (2), the Secretary of State must consult, and obtain the consent of, the Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

76 Page 12, line 41, leave out subsection (3) and insert –

“(3) Regulations under subsection (2) are subject to super-affirmative resolution procedure (see Schedule (Super-affirmative resolution procedure)).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that regulations under Clause 17 will be subject to super-affirmative procedure. This amendment also introduces the supportive Schedule in respect of super-affirmative resolution procedure.

77 Page 12, line 43, leave out subsection (4)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment deletes Clause 17 (4) from the Bill.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD HAIN

78 Leave out Clause 17 and insert the following new Clause –

“Services: application of sections 18 to 20

- (1) Section 18 applies to a service only if it is specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may not specify a service listed in the table in Part 1 of Schedule 2.
- (3) Sections 19 and 20 apply to a service only if it is specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) may not specify a service listed in the table in Part 2 of Schedule 2.

Clause 17 - continued

- (5) In Schedule 2—
 - (a) Part 3 lists authorisation requirements to which section 18 does not apply;
 - (b) Part 4 lists regulatory requirements to which sections 19 and 20 do not apply.
- (6) The Secretary of State must keep Schedule 2 under review.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend Schedule 2.
- (8) Regulations under subsections (1) and (3) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (9) Before laying a draft of a statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (1) or (3) before either House of Parliament, the Secretary of State must give notice of the proposed regulations to—
 - (a) each devolved authority, and
 - (b) the Competition and Markets Authority.
- (10) The Secretary of State may not lay the draft instrument before either House of Parliament until—
 - (a) the Secretary of State has received—
 - (i) a statement in relation to the proposed regulations from each devolved authority, and
 - (ii) a report or advice on the proposed regulations from the Competition and Markets Authority, or
 - (b) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which notice was given under subsection (9) has ended.
- (11) When a draft of a statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (1) or (3) is laid before either House of Parliament, the Secretary of State must at the same time lay before that House copies of any statements, report or advice mentioned in subsection (10)(a).
- (12) Regulations under subsection (7) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (13) But, during the period of three months beginning with the day this section comes into force, the Secretary of State may make regulations under subsection (7) subject instead to made affirmative procedure.
- (14) Before making regulations under subsection (7) the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of each devolved authority.
- (15) In this section, “devolved authority” means—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers;
 - (b) the Welsh Ministers;
 - (c) the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment means that the provisions in Part 2 limiting the effect of certain requirements apply only to services that are specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State. It provides that services listed in Schedule 2 may not be specified, and sets out the procedure for making regulations.

Schedule 2

BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

79 Page 51, line 23, at end insert –

“Teaching Services	provision of teaching services in schools or colleges”
--------------------	--

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would add the profession of teacher and teaching services to the scope of the exclusions from the Bill, in the same way that the legal professions and legal services are excluded.

Clause 18

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF

LORD FOX

80 Page 13, line 14, at end insert “or by any other overriding reason relating to the public interest”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment broadens the purposes for which an authorisation requirement may be applied to a person authorised in another part of the United Kingdom, to include any overriding reason relating to the public interest (rather than only to respond to a public health emergency).

Clause 19

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

81 Page 13, line 17, leave out “of no effect” and insert “not law”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment probes the meaning of Clause 19(1) regarding the effect of a statutory requirement under that Clause.

82 Page 13, line 27, leave out “, and section 20,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment adding a definition of relevant connection to Clause 20 (page 14, line 16).

Clause 20

LORD CALLANAN

83 Page 13, line 34, leave out the second “a” and insert “an incoming”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would make clear that Clause 20 is concerned with incoming service providers.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

84 Page 13, line 35, leave out “of no effect” and insert “not law”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment probes the meaning of Clause 20(1) regarding the effect of a statutory requirement under that Clause.

LORD CALLANAN

85 Page 13, line 35, after “that” insert “incoming”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment follows from the amendment to page 13, line 34 in my name.

86 Page 13, line 36, leave out the second “a” and insert “an incoming”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment follows from the amendment to page 13, line 34 in my name.

87 Page 13, line 38, after “discriminate” insert “against the incoming service provider”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that requirements would only be excluded from the scope of Clause 20 if they are directly discriminatory against the incoming service provider (rather than in a general sense).

88 Page 13, line 39, leave out from “it” to end of line 41 and insert “puts the incoming service provider at a relevant disadvantage”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is to accommodate the redrafting of the test in Clause 20(4)- it would treat the concept of unequal treatment (or relevant disadvantage) as a test separate from adverse market effect (which is covered by paragraph (c)).

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

LORD CALLANAN

90 Page 13, line 44, at end insert –

“(2A) A regulatory requirement puts an incoming service provider at a relevant disadvantage if –

- (a) it puts the incoming service provider at a disadvantage in relation to the provision of services in the part of the United Kingdom in which the requirement applies, and
- (b) it does not put, or would not put, each local service provider at that disadvantage in relation to the provision of those services in that part (at all or to the same extent).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would define the concept of relevant disadvantage, introduced by the amendment to page 13, line 39 in my name.

91 Page 14, line 1, leave out subsections (3) and (4) and insert –

- “(3) A regulatory requirement puts a service provider at a disadvantage in relation to the provision of services in a part of the United Kingdom if it makes it in any way more difficult, or less attractive, for the service provider to provide the services in that part.
- (4) A regulatory requirement has an adverse market effect if, by putting an incoming service provider (or incoming service providers) at a relevant disadvantage in relation to the provision of services, it has a significant adverse effect on competition in the market for those services in the United Kingdom.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would rephrase what is meant by “disadvantage” and “adverse market effect” in light of the addition of the concept of relevant disadvantage in the amendment to page 13, line 44 in my name.

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

92 Page 14, line 2, leave out “or less attractive”

Member's explanatory statement

This probing amendment is designed to ascertain the meaning of “less attractive” in connection a disadvantage referred to in Clause 20.

LORD CALLANAN

93 Page 14, line 16, at end insert –

- “(4A) For the purposes of subsections (1) to (4) –
- (a) an “incoming service provider” is a service provider that –
- (i) provides the services in the part of the United Kingdom in which the regulatory requirement applies, but
 - (ii) does not have a relevant connection to that part;
- (b) a “local service provider” is a service provider that –
- (i) provides the services in the part of the United Kingdom in which the regulatory requirement applies,
 - (ii) has a relevant connection to that part, and
 - (iii) does not have a relevant connection to another part of the United Kingdom;
- (c) a service provider has a “relevant connection” to a part of the United Kingdom if the service provider –
- (i) has a registered office, place of business or residence in that part, or
 - (ii) provides the services from that part.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would define concepts used in the other amendments to Clause 20 in my name.

94 Page 14, line 17, leave out subsection (5)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove an unnecessary interpretation provision.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD FOX

95 Page 14, line 20, leave out subsections (6) to (8)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment removes the list of "legitimate aims" in Clause 20(6) and the power to amend that list. The intention is that the reference to a legitimate aim in Clause 20(2)(d) should be read as meaning any legitimate aim, not only the three aims listed in subsection (6).

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

96 Page 14, line 24, at end insert –

“(d) the protection of consumers.”

LORD FOX

97 Page 14, line 25, leave out subsection (7)

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State's regulation-making power, as recommended by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee in its 24th Report.

100 Page 14, line 26, at end insert –

“() Before making regulations under subsection (7) the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers and the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the Secretary of State must consult with the Devolved Administrations before amending the definition of "legitimate aim" in Clause 20(6).

LORD WIGLEY

100A Page 14, line 26, at end insert –

101 Page 14, line 27, leave out subsection (8) and insert –

“(8) Regulations under subsection (7) are subject to super-affirmative resolution procedure (see Schedule (Super-affirmative resolution procedure)).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that regulations under Clause 20 will be subject to super-affirmative procedure. This amendment also introduces the supportive Schedule in respect of super-affirmative resolution procedure.

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN

102 Page 14, line 29, leave out subsection (9)

Before Clause 22

LORD FOX

102A Insert the following new Clause –

“Purpose of Part 3

This Part consolidates existing law relating to the mutual recognition of professional qualifications within the United Kingdom.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is to probe the legal basis for introducing the provisions in this part, and whether they are covered in existing UK law.

Clause 23

BARONESS MCINTOSH OF PICKERING

103 Page 16, line 26, leave out “mainly” and insert “substantially”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is designed to probe the meaning of “mainly” in connection with the gathering of experience.

After Clause 23

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD GERMAN

104 Insert the following new Clause—

“Application of Part 3

- (1) This Part applies to a profession only if it is specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (3) Before laying a draft of a statutory instrument containing regulations under this section before either House of Parliament, the Secretary of State must give notice of the proposed regulations to—
 - (a) each devolved authority, and
 - (b) the Competition and Markets Authority.
- (4) The Secretary of State may not lay the draft instrument before either House of Parliament until—
 - (a) the Secretary of State has received—
 - (i) a statement in relation to the proposed regulations from each devolved authority, and
 - (ii) a report or advice on the proposed regulations from the Competition and Markets Authority, or
 - (b) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which notice was given under subsection (3) has ended.
- (5) When a draft of a statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is laid before either House of Parliament, the Secretary of State must at the same time lay before that House copies of any statements, report or advice mentioned in subsection (4)(a).
- (6) In this section, “devolved authority” means—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers;
 - (b) the Welsh Ministers;
 - (c) the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment means that Part 3 of the Bill (concerning mutual recognition of professional qualifications) will apply to a profession only if it is specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State. It also sets out the procedure for making regulations.

Clause 25

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD GERMAN

105 Page 18, line 46, leave out subsections (2) and (3) and insert—

- “(2) In subsection (1) “existing provision” means—

- (a) provision that is in force in relation to a profession on the date that regulations under section (Application of Part 3) are made in relation to that profession, or
 - (b) provision that comes into force in relation to a profession after that date so far as it is, in substance, a re-enactment or replication of provision within paragraph (a).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply (and section 22(2) accordingly does apply) in relation to a profession if, after the date on which regulations under section (Application of Part 3) are made in relation to that profession, provision comes into force in a part of the United Kingdom other than the relevant part that changes the circumstances in which individuals are qualified in relation to that profession.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is related to Baroness Finlay’s amendment to insert a new Clause after Clause 23. It means that Part 3 does not generally apply to legislation that is already in force in relation to a profession when regulations are made applying Part 3 to that profession (or that restates legislation that was in force at that time).

BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

106 Page 19, line 13, at end insert “, or the teaching profession.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would add the profession of teacher and teaching services to the scope of the exclusions from the Bill, in the same way that the legal professions and legal services are excluded.

“(d) in relation to any part of the United Kingdom, the profession of patent attorney or trade mark attorney.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would add patent attorney and trade mark attorney to the list of legal professions the regulation of which is excluded from Clause 22.

BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED

107A Page 19, line 24, at end insert –

“(7) Nothing in this section removes the ability of the approved regulators to authorise reserved legal activities, as in Schedule 4 to the Legal Services Act 2007 (approved regulators).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This is to probe discussion as to whether there is a change to reserved legal activities in relation to the regulators listed under the Legal Services Act 2007, in light of government Amendment 107.

Clause 27

LORD CALLANAN

108 Page 20, line 35, at end insert –

“(1A) Provision that limits the ability referred to in subsection (1)(a) to individuals with certain qualifications or experience falls within section 22(1) only if the activities affected by the provision are, in a significant number of cases, essential to the practice of the profession in question.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would provide that provision imposing qualification requirements on particular professional activities falls within Clause 22 only if the activities are, in a significant number of cases, essential to the practice of the profession in question.

After Clause 27

LORD MACKAY OF CLASHFERN

109 Insert the following new Clause –

“Purpose of this Act

The provisions of this Act are for the purpose of the maintenance of the internal market in the UK and may not be used for any other purpose.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes clear that the powers in the Bill are not to be used to make incursions into devolved matters except for that purpose.

Clause 28BARONESS NEVILLE-ROLFE
BARONESS NOAKES

110 Leave out Clause 28 and insert –

“Office for the Internal Market

- “(1) An Office for the Internal Market (“OIM”), which will report to the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, is established.
- (2) The functions of the OIM are as follows –
- (a) monitoring the health of the internal market, and
 - (b) advising and reporting on proposals and regulations, and their actual and potential impact on the internal market.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to probe why the OIM is established within the CMA and instead attaches it to BEIS.

BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED
BARONESS NEVILLE-ROLFE

The above-named Lords give notice of their intention to oppose the Question that Clause 28 stand part of the Bill.

“(3) Before authorising a task group under subsection (1), the CMA must consult the Joint Ministerial Committee on European Negotiations.”

BARONESS BOWLES OF BERKHAMSTED

Baroness Bowles of Berkhamsted gives notice of her intention to oppose the Question that Clause 30 stand part of the Bill.

After Clause 30

LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA

115 Insert the following new Clause –

“Office for the Internal Market: establishment as a body corporate

- (1) Within the period of six months beginning on the day on which section 30 comes into force, the Secretary of State must by regulations establish the Office for the Internal Market (“the OIM”) as a body corporate.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may amend or modify any enactment including this Act for the purposes of requiring or authorising the OIM to do anything required or authorised to be done by the CMA under this Part.
- (3) Schedule (Office for the Internal Market) contains further provision about the OIM once it has been established as a body corporate.
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.”

LORD PALMER OF CHILDS HILL

116 Insert the following new Clause –

“Office for the Internal Market

- (1) Subject to a memorandum of understanding having been agreed between the Secretary of State, the Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers and the Northern Ireland department concerning the United Kingdom’s market access principles, an Office for the Internal Market (“OIM”) must be set up to assist in the oversight of the internal market in the United Kingdom.
- (2) The OIM must –
 - (a) be transparent other than when it is necessary to preserve commercially confidential information,
 - (b) include Board nominees from all devolved authorities and from regions of England.
- (3) Any task or investigatory group within the OIM must have a minimum of five persons drawn from all four nations of the United Kingdom.
- (4) If, in the ordinary course of its business, the CMA conducts an investigation which requires consideration of the operation of the UK internal market, separate from consideration by OIM, the CMA shall appoint an inquiry panel of at least five members drawn from all four nations of the United Kingdom.”

- “(c) one person appointed to membership of the CMA Board by each of –
- (i) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (ii) the Welsh Ministers, and
 - (iii) the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides for each of the devolved administrations to appoint a member to the CMA Board.

LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD
BARONESS RANDESON
BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF

118 Page 54, line 11, leave out “consult” and insert “obtain the consent of”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of the devolved administrations before appointing the chair and members of the CMA's Office of the Internal Market panel (but this is intended to be subject to the amendment in the name of Baroness Finlay to page 47, line 1).

BARONESS HAYTER OF KENTISH TOWN
BARONESS BENNETT OF MANOR CASTLE

LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD
BARONESS RANDERSON
BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF

120 Page 54, line 14, at end insert –

“(2B) But the Secretary of State may make an appointment without consent required by sub-paragraph (2A) if that consent is not given within the period of one month beginning with the day on which the Secretary of State requests it.

(2C) If the Secretary of State makes an appointment without consent required by sub-paragraph (2A), the Secretary of State must publish a statement explaining why the Secretary of State has proceeded with the appointment.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment enables the Secretary of State to make an appointment to the OIM panel without the consent of the devolved administrations if one month has passed since consent was requested. Reasons must be given for proceeding without consent.

121 Page 54, line 14, at end insert –

“(4) In sub-paragraph (5), after “(1)(b)” insert “and (c)”.

2A In paragraph 2, after sub-paragraph (2) insert –

“(3) Before determining the terms and conditions of an appointment to the CMA Board under paragraph 1(1)(c), the Secretary of State must consult whichever of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers or the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland is responsible for making the appointment.””

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment adds two new amendments to Schedule 3 related to the amendment in the name of Lord Thomas of Cwmgiedd to page 54, line 8. The first updates a cross-reference as a consequence of that amendment. The second requires the Secretary of State to consult the devolved administrations before setting terms and conditions for CMA Board members that they appoint.

122 Page 54, line 15, at end insert –

“(1A) In sub-paragraph (1), after “(1)(b)” insert “or (c)”.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the amendment in the name of Lord Thomas of Cwmgiedd to page 54, line 8, and applies the maximum 5-year term for CMA Board members to members appointed by the devolved administrations.

123 Page 55, line 3, at end insert –

“(2A) After sub-paragraph (2) insert –

“(2A) Sub-paragraph (2) applies to a member of the CMA Board appointed under paragraph 1(1)(c) as if the reference to the Secretary of State were a reference to whichever of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers or the Department for the Economy in Northern Ireland appointed the person.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment means that, if a CMA Board member appointed by one of the devolved administrations wishes to resign from membership, they must do so by giving notice to the devolved administration in question.

124 Page 55, line 15, at end insert –

“5A(1) Paragraph 7 is amended as follows.

(2) The existing provision becomes sub-paragraph (1).

(3) After that sub-paragraph insert –

“(2) Sub-paragraph (1) applies to a member of the CMA Board appointed under paragraph 1(1)(c) as if the reference to the Secretary of State were a reference to whichever of the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers or the Department for the Economy.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment means that, where a CMA Board member was appointed by one of the devolved administrations, the power to remove that member for incapacity, misbehaviour or dereliction of duty is exercisable by the devolved administration in question.

LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD
BARONESS HUMPHREYS

7C In paragraph 14, after “Parliament” insert “, the Scottish Parliament, Senedd Cymru and the Northern Ireland Assembly”.

7D In paragraph 27(b), after “(1)(b)” insert “and (c)”.

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires the CMA to lay its annual plan, proposals for its plan, and its annual report before each of the devolved legislatures. It also adds an amendment to update a cross-reference as a consequence of the amendment in Lord Thomas of Cwmgiedd's name to page 54, line 8.

- (1) Any financial assistance provided under Part 6 of this Act for the purpose of economic development must take into account the overarching need for a sustainable strategy aimed at long-term national well-being.
- (2) Every proposal for financial assistance under this Act must be accompanied by a climate and nature emergency impact statement.
- (3) Responsibility for the production of the climate and nature emergency impact statement required in subsection (2) resides with the applicant for financial assistance.
- (4) Responsibility for assessment of the climate and nature emergency impact statement required in subsection (2) resides with Ministers, who are required to publish this assessment for any successful proposal.
- (5) The climate and nature emergency impact statement produced should take account of any carbon budget, climate, nature and environmental goals approved by the relevant Parliament.
- (6) In subsection (5), the “relevant Parliament” means –
 - (a) where the proposed financial assistance relates to a person in England, the House of Commons and the House of Lords;
 - (b) where the proposed financial assistance relates to a person in Scotland, the Scottish Parliament;
 - (c) where the proposed financial assistance relates to a person in Wales, Senedd Cymru;
 - (d) where the proposed financial assistance relates to a person in Northern Ireland, the Northern Ireland Assembly.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The intention of this new Clause is to ensure that those seeking financial assistance for economic development, etc under this Act are obliged to undertake a climate and nature emergency impact statement to ensure public money is only granted to development consistent with climate, nature and environmental goals and targets.

Clause 50

LORD THOMAS OF CWMGIEDD
LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
LORD FOX
BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF

The above-named Lords give notice of their intention to oppose the Question that Clause 50 stand part of the Bill.

BARONESS FINLAY OF LLANDAFF
LORD STEVENSON OF BALMACARA
BARONESS RANDERSON

174 Insert the following new Clause –

“Establishing and maintaining high levels of protection in the regulation of goods

- (1) The duty in subsection (2) applies where an appropriate authority exercises any function of making of subordinate legislation that establishes, alters or removes a relevant requirement.
- (2) The appropriate authority must have regard to the need to establish and maintain a high level of protection in respect of any regulatory aim that is relevant to the relevant requirement.
- (3) A person, acting as or on behalf of an appropriate authority, in charge of a Bill in an appropriate legislature that contains provision establishing, altering or removing a relevant requirement must make a statement, on or before introduction of the Bill, that –
 - (a) sets out the person's view as to whether the provisions will provide for a level of protection in respect of any regulatory aim relevant to the relevant requirement that is equivalent to, higher than or lower than the level of protection afforded by the law before it would be changed by the Bill, and
 - (b) sets out the person's reasons for holding that view.
- (4) The form of any statement under subsection (3), and the manner in which it is to be made, is to be determined under the standing orders of the appropriate legislature.
- (5) Before making subordinate legislation that establishes, alters or removes a relevant requirement, the appropriate authority must make a statement that –
 - (a) sets out the authority's view as to whether the legislation will provide for a level of protection in respect of any regulatory aim relevant to the relevant requirement that is equivalent to, higher than or lower than the level of protection afforded by the law before it would be changed by the legislation, and
 - (b) sets out the person's reasons for holding that view.
- (6) A statement made under subsection (5) must be in writing and be published at such a time before the subordinate legislation is made and in such manner as the authority making it considers appropriate.
- (7) But subsection (6) is subject to any requirements imposed by the standing orders of the appropriate legislature in the case of subordinate legislation that must be laid before the legislature.
- (8) In this section –

“appropriate authority” means –

 - (a) a Minister of the Crown;
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers;
 - (c) the Welsh Ministers;

- (e) consumer protection,
- (f) the improvement of working conditions, or
- (g) a combination of any of those aims;

“relevant requirement” means –

- (a) a relevant requirement (within the meaning given by section 3) for the purposes of the mutual recognition principle for goods as it applies in relation to the sale of goods in a part of the United Kingdom, or
- (b) a relevant requirement (within the meaning given by section 6) for the purposes of the non-discrimination principle for goods.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment means that Ministers and others involved in making legislation must have regard to the need to establish and maintain a high level of protection in respect of regulatory aims relevant to that legislation and to which the mutual recognition principle for goods or the non-discrimination principle apply.
