

Covert Human Intelligence Sources (Criminal Conduct) Bill

AMENDMENTS TO BE MOVED ON REPORT

Clause 1

LORD CORMACK

“() A criminal conduct authorisation may not be granted to a covert human intelligence source under the age of 16.”

“() The Secretary of State must be informed of any proposed authorisation under this section.”

After Clause 1

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

Insert the following new Clause—

“Criminal conduct authorisations: safeguards for juveniles

- (1) The Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) Order 2000 (S.I. 2000/2793) is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (7).
- (2) In article 2 (interpretation)—
 - (a) in the definition of “relevant investigating authority”, after “authority” insert “, in relation to an authorisation under section 29 of the 2000 Act,”;
 - (b) after that definition insert—

““relevant investigating authority”, in relation to an authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act, means the public authority, or (as the case may be) one of the public authorities, for whose benefit the activities as a source of the source to whom the authorisation relates are to take place;
“relevant person”, in relation to an authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act, means a person holding an office, rank or position with a relevant investigating authority in relation to the authorisation;”.

- (3) Before article 3 insert—

“Authorisations under section 29 of the 2000 Act”

- (4) In article 3 (sources under 16: prohibition), after “authorisation” insert “under section 29 of the 2000 Act”.
- (5) In article 5 (sources under 18: risk assessments etc.), after “An authorisation” insert “under section 29 of the 2000 Act”.
- (6) In article 6 (sources under 18: duration of authorisations), after “an authorisation” insert “under section 29 of the 2000 Act”.
- (7) After article 6 insert—

*“Authorisations under section 29B of the 2000 Act7 Sources under 16: prohibition

- (1) No authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act may be granted authorising criminal conduct in the course of, or otherwise in connection with, the conduct of a source if—
- (a) the source is under the age of 16; and
 - (b) the relationship to which the relevant conduct would relate is between the source and—
 - (i) the source’s parent, or
 - (ii) any person who has parental responsibility for the source.
- (2) “The relevant conduct” means the conduct of the source which the authorised conduct would be in the course of or otherwise in connection with.

8 Sources under 18: additional requirements

- (1) An authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act may not be granted or renewed in any case where the source to whom the authorisation relates is under the age of 18 at the time of the grant or renewal unless the person granting or renewing the authorisation—
- (a) has considered the relevant risks;
 - (b) believes that they have been properly explained to and understood by the source;
 - (c) has taken into account the need to safeguard and promote the best interests of the source as a primary consideration;
 - (d) has considered whether the relationship to which the relevant conduct would relate is between the source and—
 - (i) a relative or guardian of the source, or
 - (ii) a person who has for the time being assumed responsibility for the source’s welfare;
 - (e) where the relationship would so relate, has taken that fact into account as a particular consideration; and
 - (f) believes that there are exceptional circumstances which justify the authorisation.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(f), “exceptional circumstances which justify the authorisation” means circumstances where—
- (a) having considered the relevant risks, and

- (b) having taken into account the matters mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) and, where applicable, in paragraph (1)(e), the person granting or renewing the authorisation believes that taking the relevant risks is justified.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(a) and (2), “the relevant risks” are the risks to the source identified in an appropriate risk assessment.
- (4) “An appropriate risk assessment” means an assessment made, and in the case of a renewal updated, by a relevant person which is sufficient to demonstrate that—
 - (a) the nature and magnitude of any risk of physical injury to the source arising in the course of, or as result of, the conduct authorised by the authorisation have been identified and evaluated; and
 - (b) the nature and magnitude of any risk of psychological distress to the source arising in the course of, or as result of, the conduct authorised by the authorisation have been identified and evaluated.
- (5) In paragraph (1)(d) “the relevant conduct” has the same meaning as in article 7.

9 Sources under 18: arrangements regarding best interests of the source

Where the source to whom an authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act relates is under the age of 18, the arrangements referred to in section 29B(4)(c) of the 2000 Act must be such that there is at all times a relevant person who has responsibility for safeguarding and promoting the best interests of the source.

10 Sources under 18: arrangements for meetings

- (1) Where the source to whom an authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act relates is under the age of 18, the arrangements referred to in section 29B(4)(c) of the 2000 Act must be such that—
 - (a) there is, at all times when the source is under the age of 16, a relevant person who has responsibility for ensuring that an appropriate adult is present at all meetings in relation to the authorisation which take place between the source and a person representing a relevant investigating authority; and
 - (b) there is, at all times when the source is 16 or 17 years old, a relevant person who has responsibility for—
 - (i) deciding, in the case of each meeting in relation to the authorisation which takes place between the source and a person representing a relevant investigating authority, whether an appropriate adult should be present at the meeting,
 - (ii) considering (among other matters), in reaching that decision, the maturity of the source and their ability to give informed consent, and

- (iii) maintaining a record of the reasons for the decision in the case of each such meeting where the decision is that an appropriate adult should not be present.
- (2) In this article, “appropriate adult” means—
 - (a) the parent or guardian of the source; or
 - (b) any other person who—
 - (i) has for the time being assumed responsibility for the source’s welfare, or
 - (ii) is otherwise qualified to represent the interests of the source.

11 Sources under 18: duration of authorisations

In relation to an authorisation under section 29B of the 2000 Act where the source to whom the authorisation relates is under the age of 18 at the time the authorisation is granted or renewed, section 43(3) of the 2000 Act is to have effect as if the period specified in paragraph (b) of that subsection were four months instead of twelve months.”

- (8) The amendments made by this section to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) Order 2000 (S.I. 2000/2793) are to be treated as having been made under section 29B(4)(c) or (10) or section 43(8) of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 as the case may be (and may be amended or revoked under those powers accordingly).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause amends the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) Order 2000 (S.I. 2000/2793) to add safeguards in relation to the grant or renewal of a criminal conduct authorisation under new section 29B of RIPA in relation to a covert human intelligence source who is under the age of 18. The provision made could otherwise be made by order under new section 29B(4)(c) or (10) or 43(8) of RIPA and the new clause therefore avoids the need for an initial order to be made under those powers.

Clause 2

Page 4, leave out lines 18 to 23

After Clause 2

LORD ANDERSON OF IPSWICH
LORD ROSSER
LORD BUTLER OF BROCKWELL
LORD MACKAY OF CLASHFERN

Insert the following new Clause—

“Notification to a Judicial Commissioner

After section 32B of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 insert—

“32C Notification of criminal conduct authorisations

- (1) This section applies where a person grants or cancels an authorisation under section 29B.
- (2) The person must give notice that the person has granted or cancelled the authorisation to a Judicial Commissioner.
- (3) A notice given for the purposes of subsection (2) must be given—
 - (a) in writing as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, before the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the day after that on which the authorisation to which it relates is granted or, as the case may be, cancelled; and
 - (b) in accordance with such arrangements made for the purposes of this paragraph by the Investigatory Powers Commissioner as are for the time being in force.
- (4) A notice under this section relating to the grant of an authorisation under section 29B must—
 - (a) set out the grounds on which the person giving the notice believes that the requirements of section 29B(4) are satisfied in relation to the authorisation; and
 - (b) specify the conduct that is authorised under section 29B by the authorisation.
- (5) Any notice that is required by this section to be given in writing may be given, instead, by being transmitted by electronic means.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires a person who grants or cancels a criminal conduct authorisation under new section 29B of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 to give notice to a Judicial Commissioner (appointed under the Investigatory Powers Act 2016). It provides for when and how the notice must be given and requires that it contains certain information. The references in the new clause to the grant of an authorisation include the renewal of an authorisation (see section 43(5) of the 2000 Act).

Clause 3

Page 4, line 26, leave out from “contains” to the end of line 28 and insert “—

- (a) amendments to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 (asp 11) which correspond to those made by this Act to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000, and
- (b) amendments to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) (Scotland) Order 2002 (S.S.I. 2002/206) which correspond to those made by this Act to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) Order 2000 (S.I. 2000/ 2793).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the Government amendment to Schedule 1 which adds to that Schedule amendments to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) (Scotland) Order 2002 (S.S.I. 2002/206).

Clause 4

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

Page 5, line 7, after “grant” insert “or renew”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment extends new section 229(4A) of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 to ensure that it also covers review of the exercise of the power to renew criminal conduct authorisations.

Page 5, line 10, at end insert—

- “(4B) In keeping under review the exercise of the powers mentioned in subsection (4A), the Investigatory Powers Commissioner must, in particular, keep under review whether public authorities are complying with any requirements imposed on them by virtue of—
- (a) Part 2 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000, or
 - (b) the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000,
- in relation to juvenile criminal conduct authorisations.
- (4C) For the purposes of subsection (4B), “a juvenile criminal conduct authorisation” is an authorisation under section 29B of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 or section 7A of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 where the covert human intelligence source to whom the authorisation relates is under the age of 18.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires that the Investigatory Powers Commissioner must in particular keep under review whether public authorities are complying with any requirements imposed on them by virtue of Part 2 of RIPA or RIP(S)A in relation to the grant or renewal of juvenile criminal conduct authorisations.

Page 5, line 13, after “grant” insert “or renew”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment extends new section 234(2)(ba) of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 to ensure that it also covers the reporting of information about the use of the power to renew criminal conduct authorisations.

After Clause 4

BARONESS CLARK OF KILWINNING
BARONESS JONES OF MOULSECOOMB
LORD MARLESFORD
BARONESS WHITAKER

Insert the following new Clause—

“Commissioner approval for authorisations to identify or confirm journalistic sources

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if a designated person has granted a criminal conduct authorisation for the purposes of identifying or confirming a source of journalistic information.
- (2) The authorisation is not to take effect until such time (if any) as a Judicial Commissioner has approved it.
- (3) A Judicial Commissioner may approve the authorisation if, and only if, the Judicial Commissioner considers that—
 - (a) at the time of the grant, there were reasonable grounds for considering that the requirements of this Part were satisfied in relation to the authorisation, and
 - (b) at the time when the Judicial Commissioner is considering the matter, there are reasonable grounds for considering that the requirements of this Part would be satisfied if an equivalent new authorisation were granted at that time.
- (4) In considering whether the position is as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) and (b), the Judicial Commissioner must, in particular, have regard to—
 - (a) the public interest in protecting a source of journalistic information, and
 - (b) the need for there to be another overriding public interest before a relevant public authority seeks to identify or confirm a source of journalistic information.
- (5) Where the Judicial Commissioner refuses to approve the grant of the authorisation, the Judicial Commissioner may quash the authorisation.
- (6) This subsection applies to all authorisations pertaining to sensitive journalistic information, material or communications data, other than when the authorising officer has a reasonable belief that any delay in the authorisation would cause an immediate threat to life, in which case the authorisation may only be granted—
 - (a) by an official at a senior level in the agency concerned, and
 - (b) where appropriate safeguards relating to the handling, retention, use and disclosure of the material are in place.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument determine the appropriate agency under subsection (6)(a).
- (8) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (7) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

- (9) Any authorisation granted under subsection (6) must be reported to the Investigatory Powers Commissioner within seven days, specifying any sensitive journalistic information, material or communications data that has been obtained, or retained other than for purposes of destruction.
- (10) In this section “journalistic material” means material created or acquired for the purposes of journalism.”

LORD PADDICK
BARONESS HAMWEE

Insert the following new Clause –

“Review of criminal conduct authorisations

- (1) The Secretary of State must arrange for a review by a judge of the High Court of England and Wales or of greater seniority of the matters listed in subsection (2).
- (2) The matters are –
 - (a) the grant of criminal conduct authorisations in relation to covert human intelligence sources including (without limitation) persons under the age of 18 and persons who may be considered vulnerable or to lack capacity;
 - (b) the criminal conduct of covert human intelligence sources and conduct which would be criminal in the absence of a criminal conduct authorisation;
 - (c) the oversight and monitoring of, and reporting on, such conduct;
 - (d) the oversight of persons entitled under section 30 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 to give authorisations under section 29B of that Act and the sanctions available in the event of misuse of those powers; and
 - (e) such other related matters as the judge considers appropriate.
- (3) The Secretary of State must within the period of three months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed lay before Parliament a statement providing further details about the review.
- (4) The review must –
 - (a) be commenced within the period of six months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed; and
 - (b) be published within two months of completion.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would provide for the review by a senior judge of the use of criminal conduct authorisations.

Clause 6

LORD PADDICK
BARONESS HAMWEE

Page 5, line 21, leave out “section 7” and insert “sections (Review of criminal conduct authorisations) and 7”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the new clause "Review of criminal conduct authorisations".

Page 5, line 23, after “day” insert “after the publication of the review provided for by section (Review of criminal conduct authorisations)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the new clause "Review of criminal conduct authorisations".

Clause 7

BARONESS WILLIAMS OF TRAFFORD

Page 5, line 36, after “Parliament” insert “or an instrument made under such an Act”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the Government amendment to Schedule 1 which adds to that Schedule amendments to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles)(Scotland) Order 2002 (S.S.I. 2002/206).

“17A Notification of criminal conduct authorisations

- (1) This section applies where a person grants or cancels an authorisation under section 7A.
- (2) The person must give notice that the person has granted or cancelled the authorisation to a Judicial Commissioner.
- (3) A notice given for the purposes of subsection (2) must be given –
 - (a) in writing as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, before the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the day after that on which the authorisation to which it relates is granted or, as the case may be, cancelled; and

- (b) in accordance with such arrangements made for the purposes of this paragraph by the Investigatory Powers Commissioner as are for the time being in force.
- (4) A notice under this section relating to the grant of an authorisation under section 7A must—
 - (a) set out the grounds on which the person giving the notice is satisfied that the requirements of section 7A(4) are satisfied in relation to the authorisation; and
 - (b) specify the conduct that is authorised under section 7A by the authorisation.
- (5) Any notice that is required by this section to be given in writing may be given, instead, by being transmitted by electronic means.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires a person who grants or cancels a criminal conduct authorisation under new section 7A of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 to give notice to a Judicial Commissioner (appointed under the Investigatory Powers Act 2016). It provides for when and how the notice must be given and requires that it contains certain information. The references in the new clause to the grant of an authorisation include the renewal of an authorisation (see section 19(5) of the 2000 Act).

“PART 2

CORRESPONDING AMENDMENTS TO THE REGULATION OF INVESTIGATORY POWERS
(JUVENILES) (SCOTLAND) ORDER 2002

- 9 The Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) (Scotland) Order 2002 (S.S.I. 2002/206) is amended as follows.
- 10 In article 2 (interpretation)—
 - (a) in the definition of “relevant investigating authority”, after “authority” insert “, in relation to an authorisation under section 7 of the 2000 Act;”;
 - (b) after that definition insert—
 - ““relevant investigating authority”, in relation to an authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act, means the public authority, or (as the case may be) one of the public authorities, for whose benefit the activities as a source of the source to whom the authorisation relates are to take place;
 - “relevant person”, in relation to an authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act, means a person holding an office, rank or position with a relevant investigating authority in relation to the authorisation;”.
- 11 Before article 3 insert—
 - “Authorisations under section 7 of the 2000 Act”
- 12 In article 3 (sources under 16: prohibition), after “authorisation” insert “under section 7 of the 2000 Act”.

- 13 In article 5 (sources under 18: risk assessments etc.), after “An authorisation” insert “under section 7 of the 2000 Act”.
- 14 In article 6 (sources under 18: duration of authorisations), after “an authorisation” insert “under section 7 of the 2000 Act”.
- 15 After article 6 insert—

“Authorisations under section 7A of the 2000 Act

7 Sources under 16: prohibition

- (1) No authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act may be granted authorising criminal conduct in the course of, or otherwise in connection with, the conduct of a source if—
- (a) the source is under the age of 16; and
 - (b) the relationship to which the relevant conduct would relate is between the source and—
 - (i) the source’s parent, or
 - (ii) any person who has parental responsibility for the source.
- (2) “The relevant conduct” means the conduct of the source which the authorised conduct would be in the course of or otherwise in connection with.

8 Sources under 18: additional requirements

- (1) An authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act may not be granted or renewed in any case where the source to whom the authorisation relates is under the age of 18 at the time of the grant or renewal unless the person granting or renewing the authorisation—
- (a) has considered the relevant risks;
 - (b) is satisfied that they have been properly explained to and understood by the source;
 - (c) has taken into account the need to safeguard and promote the best interests of the source as a primary consideration;
 - (d) has considered whether the relationship to which the relevant conduct would relate is between the source and—
 - (i) a relative or guardian of the source, or
 - (ii) a person who has for the time being assumed responsibility for the source’s welfare;
 - (e) where the relationship would so relate, has taken that fact into account as a particular consideration; and
 - (f) is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances which justify the authorisation.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(f), “exceptional circumstances which justify the authorisation” means circumstances where—
- (a) having considered the relevant risks, and
 - (b) having taken into account the matters mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) and, where applicable, in paragraph (1)(e),
- the person granting or renewing the authorisation is satisfied that taking the relevant risks is justified.

- (3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(a) and (2), “the relevant risks” are the risks to the source identified in an appropriate risk assessment.
- (4) “An appropriate risk assessment” means an assessment made, and in the case of a renewal updated, by a relevant person which is sufficient to demonstrate that—
 - (a) the nature and magnitude of any risk of physical injury to the source arising in the course of, or as result of, the conduct authorised by the authorisation have been identified and evaluated; and
 - (b) the nature and magnitude of any risk of psychological distress to the source arising in the course of, or as result of, the conduct authorised by the authorisation have been identified and evaluated.
- (5) In paragraph (1)(d) “the relevant conduct” has the same meaning as in article 7.

9 Sources under 18: arrangements regarding best interests of the source

Where the source to whom an authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act relates is under the age of 18, the arrangements referred to in section 7A(4)(c) of the 2000 Act must be such that there is at all times a relevant person who has responsibility for safeguarding and promoting the best interests of the source.

10 Sources under 18: arrangements for meetings

- (1) Where the source to whom an authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act relates is under the age of 18, the arrangements referred to in section 7A(4)(c) of the 2000 Act must be such that—
 - (a) there is, at all times when the source is under the age of 16, a relevant person who has responsibility for ensuring that an appropriate adult is present at all meetings in relation to the authorisation which take place between the source and a person representing a relevant investigating authority; and
 - (b) there is, at all times when the source is 16 or 17 years old, a relevant person who has responsibility for—
 - (i) deciding, in the case of each meeting in relation to the authorisation which takes place between the source and a person representing a relevant investigating authority, whether an appropriate adult should be present at the meeting,
 - (ii) considering (among other matters), in reaching that decision, the maturity of the source and their ability to give informed consent, and
 - (iii) maintaining a record of the reasons for the decision in the case of each such meeting where the decision is that an appropriate adult should not be present.
- (2) In this article, “appropriate adult” means—
 - (a) the parent or guardian of the source;

- (b) any other person who has for the time being assumed responsibility for the source's welfare; or
- (c) where no person falling within paragraph (a) or (b) is available, any responsible person aged 18 or over who is neither a member of, nor employed by, a relevant investigating authority.

11 Sources under 18: duration of authorisations

In relation to an authorisation under section 7A of the 2000 Act where the source to whom the authorisation relates is under the age of 18 at the time the authorisation is granted or renewed, section 19(3) of the 2000 Act is to have effect as if the period specified in paragraph (b) of that subsection were 1 month instead of 12 months."

- 16 The amendments made by this Part to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) (Scotland) Order 2002 (S.S.I. 2002/206) are to be treated as having been made under section 7A(4)(c) or (9) or 19(8) of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Scotland) Act 2000 as the case may be (and may be amended or revoked under those powers accordingly)."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment makes amendments to the Regulation of Investigatory Powers (Juveniles) (Scotland) Order 2002 (S.S.I. 2002/206) to add safeguards in relation to the grant or renewal of a criminal conduct authorisation under new section 7A of RIP(S)A in relation to a covert human intelligence source who is under the age of 18. The provision made could otherwise be made by order under new section 7A(4)(c) or (9) or 19(8) of RIP(S)A and the new clause therefore avoids the need for an initial order to be made under those powers.
