PART 1

PREMISES WHERE DRUGS USED UNLAWFULLY

1 Closure notice

- (1) This section applies to premises if a police officer not below the rank of superintendent (the authorising officer) has reasonable grounds for believing— 5
- (a) that at any time during the relevant period the premises have been used in connection with the unlawful use or supply of a Class A controlled drug, and
  - (b) that the use of the premises is associated with the occurrence of disorder or serious nuisance to members of the public. 10
- (2) The authorising officer may authorise the issue of a closure notice in respect of premises to which this section applies if he is satisfied—
- (a) that the local authority for the area in which the premises are situated has been consulted; 15
  - (b) that reasonable steps have been taken to establish the identity of any person who lives on the premises or who has control of or responsibility for or an interest in the premises.
- (3) An authorisation under subsection (2) may be given orally or in writing, but if it is given orally the authorising officer must confirm it in writing as soon as it is practicable. 20
- (4) A closure notice must—
- (a) give notice that an application will be made under section 2 for the closure of the premises;

- (b) state that access to the premises by any person other than a person who habitually resides in the premises or the owner of the premises is prohibited;
  - (c) specify the date and time when and the place at which the application will be heard; 5
  - (d) explain the effects of an order made in pursuance of section 2;
  - (e) state that failure to comply with the notice amounts to an offence;
  - (f) give information about relevant advice providers.
- (5) The closure notice must be served by a constable.
- (6) Service is effected by – 10
- (a) fixing a copy of the notice to at least one prominent place on the premises,
  - (b) fixing a copy of the notice to each normal means of access to the premises,
  - (c) fixing a copy of the notice to any outbuildings which appear to the constable to be used with or as part of the premises, 15
  - (d) giving a copy of the notice to at least one person who appears to the constable to have control of or responsibility for the premises, and
  - (e) giving a copy of the notice to the persons identified in pursuance of subsection (2)(b) and to any other person appearing to the constable to be a person of a description mentioned in that subsection. 20
- (7) The closure notice must also be served on any person who occupies any other part of the building or other structure in which the premises are situated if the constable reasonably believes at the time of serving the notice under subsection (6) that the person’s access to the other part of the building or structure will be impeded if a closure order is made under section 2. 25
- (8) It is immaterial whether any person has been convicted of an offence relating to the use or supply of a controlled drug.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by regulations specify premises or descriptions of premises to which this section does not apply. 30
- (10) The relevant period is the period of three months ending with the day on which the authorising officer considers whether to authorise the issue of a closure notice in respect of the premises.
- (11) Information about relevant advice providers is information about the names and means of contacting persons and organisations in the area that provide advice about housing and legal matters. 35

2 Closure order

- (1) If a closure notice has been issued under section 1 a constable must apply under this section to a magistrates’ court for the making of a closure order.
- (2) The application must be heard by the magistrates’ court not later than 48 hours after the notice was served in pursuance of section 1(6)(a). 40
- (3) The magistrates’ court may make a closure order if and only if it is satisfied that each of the following paragraphs applies –

- (a) the premises in respect of which the closure notice was issued have been used in connection with the unlawful use or supply of a Class A controlled drug;
  - (b) the use of the premises is associated with the occurrence of disorder or serious nuisance to members of the public; 5
  - (c) the making of the order is necessary to prevent the occurrence of such disorder or serious nuisance for the period specified in the order.
- (4) A closure order is an order that the premises in respect of which the order is made are closed to all persons for such period (not exceeding three months) as the court decides. 10
- (5) But the order may include such provision as the court thinks appropriate relating to access to any part of the building or structure of which the premises form part.
- (6) The magistrates' court may adjourn the hearing on the application for a period of not more than 14 days to enable— 15
  - (a) the occupier of the premises,
  - (b) the person who has control of or responsibility for the premises, or
  - (c) any other person with an interest in the premises,to show why a closure order should not be made.
- (7) If the magistrates' court adjourns the hearing under subsection (6) it may order that the closure notice continues in effect until the end of the period of the adjournment. 20
- (8) A closure order may be made in respect of all or any part of the premises in respect of which the closure notice was issued.
- (9) It is immaterial whether any person has been convicted of an offence relating to the use or supply of a controlled drug. 25

3 Closure order: enforcement

- (1) This section applies if a magistrates' court makes an order under section 2.
- (2) A constable or an authorised person may — 30
  - (a) enter the premises in respect of which the order is made;
  - (b) do anything reasonably necessary to secure the premises against entry by any person.
- (3) A person acting under subsection (2) may use reasonable force.
- (4) But a constable or authorised person seeking to enter the premises for the purposes of subsection (2) must, if required to do so by or on behalf of the owner, occupier or other person in charge of the premises, produce evidence of his identity and authority before entering the premises. 35
- (5) A constable or authorised person may also enter the premises at any time while the order has effect for the purpose of carrying out essential maintenance or repairs to the premises. 40
- (6) In this section and in section 4 an authorised person is a person authorised by the chief officer of police for the area in which the premises are situated.

- 4 Closure of premises: offences
- (1) A person commits an offence if he remains on or enters premises in contravention of a closure notice.
- (2) A person commits an offence if –
- (a) he obstructs a constable or an authorised person acting under section 1(6) or 3(2),
  - (b) he remains on premises in respect of which a closure order has been made, or
  - (c) he enters the premises.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction –
- (a) to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or
  - (b) to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or to both such imprisonment and fine.
- (4) But a person does not commit an offence under subsection (1) or subsection (2)(b) or (c) if he has a reasonable excuse for entering or being on the premises (as the case may be).
- (5) A constable in uniform may arrest a person he reasonably suspects of committing or having committed an offence under this section.
- 5 Extension and discharge of closure order
- (1) At any time before the end of the period for which a closure order is made or extended a constable may make a complaint to an appropriate justice of the peace for an extension or further extension of the period for which it has effect.
- (2) But a complaint must not be made unless it is authorised by a police officer not below the rank of superintendent –
- (a) who has reasonable grounds for believing that it is necessary to extend the period for which the closure order has effect for the purpose of preventing the occurrence of disorder or serious nuisance to members of the public, and
  - (b) who is satisfied that the local authority has been consulted about the intention to make the complaint.
- (3) If a complaint is made to a justice of the peace under subsection (1) the justice may issue a summons directed to –
- (a) the persons on whom the closure notice relating to the closed premises was served under subsection (6)(d) or (e) or (7) of section 1;
  - (b) any other person who appears to the justice to have an interest in the closed premises but on whom the closure notice was not served,
- requiring such person to appear before the magistrates' court to answer to the complaint.
- (4) If the court is satisfied that the order is necessary to prevent the occurrence of disorder or serious nuisance for a further period it may extend the period for which the order has effect by a period not exceeding three months.
- (5) But a closure order must not have effect for more than six months.

- (6) Any of the following persons may make a complaint to an appropriate justice of the peace for an order that a closure order is discharged –
- (a) a constable;
  - (b) the local authority;
  - (c) a person on whom the closure notice relating to the closed premises was served under subsection (6)(d) or (e) or (7) of section 1; 5
  - (d) a person who has an interest in the closed premises but on whom the closure notice was not served.
- (7) If a complaint is made under subsection (6) by a person other than a constable the justice may issue a summons directed to such constable as he thinks appropriate requiring the constable to appear before the magistrates’ court to answer to the complaint. 10
- (8) The court must not make an order discharging a closure order unless it is satisfied that the closure order is no longer necessary to prevent the occurrence of disorder or serious nuisance to members of the public. 15
- (9) If a summons is issued in accordance with subsection (3) or (7), a notice stating the date, time and place at which the complaint will be heard must be served on –
- (a) the persons to whom the summons is directed if it is issued under subsection (2); 20
  - (b) the persons mentioned in subsection (6)(c) and (d) (except the complainant) if the summons is issued under subsection (7);
  - (c) such constable as the justice thinks appropriate (unless he is the complainant);
  - (d) the local authority (unless they are the complainant). 25
- (10) An appropriate justice of the peace is a justice of the peace acting for the petty sessions area in which the premises in respect of which a closure order is made are situated.

6 Appeals

- (1) This section applies to – 30
- (a) an order under section 2 or 5;
  - (b) a decision by a court not to make an order under either of those sections.
- (2) An appeal against an order or decision to which this section applies must be brought to the Crown Court before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the order or decision is made. 35
- (3) An appeal against an order under section 2 or 5(3) may be brought by –
- (a) a person on whom the closure notice relating to the closed premises was served under section 1(6)(d) or (e);
  - (b) a person who has an interest in the closed premises but on whom the closure notice was not served. 40
- (4) An appeal against the decision of a court not to make such an order may be brought by –
- (a) a constable;
  - (b) the local authority. 45

- (5) On an appeal under this section the Crown Court may make such order as it thinks appropriate.

7 Access to other premises

- (1) This section applies to any person who occupies or owns any part of a building or structure – 5
- (a) in which closed premises are situated, and
  - (b) in respect of which the closure order does not have effect.
- (2) A person to whom this section applies may at any time while a closure order has effect apply to – 10
- (a) the magistrates' court in respect of an order made under section 2 or 5;
  - (b) the Crown Court in respect of an order made under section 6.
- (3) If an application is made under this section notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to consider the application must be given to every person mentioned in section 5(6).
- (4) On an application under this section the court may make such order as it thinks appropriate in relation to access to any part of a building or structure in which closed premises are situated. 15
- (5) It is immaterial whether any provision has been made as mentioned in section 2(5).

8 Reimbursement of costs 20

- (1) A police authority or a local authority which incurs expenditure for the purpose of clearing, securing or maintaining the premises in respect of which a closure order has effect may apply to the court which made the order for an order under this section.
- (2) On an application under this section the court may make such order as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances for the reimbursement (in full or in part) by the owner of the premises of the expenditure mentioned in subsection (1). 25
- (3) But an application for an order under this section must not be entertained unless it is made not later than the end of the period of three months starting with the day the closure order ceases to have effect. 30
- (4) An application under this section must be served on – 35
- (a) the police authority for the area in which the premises are situated if the application is made by the local authority;
  - (b) the local authority if the application is made by a police authority;
  - (c) the owner of the premises.

9 Exemption from liability for certain damages

- (1) A constable is not liable for relevant damages in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him in the performance or purported performance of his functions under this Part.
- (2) A chief officer of police is not liable for relevant damages in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by a constable under his direction or control in the 40 performance or purported performance of the constable's functions under this Part.

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply –
  - (a) if the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith;
  - (b) so as to prevent an award of damages made in respect of an act or omission on the ground that the act or omission was unlawful by virtue of section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998 (c. 42). 5
- (4) This section does not affect any other exemption from liability for damages (whether at common law or otherwise).
- (5) Relevant damages are damages in proceedings for judicial review or for the tort of negligence or misfeasance in public duty. 10

10 Compensation

- (1) This section applies to any person who incurs financial loss in consequence of –
  - (a) the issue of a closure notice, or 15
  - (b) a closure order having effect.
- (2) A person to whom this section applies may apply to –
  - (a) the magistrates' court which considered the application for a closure order;
  - (b) the Crown Court if the closure order was made or extended by an order made by that Court on an appeal under section 6. 20
- (3) An application under this section must not be entertained unless it is made not later than the end of the period of three months starting with whichever is the later of –
  - (a) the day the court decides not to make a closure order; 25
  - (b) the day the Crown Court dismisses an appeal against a decision not to make a closure order;
  - (c) the day a closure order ceases to have effect.
- (4) On an application under this section the court may order the payment of compensation out of central funds if it is satisfied – 30
  - (a) that the person had no connection with the use of the premises as mentioned in section 1(1),
  - (b) if the person is the owner or occupier of the premises, that he took reasonable steps to prevent the use,
  - (c) that the person has incurred financial loss as mentioned in subsection (1), and 35
  - (d) having regard to all the circumstances it is appropriate to order payment of compensation in respect of that loss.
- (5) Central funds has the same meaning as in enactments providing for the payment of costs.

- (10) The owner of premises is a person, other than a mortgagee not in possession, who is for the time being entitled to dispose of the fee simple of the premises, whether in possession or in reversion.
- (11) This section applies for the purposes of this Part. 30

PART 2

HOUSING

12 Anti-social behaviour: landlords' policies and procedures

- (1) In Part 8 of the Housing Act 1996 (c. 52) before section 219 (power of Secretary of State to give directions as to certain charges by social landlords) there is inserted the following section –
- “218A Anti-social behaviour: landlords' policies and procedures
- (1) This section applies to the following landlords –
- (a) a local housing authority;
  - (b) a housing action trust; 40
  - (c) a registered social landlord.

- (2) The landlord must prepare –
- (a) a policy in relation to anti-social behaviour;
  - (b) procedures for dealing with occurrences of anti-social behaviour.
- (3) The landlord must not later than 6 months after the commencement of section 12 of the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 publish a statement of the policy and procedures prepared under subsection (2). 5
- (4) The landlord must from time to time keep the policy and procedures under review and, when it thinks appropriate, publish a revised statement. 10
- (5) A copy of a statement published under subsection (3) or (4) –
- (a) must be available for inspection at all reasonable hours at the landlord’s principal office;
  - (b) must be provided on payment of a reasonable fee to any person who requests it. 15
- (6) The landlord must also –
- (a) prepare a summary of its current policy and procedures;
  - (b) provide without charge a copy of the summary to any person who requests it.
- (7) In preparing and reviewing the policy and procedures the landlord must have regard to guidance issued –
- (a) by the Secretary of State in the case of a local housing authority or a housing action trust;
  - (b) by the Relevant Authority under section 36 in the case of a registered social landlord. 20
- (8) Anti-social behaviour is any conduct to which section 153A or 153B applies. 25
- (9) Relevant Authority has the same meaning as in Part 1.”
- (2) In section 36(2) of that Act (functions of the Housing Corporation relating to guidance and corresponding functions relating to Wales) after paragraph (h) there is inserted the following paragraph –
- “(i) the policy and procedures a landlord is required under section 218A to prepare and from time to time revise in connection with anti-social behaviour.”
- 13 Injunctions against anti-social behaviour on application of certain social landlords 35
- (1) The Housing Act 1996 (c. 52) is amended as follows.
- (2) Sections 152 (power to grant injunctions against anti-social behaviour) and 153 (power of arrest for breach of certain injunctions against anti-social behaviour) are omitted. 40
- (3) Before section 154 (power of arrest in ex parte applications) there are inserted

the following sections –

“153A Anti-social behaviour injunction

- (1) This section applies to conduct –
  - (a) which is capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to any person, and 5
  - (b) which directly or indirectly relates to or affects the housing management functions of a relevant landlord.
- (2) The court on the application of a relevant landlord may grant an injunction (an anti-social behaviour injunction) if each of the following two conditions is satisfied. 10
- (3) The first condition is that the person against whom the injunction is sought is engaging, has engaged or threatens to engage in conduct to which this section applies.
- (4) The second condition is that the conduct is capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to any of the following – 15
  - (a) a person residing in housing accommodation owned or managed by the relevant landlord;
  - (b) a person visiting the housing accommodation or otherwise engaged in lawful activity in or in the locality of the housing accommodation; 20
  - (c) a person employed by the relevant landlord wholly or partly in connection with his housing management functions.
- (5) It is immaterial where conduct to which this section applies occurs.
- (6) An anti-social behaviour injunction prohibits the person in respect of whom it is granted from engaging in conduct to which this section applies. 25

153B Injunction against immoral and unlawful use of premises

- (1) This section applies to conduct which consists of or involves using or threatening to use housing accommodation owned or managed by a relevant landlord for an immoral or unlawful purpose. 30
- (2) The court on the application of the relevant landlord may grant an injunction prohibiting the person in respect of whom the injunction is granted from engaging in conduct to which this section applies.

153C Injunctions: exclusion order and power of arrest

- (1) This section applies if the court grants an injunction under subsection (2) of section 153A or 153B and it thinks that either of the following paragraphs applies – 35
  - (a) the conduct consists of or includes the use or threatened use of violence;
  - (b) there is a significant risk of harm to a person mentioned in section 153A(4). 40
- (2) The court may include in the injunction a provision prohibiting the person in respect of whom it is granted from entering or being in –
  - (a) any premises specified in the injunction;

- (b) any area specified in the injunction.
  - (3) The court may attach a power of arrest to any provision of the injunction.
- 153D Injunctions: supplementary
- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 153A to 153C. 5
  - (2) An injunction may –
    - (a) be made for a specified period or until varied or discharged;
    - (b) have the effect of excluding a person from his normal place of residence.
  - (3) An injunction may be varied or discharged by the court on an application by – 10
    - (a) the person in respect of whom it is made;
    - (b) the relevant landlord.
  - (4) If the court thinks it just and convenient it may grant or vary an injunction without the respondent having been given such notice as is otherwise required by rules of court. 15
  - (5) If the court acts under subsection (4) it must give the person against whom the injunction is made an opportunity to make representations in relation to the injunction as soon as it is practicable for him to do so.
  - (6) The court is the High Court or a county court. 20
  - (7) Each of the following is a relevant landlord –
    - (a) a housing action trust;
    - (b) a local authority (within the meaning of the Housing Act 1985);
    - (c) a registered social landlord.
  - (8) A charitable housing trust which is not a registered social landlord is also a relevant landlord if conduct to which section 153A or 153B applies amounts to a breach of a tenancy agreement relating to housing accommodation owned or managed by it. 25
  - (9) Housing accommodation includes – 30
    - (a) flats, lodging-houses and hostels;
    - (b) any yard, garden, outhouses and appurtenances belonging to the accommodation or usually enjoyed with it.
  - (10) A landlord owns housing accommodation if either of the following paragraphs applies to him – 35
    - (a) he is a person (other than a mortgagee not in possession) who is for the time being entitled to dispose of the fee simple in the premises, whether in possession or in reversion;
    - (b) he is a person who holds or is entitled to the rents and profits of the premises under a lease of which the unexpired term exceeds three years. 40
  - (11) The housing management functions of a relevant landlord include –
    - (a) functions conferred by or under any enactment;
    - (b) the powers and duties of the landlord as the holder of an estate or interest in housing accommodation.

- (12) Harm includes serious ill-treatment or abuse (whether physical or not)."
- (4) In section 154 –
- (a) in subsection (1) for “section 152(6) or section 153” there is substituted “section 153C(3)”; 5
  - (b) in subsection (1)(b) for “152(1)(a) or section 153(5)(a)” there is substituted “section 153A(4)”.
- (5) In section 155 –
- (a) in subsection (1) for “section 152(6) or section 153” there is substituted “section 153C(3)”; 10
  - (b) in subsection (3) for “section 152(6) or section 153” there is substituted “section 153C(3)”.
- (6) In section 157 –
- (a) in subsection (1) for “section 152(6) or section 153” there is substituted “section 153C(3)”; 15
  - (b) in subsection (3) for “section 152(6) or section 153” there is substituted “section 153C(3)”.
- (7) In section 158 –
- (a) in subsection (1) the entries relating to “child”, “harm”, “health” and “ill-treatment” are omitted; 20
  - (b) subsection (2) is omitted.

14 Security of tenure: anti-social behaviour

- (1) In the Housing Act 1985 (c. 68) section 82 (which makes provision in relation to security of tenure) is amended as follows –
- (a) in subsection (1) for the words from “of the court” to the end of the subsection there is substituted “mentioned in subsection (1A)”; 25
  - (b) after subsection (1) there is inserted the following subsection –
    - “(1A) These are the orders –
      - (a) an order of the court for the possession of the dwelling-house; 30
      - (b) an order under subsection (3);
      - (c) a demotion order under section 82A.”
- (2) After section 82 of that Act there is inserted the following section –
- “82A Demotion because of anti-social behaviour
- (1) This section applies to a secure tenancy if the landlord is – 35
    - (a) a local housing authority;
    - (b) a housing action trust;
    - (c) a registered social landlord.
  - (2) The landlord may apply to a county court for a demotion order.
  - (3) A demotion order has the following effect – 40
    - (a) the secure tenancy is terminated with effect from the date specified in the order;

- (b) if the tenant remains in occupation of the dwelling-house after that date a demoted tenancy is created with effect from that date;
- (c) it is a term of the demoted tenancy that any arrears of rent payable at the termination of the secure tenancy become payable under the demoted tenancy. 5
- (4) The court must not make a demotion order unless it is satisfied –
- (a) that the tenant or a person residing in or visiting the dwelling-house has engaged or has threatened to engage in conduct to which section 153A or 153B of the Housing Act 1996 (anti-social behaviour or use of premises for immoral or unlawful purposes) applies, and 10
- (b) that it is reasonable to make the order.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a demoted tenancy is –
- (a) a tenancy to which section 143A of the Housing Act 1996 applies if the landlord of the secure tenancy is a local housing authority or a housing action trust; 15
- (b) a tenancy to which section 20B of the Housing Act 1988 applies if the landlord of the secure tenancy is a registered social landlord.” 20
- (3) In the Housing Act 1988 (c. 50) after section 6 (which makes provision about fixing the terms of a statutory periodic tenancy) there is inserted the following section –
- “6A Demotion because of anti-social behaviour
- (1) This section applies to an assured tenancy if the landlord is a registered social landlord. 25
- (2) The landlord may apply to a county court for a demotion order.
- (3) A demotion order has the following effect –
- (a) the assured tenancy is terminated with effect from the date specified in the order; 30
- (b) if the tenant remains in occupation of the dwelling-house after that date a demoted tenancy is created with effect from that date;
- (c) it is a term of the demoted tenancy that any arrears of rent payable at the termination of the assured tenancy become payable under the demoted tenancy. 35
- (4) The court must not make a demotion order unless it is satisfied –
- (a) that the tenant or a person residing in or visiting the dwelling-house has engaged or has threatened to engage in conduct to which section 153A or 153B of the Housing Act 1996 (anti-social behaviour or use of premises for immoral or unlawful purposes) applies, and 40
- (b) that it is reasonable to make the order.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a demoted tenancy is a tenancy to which section 20B of the Housing Act 1988 applies.” 45
- (4) Schedule 1 amends the Housing Act 1996 (c. 52) and the Housing Act 1985 (c. 68).

15 Demoted assured shorthold tenancies

In the Housing Act 1988 (c. 50) after section 20A (duty of landlord to provide statement of terms for certain tenancies) there is inserted the following section –

- “20B Demoted assured shorthold tenancies 5
- (1) An assured tenancy is an assured shorthold tenancy to which this section applies (a demoted assured shorthold tenancy) if –
- (a) the tenancy is created by virtue of an order of the court under section 82A of the Housing Act 1985 or section 6A of this Act (a demotion order), and 10
- (b) the landlord is a registered social landlord.
- (2) At the end of the period of one year starting with the day when the demotion order takes effect a demoted assured shorthold tenancy ceases to be an assured shorthold tenancy unless subsection (3) applies.
- (3) This subsection applies if before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (2) the landlord gives notice of proceedings for possession of the dwelling house. 15
- (4) If subsection (3) applies the tenancy continues to be a demoted assured shorthold tenancy until the end of the period mentioned in subsection (2) or (if later) until one of the following occurs – 20
- (a) the notice of proceedings for possession is withdrawn;
- (b) the proceedings are determined in favour of the tenant;
- (c) the period of six months beginning with the date on which the notice is given ends and no proceedings for possession have been brought. 25
- (5) Registered social landlord has the same meaning as in Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996.”

16 Proceedings for possession: anti-social behaviour

- (1) In the Housing Act 1985 (c. 68) after section 85 (which extends the court’s discretion in certain proceedings for possession) there is inserted the following section – 30
- “85A Proceedings for possession: anti-social behaviour
- (1) This section applies if the court is considering under section 84(2)(a) whether it is reasonable to make an order for possession on ground 2 set out in Part 1 of Schedule 2 (conduct of tenant or other person). 35
- (2) The court must consider, in particular –
- (a) the effect that the nuisance or annoyance has had on persons other than the person against whom the order is sought;
- (b) any continuing effect the nuisance or annoyance is likely to have on such persons; 40
- (c) the effect that the nuisance or annoyance would be likely to have on such persons if the conduct is repeated.”
- (2) In the Housing Act 1988 (c. 50) after section 9 (which extends the Court’s discretion in certain proceedings for possession) there is inserted the following section –

“9A Proceedings for possession: anti-social behaviour

- (1) This section applies if the court is considering under section 7(4) whether it is reasonable to make an order for possession on ground 14 set out in Part 2 of Schedule 2 (conduct of tenant or other person). 5
- (2) The court must consider, in particular –
  - (a) the effect that the nuisance or annoyance has had on persons other than the person against whom the order is sought;
  - (b) any continuing effect the nuisance or annoyance is likely to have on such persons; 10
  - (c) the effect that the nuisance or annoyance would be likely to have on such persons if the conduct is repeated.”

17 Devolution: Wales

- (1) In Schedule 1 to the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672) references to the following Acts are to be treated as references to those Acts as amended by virtue of this Part –
  - (a) the Housing Act 1985 (c. 68);
  - (b) the Housing Act 1988;
  - (c) the Housing Act 1996 (c. 52). 20
- (2) This section does not affect the power to make further Orders varying or omitting those references.

PART 3

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Truancy and exclusion from school 25

18 Parenting contracts in cases of exclusion from school or truancy

- (1) This section applies where –
  - (a) a pupil has been excluded on disciplinary grounds from a relevant school for a fixed period or permanently, and
  - (b) such conditions as may be prescribed in regulations made by the appropriate person are satisfied. 30
- (2) This section also applies where a child of compulsory school age has failed to attend regularly at a relevant school at which he is a registered pupil.
- (3) A local education authority or the governing body of a relevant school may enter into a parenting contract with a parent of the pupil or child. 35
- (4) A parenting contract is a document which contains –
  - (a) a statement by the parent that he agrees to comply with such requirements as may be specified in the document for such period as may be so specified, and

- (b) a statement by the local education authority or governing body that it agrees to provide support to the parent for the purpose of complying with those requirements.
- (5) The requirements mentioned in subsection (4) may include (in particular) a requirement to attend counselling or guidance sessions. 5
- (6) The purpose of the requirements mentioned in subsection (4) –
- (a) in a case falling within subsection (1), is to improve the behaviour of the pupil,
- (b) in a case falling within subsection (2), is to ensure that the child attends regularly at the relevant school at which he is a registered pupil. 10
- (7) A parenting contract must be signed by the parent and signed on behalf of the local education authority or governing body.
- (8) A parenting contract does not create any obligations in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort.
- (9) Local education authorities and governing bodies of relevant schools must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting contracts, have regard to any guidance which is issued by the appropriate person from time to time for that purpose. 15
- 19 Parenting orders in cases of exclusion from school
- (1) This section applies where – 20
- (a) a pupil has been excluded on disciplinary grounds from a relevant school for a fixed period or permanently, and
- (b) such conditions as may be prescribed in regulations made by the appropriate person are satisfied.
- (2) A local education authority may apply to a magistrates’ court for a parenting order in respect of a parent of the pupil. 25
- (3) If such an application is made, the court may make a parenting order in respect of a parent of the pupil if it is satisfied that making the order would be desirable in the interests of improving the behaviour of the pupil.
- (4) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent – 30
- (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding twelve months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
- (b) subject to subsection (5), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months and not more than once in any week, such counselling or guidance sessions as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer. 35
- (5) A parenting order under this section may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in subsection (4)(b) in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion. 40
- 20 Parenting orders: supplemental
- (1) In deciding whether to make a parenting order under section 19, a court must take into account (amongst other things) –

- (a) any refusal by the parent to enter into a parenting contract under section 18 in respect of the pupil in a case falling within subsection (1) of that section, or
    - (b) if the parent has entered into such a parenting contract, any failure by the parent to comply with the requirements specified in the contract. 5
  - (2) Before making a parenting order under section 19 in the case of a pupil under the age of 16, a court must obtain and consider information about the pupil’s family circumstances and the likely effect of the order on those circumstances.
  - (3) Subsections (3) to (7) of section 9 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) (supplemental provisions about parenting orders) are to apply in relation to a parenting order under section 19 as they apply in relation to a parenting order under section 8 of that Act. 10
  - (4) The appropriate person may by regulations make such provision in relation to parenting orders under section 19 as the appropriate person thinks necessary or expedient. 15
  - (5) Local education authorities, head teachers and responsible officers must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting orders, have regard to any guidance which is issued by the appropriate person from time to time for that purpose.
- 21 Parenting orders: appeals 20
- (1) An appeal lies to the Crown Court against the making of a parenting order under section 19.
  - (2) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 10 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (appeals against parenting orders) are to apply in relation to an appeal under this section as they apply in relation to an appeal under subsection (1)(b) of that section. 25
- 22 Penalty notices for parents in cases of truancy
- (1) After section 444 of the Education Act 1996 (c. 56) (failure to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil) insert—
“444A Penalty notice in respect of failure to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil 30
    - (1) Where an authorised officer has reason to believe—
      - (a) that a person has committed an offence under section 444(1), and
      - (b) that the school to which the offence relates is a relevant school in England, 35he may give the person a penalty notice in respect of the offence.
    - (2) A penalty notice is a notice offering a person the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for the offence under section 444(1) to which the notice relates by payment of a penalty in accordance with the notice. 40
    - (3) Where a person is given a penalty notice, proceedings for the offence to which the notice relates (or an offence under section 444(1A) arising out of the same circumstances) may not be instituted before the end of such period as may be prescribed.

- (4) Where a person is given a penalty notice, he cannot be convicted of the offence to which the notice relates (or an offence under section 444(1A) arising out of the same circumstances) if he pays a penalty in accordance with the notice. 5
- (5) Penalties under this section shall be payable to local education authorities in England.
- (6) Sums received by a local education authority under this section may be used by the authority for the purposes of any of its functions which may be specified in regulations. 10

444B Penalty notices: supplemental

- (1) Regulations may make –
- (a) provision as to the form and content of penalty notices,
  - (b) provision as to the monetary amount of any penalty and the time by which it is to be paid, 15
  - (c) provision for determining the local education authority to which a penalty is payable,
  - (d) provision as to the methods by which penalties may be paid,
  - (e) provision as to the records which are to be kept in relation to penalty notices, 20
  - (f) provision as to the persons who may be authorised by a local education authority or a head teacher to give penalty notices,
  - (g) provision limiting the circumstances in which authorised officers of a prescribed description may give penalty notices, 25
  - (h) provision for or in connection with the withdrawal, in prescribed circumstances, of a penalty notice, including –
    - (i) repayment of any amount paid by way of penalty under a penalty notice which is withdrawn, and
    - (ii) prohibition of the institution or continuation of proceedings for the offence to which the withdrawn notice relates (and any offence under section 444(1A) arising out of the same circumstances), 30
  - (i) provision for a certificate –
    - (i) purporting to be signed by or on behalf of a prescribed person, and 35
    - (ii) stating that payment of any amount paid by way of penalty was or, as the case may be was not, received on or before a date specified in the certificate, 40
  - (j) provision as to the action to be taken if a penalty is not paid in accordance with a penalty notice,
  - (k) provision for or in connection with the preparation of codes of conduct in relation to the giving of penalty notices,
  - (l) such other provision in relation to penalties or penalty notices as the Secretary of State thinks necessary or expedient. 45
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) or section 569(4), regulations under subsection (1)(b) may make provision for penalties

- of different amounts to be payable in different cases or circumstances (including provision for the penalty payable under a penalty notice to differ according to the time by which it is paid).
- (3) Local education authorities, head teachers and authorised officers shall, in carrying out their functions in relation to penalty notices, have regard to any guidance which is published by the Secretary of State from time to time in relation to penalty notices. 5
- (4) In this section and section 444A –
- “authorised officer” means –
- (a) a constable, 10
  - (b) an officer of a local education authority in England who is authorised by the authority to give penalty notices, or
  - (c) an authorised staff member,
- “authorised staff member” means –

25
- (9) The National Assembly for Wales may by order amend sections 444A and 444B of the Education Act 1996 (c. 56) by removing the words “in England” in each place where they occur.
- (10) Where an order is made under subsection (9), any functions of the Secretary of State under sections 444A and 444B of the Education Act 1996 which by virtue of the order become exercisable in relation to Wales are to be treated as if they had been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by an Order in Council under section 22 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c. 38). 30

23 Interpretation

- (1) In this section and sections 18 to 20 – 35
“the appropriate person” means –
(a) in relation to England, the Secretary of State, and
(b) in relation to Wales, the National Assembly for Wales,
“child of compulsory school age” has the same meaning as in the 1996 Act,
and “child” is to be construed accordingly, 40
“head teacher” includes acting head teacher, teacher in charge and acting teacher in charge,
“local education authority” has the same meaning as in the 1996 Act, “parent”, in relation to a pupil or child, is to be construed in accordance with section 576 of the 1996 Act, but does not include a person who is not an individual, 45

- “pupil” is to be construed in accordance with section 3(1) and (1A) of the 1996 Act,
“registered pupil” has the meaning given by section 434(5) of the 1996 Act,
“relevant school” means –
- (a) a qualifying school as defined in section 1(3) of the Education Act 2002 (c. 32), or 5
  - (b) a pupil referral unit as defined in section 19(2) of the 1996 Act,
- “responsible officer”, in relation to a parenting order, means one of the following who is specified in the order, namely –
- (a) an officer of a local education authority, and 10
  - (b) a head teacher or a person nominated by a head teacher, but a person falling within paragraph (b) may not be specified in the order without his consent,
- “the 1996 Act” means the Education Act 1996 (c. 56),
“week” means a period of seven days beginning with a Sunday. 15
- (2) In subsection (5) of section 8 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) (parenting orders) after “such an order” insert “or a parenting order under any other enactment”.

Criminal conduct and anti-social behaviour

- 24 Parenting contracts in respect of criminal conduct and anti-social behaviour 20
- (1) This section applies where a child or young person has been referred to a youth offending team.
  - (2) The youth offending team may enter into a parenting contract with a parent of the child or young person if a member of that team has reason to believe that the child or young person has engaged, or is likely to engage, in criminal conduct or anti-social behaviour. 25
  - (3) A parenting contract is a document which contains –
    - (a) a statement by the parent that he agrees to comply with such requirements as may be specified in the document for such period as may be so specified, and 30
    - (b) a statement by the youth offending team that it agrees to provide support to the parent for the purpose of complying with those requirements.
  - (4) The requirements mentioned in subsection (3)(a) may include (in particular) a requirement to attend counselling or guidance sessions. 35
  - (5) The purpose of the requirements mentioned in subsection (3)(a) is to prevent the child or young person from engaging in criminal conduct or anti-social behaviour or further criminal conduct or further anti-social behaviour.
  - (6) A parenting contract must be signed by the parent and signed on behalf of the youth offending team. 40
  - (7) A parenting contract does not create any obligations in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort.

- (8) Youth offending teams must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting contracts, have regard to any guidance which is issued by the Secretary of State from time to time for that purpose.

25 Parenting orders in respect of criminal conduct and anti-social behaviour

- (1) This section applies where a child or young person has been referred to a youth offending team. 5
- (2) A member of the youth offending team may apply to a magistrates' court for a parenting order in respect of a parent of the child or young person.
- (3) If such an application is made, the court may make a parenting order in respect of a parent of the child or young person if it is satisfied – 10
- (a) that the child or young person has engaged in criminal conduct or anti-social behaviour, and
- (b) that making the order would be desirable in the interests of preventing the child or young person from engaging in further criminal conduct or further anti-social behaviour. 15
- (4) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent –
- (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding twelve months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
- (b) subject to subsection (5), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding three months and not more than once in any week, such counselling or guidance sessions as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer. 20
- (5) A parenting order under this section may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in subsection (4)(b) in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion. 25

26 Parenting orders: supplemental

- (1) In deciding whether to make a parenting order under section 25, a court must take into account (amongst other things) – 30
- (a) any refusal by the parent to enter into a parenting contract under section 24 in respect of the child or young person, or
- (b) if the parent has entered into such a parenting contract, any failure by the parent to comply with the requirements specified in the contract.
- (2) Before making a parenting order under section 25 in the case of a child or a young person under the age of 16, a court must obtain and consider information about the child or young person's family circumstances and the likely effect of the order on those circumstances. 35
- (3) Subsections (3) to (7) of section 9 of the 1998 Act (supplemental provisions about parenting orders) are to apply in relation to a parenting order under section 25 as they apply in relation to a parenting order under section 8 of that Act. 40
- (4) Members of youth offending teams and responsible officers must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting orders, have regard to any guidance which is issued by the Secretary of State from time to time for that purpose.

27 Parenting orders: appeals

- (1) An appeal lies to the Crown Court against the making of a parenting order under section 25.
- (2) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 10 of the 1998 Act (appeals against parenting orders) are to apply in relation to an appeal under this section as they apply in relation to an appeal under subsection (1)(b) of that section. 5

28 Interpretation

In this section and section 24 to 26 –

“anti-social behaviour” means behaviour by a person which causes or is likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to one or more other persons not of the same household as the person, 10

“child” has the same meaning as in the 1998 Act,

“criminal conduct” means conduct which –

- (a) constitutes a criminal offence, or
- (b) in the case of conduct by a person under the age of 10, would constitute a criminal offence if that person were not under that age, 15

“parent” includes guardian,

“responsible officer”, in relation to a parenting order, means a member of a youth offending team who is specified in the order, 20

“the 1998 Act” means the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37),

“week” means a period of seven days beginning with a Sunday,

“young person” has the same meaning as in the 1998 Act,

“youth offending team” means a team established under section 39 of the 1998 Act. 25

PART 4

DISPERSAL OF GROUPS ETC.

29 Dispersal of groups and removal of persons under 16 to their place of residence

- (1) This section applies where a relevant officer has reasonable grounds for believing – 30
  - (a) that any members of the public have been intimidated, harassed, alarmed or distressed as a result of the presence or behaviour of groups of two or more persons in public places in any locality in his police area (the “relevant locality”), and 35
  - (b) that anti-social behaviour is a significant and persistent problem in the relevant locality.
- (2) The relevant officer may give an authorisation that the powers conferred on a constable in uniform by subsections (3) to (6) are to be exercisable for a period specified in the authorisation which does not exceed 6 months. 40
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a constable in uniform has reasonable grounds for believing that the presence or behaviour of a group of two or more persons in any public place in the relevant locality has resulted, or is likely to result, in any members of the public being intimidated, harassed, alarmed or distressed.

- (4) The constable may give one or more of the following directions, namely –
- (a) a direction requiring the persons in the group to disperse (either immediately or by such time as he may specify and in such way as he may specify),
  - (b) a direction requiring any of those persons whose place of residence is not within the relevant locality to leave the relevant locality (either immediately or by such time as he may specify and in such way as he may specify), and 5
  - (c) a direction prohibiting any of those persons whose place of residence is not within the relevant locality from returning to the relevant locality for such period (not exceeding 24 hours) from the giving of the direction as he may specify; 10
- but this subsection is subject to subsection (5).
- (5) A direction under subsection (4) may not be given in respect of a group of persons – 15
- (a) who are engaged in conduct which is lawful under section 220 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 (c. 52), or
  - (b) who are taking part in a public procession of the kind mentioned in section 11(1) of the Public Order Act 1986 (c. 64) in respect of which – 20
    - (i) written notice has been given in accordance with section 11 of that Act, or
    - (ii) such notice is not required to be given as provided by subsections (1) and (2) of that section.
- (6) If, between the hours of 9pm and 6am, a constable in uniform finds a person in any public place in the relevant locality who he has reasonable grounds for believing – 25
- (a) is under the age of 16, and
  - (b) is not under the effective control of a parent or a responsible person aged 18 or over,
- he may remove the person to the person’s place of residence unless he has reasonable grounds for believing that the person would, if removed to that place, be likely to suffer significant harm. 30
- (7) In this section any reference to the presence or behaviour of a group of persons is to be read as including a reference to the presence or behaviour of any one or more of the persons in the group. 35

30 Authorisations: supplemental

- (1) An authorisation –
- (a) must be in writing,
  - (b) must be signed by the relevant officer giving it, and
  - (c) must specify – 40
    - (i) the relevant locality,
    - (ii) the grounds on which the authorisation is given, and
    - (iii) the period during which the powers conferred by section 29(3) to (6) are exercisable.
- (2) Before the giving of an authorisation, consultation must take place with any local authority whose area includes the whole or part of the relevant locality. 45

- (3) Publicity must be given to an authorisation by either or both of the following methods—
  - (a) publishing an authorisation notice in a newspaper circulating in the relevant locality,
  - (b) posting an authorisation notice in some conspicuous place or places within the relevant locality. 5
- (4) An “authorisation notice” is a notice which—
  - (a) states the authorisation has been given,
  - (b) specifies the relevant locality, and
  - (c) specifies the period during which the powers conferred by section 29(3) to (6) are exercisable. 10
- (5) Subsection (3) must be complied with before the beginning of the period mentioned in subsection (4)(c).
- (6) An authorisation may be withdrawn by—
  - (a) the relevant officer who gave it, or 15
  - (b) any other relevant officer whose police area includes the relevant locality and whose rank is the same as or higher than that of the relevant officer mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (7) Before the withdrawal of an authorisation, consultation must take place with any local authority whose area includes the whole or part of the relevant locality. 20
- (8) The withdrawal of an authorisation does not affect the exercise of any power pursuant to that authorisation which occurred prior to its withdrawal.
- (9) The giving or withdrawal of an authorisation does not prevent the giving of a further authorisation in respect of a locality which includes the whole or any part of the relevant locality to which the earlier authorisation relates. 25
- (10) In this section “authorisation” means an authorisation under section 29.

31 Powers under section 29: supplemental

- (1) A direction under section 29(4)—
  - (a) may be given orally, 30
  - (b) may be given to any person individually or to two or more persons together, and
  - (c) may be withdrawn or varied by the person who gave it.
- (2) A person who knowingly contravenes a direction given to him under section 29(4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to—
  - (a) a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale, or 35
  - (b) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months, or to both.
- (3) A constable in uniform may arrest without warrant any person he reasonably suspects has committed an offence under subsection (2). 40
- (4) Where the power under section 29(6) is exercised, any local authority whose area includes the whole or part of the relevant locality must be notified of that fact.

32 Powers of community support officers

- (1) Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Police Reform Act 2002 (c. 30) (powers of community support officers) is amended as follows.

     “(aa) an offence under section 31(2) of the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003; or”.
- (3) After paragraph 4 insert –
     “Power to disperse groups and remove young persons to their place of residence
- 4A Where a designation applies this paragraph to any person, that person shall, within the relevant police area, have the powers which, by virtue of an authorisation under section 29 of the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, are conferred on a constable in uniform by section 29(3) to (6) of that Act (power to disperse groups and remove persons under 16 to their place of residence).
- 4B (1) Where a designation applies this paragraph to any person, that person shall, within the relevant police area, have the power of a constable under section 15(3) of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) (power to remove child to their place of residence).
- (2) Section 15(1) of that Act shall have effect in relation to the exercise of that power by that person as if the reference to a constable in that section were a reference to that person.
- (3) Where that person exercises that power, the duty in section 15(2) of that Act (duty to inform local authority of contravention of curfew notice) is to apply to him as it applies to a constable.”

33 Code of practice

- (1) The Secretary of State may issue a code of practice about –
     (a) the giving or withdrawal of authorisations under section 29, and
     (b) the exercise of the powers conferred by section 29(3) to (6).
- (2) The Secretary of State may from time to time revise the whole or any part of a code of practice issued under this section.
- (3) The Secretary of State must lay any code of practice issued by him under this section, and any revisions of such a code, before Parliament.
- (4) In giving or withdrawing an authorisation under section 29, a relevant officer must have regard to any code of practice for the time being in force under this section.
- (5) In exercising the powers conferred by section 29(3) to (6), a constable in uniform or community support officer must have regard to any code of practice for the time being in force under this section.
- (6) A code of practice under this section may make different provision for different cases.

34 Authorisations by British Transport Police

- (1) For the purposes of the giving of an authorisation under section 29 by a relevant officer who is an officer of the British Transport Police Force, section 29(1) is to have effect as if for “in his police area” there were substituted “which forms part of property in relation to which he has all the powers and privileges of a constable by virtue of section 29(1)(a) to (f) of the Railways and Transport Safety Act 2003”. 5
- (2) Where such an authorisation is given by such an officer, section 30(6)(b) is to have effect as if for “whose police area includes the relevant locality” there were substituted “who is an officer of the British Transport Police Force”. 10

35 Interpretation

In this Part—

“local authority” means—

“relevant locality” has the same meaning as in section 29, 25

“relevant officer” means a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent.

PART 5

SANCTIONS ETC.

36 Anti-social behaviour orders 30

- (1) The Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1(1A) (authorities who may apply for anti-social behaviour orders)—
- (a) after paragraph (c) “or” is omitted;
- (b) after paragraph (d) there is inserted “or
- (e) a housing action trust established by order in pursuance of section 62 of the Housing Act 1988.” 35
- (3) In section 1(1B) (persons requiring protection from anti-social acts) in paragraph (d) after “paragraph (d)” there is inserted “or (e)”.
- (4) In section 1 after subsection (10) (penalty for breach of anti-social behaviour order) there are inserted the following subsections— 40
- “(10A) The following may bring proceedings for an offence under subsection (10)—
- (a) a council which is a relevant authority;

- (b) the council for the local government area in which a person in respect of whom an anti-social behaviour order has been made resides or appears to reside.
- (10B) If proceedings for an offence under subsection (10) are brought in a youth court section 47(2) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 (c. 12) has effect as if the persons entitled to be present at a sitting for the purposes of those proceedings include one person authorised to be present by a relevant authority.” 5
- (5) In section 1B (anti-social behaviour orders in county court proceedings) after subsection (3) there are inserted the following subsections – 10
- “(3A) Subsection (3B) applies if a relevant authority is a party to the principal proceedings and considers –
- (a) that a person who is not a party to the proceedings has acted in an anti-social manner, and
- (b) that the person’s anti-social acts are material in relation to the principal proceedings. 15
- (3B) The relevant authority may –
- (a) make an application for the person mentioned in subsection (3A)(a) to be joined to the principal proceedings to enable an order under subsection (4) to be made in relation to that person; 20
- (b) if that person is so joined, apply for an order under subsection (4).
- (3C) But a person must not be joined to proceedings in pursuance of subsection (3B) unless his anti-social acts are material in relation to the principal proceedings.” 25
- (6) In section 1B(5) for “party to the principal proceedings” there is substituted “person”.
- (7) In section 9 (which makes supplemental provision about parenting orders) after subsection (1A) there is inserted the following subsection –
- “(1B) If an anti-social behaviour order is made in respect of a person under the age of 16 the court which makes the order – 30
- (a) must make a parenting order if it is satisfied that the relevant condition is fulfilled;
- (b) if it is not so satisfied, must state in open court that it is not and why it is not.” 35
- 37 Certain orders made on conviction of offences
- (1) In section 1C of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) (orders on conviction of an offence to prevent anti-social acts) in subsection (3) for the words from “whether or not” to the end there is substituted “–
- (a) if the prosecutor asks it to do so, or 40
- (b) if the court thinks it is appropriate to do so.”
- (2) After subsection (3) of that section there are inserted the following

- subsections –
- “(3A) For the purpose of deciding whether to make an order under this section the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and the defence.
- (3B) It is immaterial whether evidence led in pursuance of subsection (3A) would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted.” 5
- (3) After subsection (9) of that section there are inserted the following subsections –
- “(9A) The council for the local government area in which a person in respect of whom an anti-social behaviour order has been made resides or appears to reside may bring proceedings under section 1(10) (as applied by subsection (9) above) for breach of an order under subsection (2) above. 10
- (9B) Subsection (9C) applies in relation to proceedings in which an order under subsection (2) is made against a child or young person who is convicted of an offence. 15
- (9C) In so far as the proceedings relate to the making of the order –
- (a) section 49 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 (c. 12) (restrictions on reports of proceedings in which children and young persons are concerned) does not apply in respect of the child or young person against whom the order is made; 20
- (b) section 39 of that Act (power to prohibit publication of certain matter) does so apply.”
- (4) In subsection (10) of that section before the entry relating to “the commencement date” there is inserted – 25
- ““child” and “young person” have the same meaning as in the Children and Young Persons Act 1933;”.
- (5) In section 14A of the Football Spectators Act 1989 (c. 37) after subsection (3) there are inserted the following subsections – 30
- “(3A) For the purpose of deciding whether to make an order under this section the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and the defence.
- (3B) It is immaterial whether evidence led in pursuance of subsection (3A) would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted.” 35
- (6) In section 3(2) of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985 (c. 23) (functions of the Director of Public Prosecutions) after paragraph (f) the word “and” is omitted and there is inserted the following paragraph –
- “(fa) to have the conduct of applications for orders under section 1C of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (orders made on conviction of certain offences) and section 14A of the Football Spectators Act 1989 (banning orders made on conviction of certain offences);”.
- 40

38 Penalty notices for disorderly behaviour by young persons

- (1) The Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (c. 16) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 2(1) (penalty notices for disorderly behaviour by persons aged 18 or over) for “18” substitute “16”.
- (3) After section 2(5) insert – 5
- “(6) The Secretary of State may by order –
- (a) amend subsection (1) by substituting for the age for the time being specified in that subsection a different age which is not lower than 10, and
- (b) if that different age is lower than 16, make provision as follows – 10
- (i) where a person whose age is lower than 16 is given a penalty notice, for a parent or guardian of that person to be notified of the giving of the notice, and
- (ii) for that parent or guardian to be liable to pay the penalty under the notice. 15
- (7) The provision which may be made by virtue of subsection (6)(b) includes provision amending, or applying (with or without modifications), this Chapter or any other enactment (whenever passed or made). 20
- (8) The power conferred by subsection (6) is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (9) No order shall be made under subsection (6) unless a draft of the order has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.” 25
- (4) After section 3(1) (amount of penalty) insert –
- “(1A) The Secretary of State may specify different amounts for persons of different ages.”

39 Curfew orders and supervision orders

Schedule 2 (which relates to curfew orders and supervision orders under the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6)) shall have effect. 30

40 Extension of powers of community support officers etc.

- (1) The Police Reform Act 2002 (c. 30) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 105 (powers of Secretary of State to make orders and regulations) in subsection (3)(b) after “99(6)” insert “or paragraph 15A(2) of Schedule 4 or paragraph 9A(2) of Schedule 5”. 35
- (3) In Part 1 of Schedule 4 (powers exercisable by community support officers) after paragraph 11 insert –
- “Power to stop cycles*
- 11A (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), where a designation applies this paragraph to any person, that person shall, within the relevant police 40

- area, have the power of a constable in uniform under section 163(2) of the Road Traffic Act 1988 to stop a cycle.
- (2) The power mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) may only be exercised by that person in relation to a person who he has reason to believe has committed an offence under section 72 of the Highway Act 1835 (riding on a footway) by cycling.” 5
- (4) In Part 1 of that Schedule, after paragraph 15 insert –
- “Power to modify paragraph 1(2)(a)*
- 15A (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide that paragraph 1(2)(a) is to have effect as if the reference to the powers there mentioned did not include those powers so far as they relate to an offence under any provision for the time being mentioned in the first column of the Table in section 1(1) of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 which is specified in the order. 10
- (2) The Secretary of State shall not make an order containing (with or without any other provision) any provision authorised by this paragraph unless a draft of that order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.” 15
- (5) In paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 5 (powers of accredited persons to issue fixed penalty notices) after paragraph (a) insert – 20
- “(aa) the powers of a constable in uniform to give a penalty notice under Chapter 1 of Part 1 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (fixed penalty notices in respect of offences of disorder) except in respect of an offence under section 12 of the Licensing Act 1872 or section 91 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967;” 25
- (6) After paragraph 8 of that Schedule insert –
- “Power to stop cycles*
- 8A (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), a person whose accreditation specifies that this paragraph applies to him shall, within the relevant police area, have the power of a constable in uniform under section 163(2) of the Road Traffic Act 1988 to stop a cycle. 30
- (2) The power mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) may only be exercised by that person in relation to a person who he has reason to believe has committed an offence under section 72 of the Highway Act 1835 (riding on a footway) by cycling.” 35
- (7) After paragraph 9 of that Schedule insert –
- “Power to modify paragraph 1(2)(aa)*
- 9A (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide that paragraph 1(2)(aa) is to have effect as if the reference to the powers there mentioned did not include those powers so far as they relate to an offence under any provision for the time being mentioned in the first column of the Table in section 1(1) of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 which is specified in the order. 40

- (2) The Secretary of State shall not make an order containing (with or without any other provision) any provision authorised by this paragraph unless a draft of that order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.”

41 Report by local authority in certain cases where person remanded on bail 5

After section 23A of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 (c. 54) there is inserted –

“23B Report by local authority in certain cases where person remanded on bail

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where a court remands a person aged 10 or 11 on bail and either – 10
- (a) the person is charged with or has been convicted of a serious offence, or
  - (b) in the opinion of the court the person is a persistent offender.
- (2) The court may order a local authority to make an oral or written report specifying where the person is likely to be placed or maintained if he is further remanded to local authority accommodation. 15
- (3) An order under subsection (2) above must designate the local authority which is to make the report; and that authority must be the local authority which the court would have designated under section 23(2) of this Act if the person had been remanded to local authority accommodation. 20
- (4) An order under subsection (2) above must specify the period within which the local authority must comply with the order.
- (5) The maximum period that may be so specified is seven working days. 25
- (6) If the Secretary of State by order so provides, subsection (2) above also applies where –
- (a) a court remands on bail any person who has attained the age of 12 and is under the age of 17,
  - (b) the requirement in section 23AA(3) of this Act is fulfilled, and 30
  - (c) in a case where he is remanded after conviction, the court is satisfied that the behaviour which constituted the offence was due, to a significant extent, to the circumstances in which the offender was living.
- (7) In this section – 35
- “serious offence” means an offence punishable in the case of an adult with imprisonment for a term of two years or more.
  - “working day” means any day other than –

- (b) may impose conditions in respect of any application, modification or exception provided for by the order (which may, in particular, include provision requiring a person to obtain a certificate in accordance with an enactment referred to or applied by the order), 20
- (c) may make provision generally or by reference to a particular purpose or circumstance,
- (d) may confer a function on the Secretary of State or another specified person, and 25
- (e) may make transitional, consequential or incidental provision.”

PART 7

THE ENVIRONMENT

Noise 3045 Closure of noisy premises

- (1) The chief executive officer of the relevant local authority may make a closure order in relation to premises to which this section applies if he reasonably believes that –
- (a) a public nuisance is being caused by noise coming from the premises, and 35
- (b) the closure of the premises is necessary to prevent that nuisance.
- (2) This section applies to premises if –
- (a) a premises licence has effect in respect of them, or
- (b) a temporary event notice has effect in respect of them. 40
- (3) In this section “closure order” means an order which requires specified premises to be kept closed during a specified period which –
- (a) does not exceed 24 hours, and

- (b) begins when a manager of the premises receives written notice of the order.
  - (4) A person commits an offence if without reasonable excuse he permits premises to be open in contravention of a closure order.
  - (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to –
    - (a) imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months,
    - (b) a fine not exceeding £20,000, or
    - (c) both.
- 46 Closure of noisy premises: supplemental 10
- (1) Where a closure order is made in relation to premises, the chief executive officer of the relevant local authority –
    - (a) may cancel the closure order by notice in writing to a manager of the premises,
    - (b) shall cancel the order as soon as is reasonably practicable if he believes that it is no longer necessary in order to prevent a public nuisance being caused by noise coming from the premises, and 15
    - (c) shall give notice of the order as soon as is reasonably practicable to the licensing authority for the area in which the premises are situated.
  - (2) The chief executive officer of a local authority may authorise an environmental health officer of the authority to exercise a power or duty of the chief executive officer under section 45(1) or under subsection (1) above; and –
    - (a) authority under this subsection may be general or specific, and
    - (b) a reference in section 45(1) or subsection (1) above to a belief of the chief executive officer includes a reference to a belief of a person authorised under this subsection. 25
  - (3) In section 45 and this section –
    - “chief executive officer” of an authority means the head of the paid service of the authority designated under section 4 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (c. 42), 30
    - “environmental health officer” of an authority means an officer authorised by the authority for the purpose of exercising a statutory function in relation to pollution of the environment or harm to human health,
    - “licensing authority” has the same meaning as in the Licensing Act 2003, 35
    - “manager” in relation to premises means –
      - (a) a person who holds a premises licence in respect of the premises,
      - (b) a designated premises supervisor under a premises licence in respect of the premises, 40
      - (c) the premises user in relation to a temporary event notice which has effect in respect of the premises, and
      - (d) any other person who works at the premises in a capacity (paid or unpaid) which enables him to close them,
    - “premises licence” has the same meaning as in the Licensing Act 2003, 45
    - “relevant local authority” in relation to premises means an authority which has statutory functions, for the area in which the premises are situated, in relation to minimising or preventing the risk of pollution of the environment or of harm to human health, and “temporary event notice” has the same meaning as in the Licensing Act 2003 (and is to be treated as having effect in accordance with section 170(6) of that Act).

SCHEDULE 1

Section 14

DEMOTED TENANCIES

- 1 In the Housing Act 1996 (c. 52) after section 143 the following sections are inserted as Chapter 1A of Part 5— 5

“CHAPTER 1A

DEMOTED TENANCIES

*General provisions143A Demoted tenancies

- (1) This section applies to a periodic tenancy of a dwelling-house if each of the following conditions is satisfied. 10
- (2) The first condition is that the landlord is either a local housing authority or a housing action trust.
- (3) The second condition is that the tenant condition in section 81 of the Housing Act 1985 is satisfied. 15
- (4) The third condition is that the tenancy is created by virtue of a demotion order under section 82A of that Act.
- (5) In this Chapter –
- (a) a tenancy to which this section applies is referred to as a demoted tenancy; 20
- (b) references to demoted tenants must be construed accordingly.

143B Duration of demoted tenancy

- (1) A demoted tenancy becomes a secure tenancy at the end of the period of one year (the demotion period) starting with the day the demotion order takes effect; but this is subject to subsections (2) to (5). 25
- (2) A tenancy ceases to be a demoted tenancy if any of the following paragraphs applies –
- (a) either of the first or second conditions in section 143A ceases to be satisfied; 30
- (b) the demotion order is quashed;
- (c) the tenant dies and no one is entitled to succeed to the tenancy.

- (3) If at any time before the end of the demotion period the landlord serves a notice of proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house subsection (4) applies.
- (4) The tenancy continues as a demoted tenancy until the end of the demotion period or (if later) until any of the following occurs—
  - (a) the notice of proceedings is withdrawn by the landlord;
  - (b) the proceedings are determined in favour of the tenant;
  - (c) the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which the notice is served ends and no proceedings for possession have been brought.
- (5) A tenancy does not come to an end merely because it ceases to be a demoted tenancy.

143C Change of landlord

- (1) A tenancy continues to be a demoted tenancy for the duration of the demotion period if—
  - (a) at the time the demoted tenancy is created the interest of the landlord belongs to a local housing authority or a housing action trust, and
  - (b) during the demotion period the interest of the landlord transfers to another person who is a local housing authority or a housing action trust.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) apply if—
  - (a) at the time the demoted tenancy is created the interest of the landlord belongs to a local housing authority or a housing action trust, and
  - (b) during the demotion period the interest of the landlord transfers to a person who is not such a body.
- (3) If the new landlord is a registered social landlord or a person who does not satisfy the landlord condition the tenancy becomes an assured shorthold tenancy.
- (4) If the new landlord is not a registered social landlord and does satisfy the landlord condition the tenancy becomes a secure tenancy.
- (5) The landlord condition must be construed in accordance with section 80 of the Housing Act 1985.

Proceedings for possession 35

143D Proceedings for possession

- (1) The landlord may only bring a demoted tenancy to an end by obtaining an order of the court for possession of the dwelling-house.
- (2) The court must make an order for possession unless it thinks that the procedure under sections 143E and 143F has not been followed.
- (3) If the court makes such an order the tenancy comes to an end on the date on which the tenant is to give up possession in pursuance of the order.

143E Notice of proceedings for possession

- (1) Proceedings for possession of a dwelling-house let under a demoted tenancy must not be brought unless the landlord has served on the tenant a notice of proceedings under this section.
- (2) The notice must— 5
- (a) state that the court will be asked to make an order for the possession of the dwelling-house;
  - (b) set out the reasons for the landlord’s decision to apply for the order;
  - (c) specify the date after which proceedings for the possession of the dwelling-house may be begun; 10
  - (d) inform the tenant of his right to request a review of the landlord’s decision and of the time within which the request must be made.
- (3) The date specified under subsection (2)(c) must not be earlier than the date on which the tenancy could (apart from this Chapter) be brought to an end by notice to quit given by the landlord on the same date as the notice of proceedings. 15
- (4) The court must not entertain proceedings begun on or before the date specified under subsection (2)(c). 20
- (5) The notice must also inform the tenant that if he needs help or advice—
- (a) about the notice, or
  - (b) about what to do about the notice,
- he must take the notice immediately to a Citizen’s Advice Bureau, a housing aid centre, a law centre or a solicitor. 25

143F Review of decision to seek possession

- (1) Before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date of service of a notice for possession of a dwelling-house let under a demoted tenancy the tenant may request the landlord to review its decision to seek an order for possession. 30
- (2) If a request is made in accordance with subsection (1) the landlord must review the decision.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to the procedure to be followed in connection with a review under this section. 35
- (4) The regulations may include provision—
- (a) requiring the decision on review to be made by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision; 40
  - (b) as to the circumstances in which the tenant is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom he may be represented at the hearing.
- (5) The landlord must notify the tenant—
- (a) of the decision on the review; 45

(b) of the reasons for the decision.

- (6) The review must be carried out and notice given under subsection (5) before the date specified in the notice of proceedings as the date after which proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house may be begun. 5

143G Effect of proceedings for possession

- (1) This section applies if the landlord has begun proceedings for the possession of a dwelling-house let under a demoted tenancy and –
(a) the demotion period ends, or
(b) any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 143B(2) applies (circumstances in which a tenancy ceases to be a demoted tenancy). 10
- (2) If any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 143B(2) applies the tenancy ceases to be a demoted tenancy but the landlord (or the new landlord as the case may be) may continue the proceedings. 15
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if in accordance with subsection (2) a tenancy ceases to be a demoted tenancy and becomes a secure tenancy.
- (4) The tenant is not entitled to exercise the right to buy unless –
(a) the proceedings are finally determined, and
(b) he is not required to give up possession of the dwelling-house. 20
- (5) The proceedings must be treated as finally determined if –
(a) they are withdrawn;
(b) any appeal is abandoned;
(c) the time for appealing expires without an appeal being brought. 25

Succession

143H Succession to demoted tenancy

- (1) This section applies if the tenant under a demoted tenancy dies.
- (2) If the tenant was a successor, the tenancy – 30
(a) ceases to be a demoted tenancy, but
(b) does not become a secure tenancy.
- (3) In any other case a person is qualified to succeed the tenant if –
(a) he occupies the dwelling-house as his only or principal home at the time of the tenant's death, 35
(b) he is a member of the tenant's family, and
(c) he has resided with the tenant throughout the period of 12 months ending with the tenant's death.
- (4) If only one person is qualified to succeed under subsection (3) the tenancy vests in him by virtue of this section. 40

- (5) If there is more than one such person the tenancy vests by virtue of this section in the person preferred in accordance with the following rules –
- (a) the tenant’s spouse or (if the tenant has no spouse) the person mentioned in section 143P(1)(b) is to be preferred to another member of the tenant’s family; 5
  - (b) if there are two or more other members of the tenant’s family the person preferred may be agreed between them or (if there is no such agreement) selected by the landlord.
- 143I No successor tenant: termination 10
- (1) This section applies if the demoted tenant dies and no person is qualified to succeed to the tenancy as mentioned in section 143H(3).
- (2) The tenancy ceases to be a demoted tenancy if either subsection (3) or (4) applies.
- (3) This subsection applies if the tenancy is vested or otherwise disposed of in the course of the administration of the tenant’s estate unless the vesting or other disposal is in pursuance of an order under – 15
- (a) section 23A or 24 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 (property adjustment orders in connection with matrimonial proceedings); 20
  - (b) section 17(1) of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984 (property adjustment orders after overseas divorce, etc);
  - (c) paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the Children Act 1989 (orders for financial relief against parents).
- (4) This subsection applies if it is known that when the tenancy is vested or otherwise disposed of in the course of the administration of the tenant’s estate it will not be in pursuance of an order mentioned in subsection (3). 25
- (5) A tenancy which ceases to be a demoted tenancy by virtue of this section cannot subsequently become a secure tenancy. 30
- 143J Successor tenants
- (1) This section applies for the purpose of sections 143H and 143I.
- (2) A person is a successor to a secure tenancy which is terminated by a demotion order if any of subsections (3) to (6) applies to him.
- (3) The tenancy vested in him – 35
- (a) by virtue of section 89 of the Housing Act 1985 or section 133 of this Act;
  - (b) under the will or intestacy of the preceding tenant.
- (4) The tenancy arose by virtue of section 86 of the Housing Act 1985 and the original fixed term was granted – 40
- (a) to another person, or
  - (b) to him jointly with another person.
- (5) He became the tenant on the tenancy being assigned to him unless –

- (a) the tenancy was assigned in proceedings under section 23A or 24 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 (property adjustment orders in connection with matrimonial proceedings) or section 17(1) of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984 (property adjustment orders after overseas divorce, etc), and 5
  - (b) neither he nor the other party to the marriage was a successor.
- (6) He became the tenant on assignment under section 92 of the Housing Act 1985 if he himself was a successor to the tenancy which he assigned in exchange. 10
- (7) A person is the successor to a demoted tenancy if the tenancy vested in him by virtue of section 143H(4) or (5).
- (8) A person is the successor to a joint tenancy if he has become the sole tenant. 15

Assignment

143K Restriction on assignment

- (1) A demoted tenancy is not capable of being assigned except as mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The exceptions are assignment in pursuance of an order made under – 20
- (a) section 24 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 (property adjustment orders in connection with matrimonial proceedings);
  - (b) section 17(1) of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984 (property adjustment orders after overseas divorce, etc.); 25
  - (c) paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the Children Act 1989 (orders for financial relief against parents).

Repairs 30

143L Right to carry out repairs

The Secretary of State may by regulations under section 96 of the Housing Act 1985 (secure tenants: right to carry out repairs) apply to demoted tenants any provision made under that section in relation to secure tenants. 35

Provision of information

143M Provision of information

- (1) This section applies to a local housing authority or a housing action trust if it is the landlord of a demoted tenancy.
- (2) The landlord must from time to time publish information about the demoted tenancy in such form as it thinks best suited to explain in simple terms and so far as it considers appropriate the effect of – 40

- (a) the express terms of the demoted tenancy;
  - (b) the provisions of this Chapter;
  - (c) the provisions of sections 11 to 16 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (landlord’s repairing obligations).
- (3) The landlord must ensure that information published under subsection (2) is, so far as is reasonably practicable, kept up to date. 5
- (4) The landlord must supply the tenant with –
- (a) a copy of the information published under subsection (2);
  - (b) a written statement of the terms of the tenancy, so far as they are neither expressed in the lease or written tenancy agreement (if any) nor implied by law. 10
- (5) The statement required by subsection (4)(b) must be supplied on the grant of the tenancy or as soon as practicable afterwards.

Supplementary

143N Jurisdiction of county court 15

- (1) A county court has jurisdiction –
- (a) to determine questions arising under this Chapter;
  - (b) to entertain proceedings brought under this Chapter;
  - (c) to determine claims (for whatever amount) in connection with a demoted tenancy. 20
- (2) The jurisdiction includes jurisdiction to entertain proceedings as to whether a statement supplied in pursuance of section 143M(4)(b) (written statement of certain terms of tenancy) is accurate.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) it is immaterial that no relief other than a declaration is sought. 25
- (4) If a person takes proceedings in the High Court which, by virtue of this section, he could have taken in the county court he is not entitled to recover any costs.
- (5) The Lord Chancellor may make such rules and give such directions as he thinks fit for the purposes of giving effect to this section. 30
- (6) The rules and directions may provide –
- (a) for the exercise by a district judge of a county court of any jurisdiction exercisable under this section;
  - (b) for the conduct of proceedings in private.
- (7) The power to make rules must be exercised by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament. 35

143O Meaning of dwelling house

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter a dwelling-house may be a house or a part of a house. 40
- (2) Land let together with a dwelling-house must be treated for the purposes of this Chapter as part of the dwelling-house unless the land is agricultural land which would not be treated as part of a dwelling-house for the purposes of Part 4 of the Housing Act 1985.

143P Members of a person’s family

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter a person is a member of another’s family if— 5
- (a) he is the spouse of that person;
  - (b) he and that person live together as a couple in an enduring family relationship, but he does not fall within paragraph (c);
  - (c) he is that person’s parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew or niece. 10
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) it is immaterial that two persons living together in an enduring family relationship are of the same sex.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c)— 15
- (a) a relationship by marriage must be treated as a relationship by blood;
  - (b) a relationship of the half-blood must be treated as a relationship of the whole blood;
  - (c) a stepchild of a person must be treated as his child.”
- 2 (1) The Housing Act 1985 (c. 68) is amended as follows. 20
- (2) In section 105 (requirement to consult secure tenants on certain housing management matters) after subsection (6) there is inserted the following subsection—
- “(7) For the purposes of this section— 25
- (a) secure tenants include demoted tenants within the meaning of section 143A of the Housing Act 1996;
  - (b) secure tenancies include demoted tenancies within the meaning of that section.”
- (3) In Schedule 1 (tenancies which are not secure tenancies) after paragraph 1A (introductory tenancies) there is inserted the following paragraph— 30
- “1B A tenancy is not a secure tenancy if it is a demoted tenancy within the meaning of section 143A of the Housing Act 1996.”
- (4) In Schedule 4 (qualifying period for right to buy and discount) after paragraph 9 (the tenant condition) there is inserted the following paragraph— 35
- “9A The tenant condition is not met during any period when a tenancy is a demoted tenancy by virtue of section 143A of the Housing Act 1996.”

SCHEDULE 2

Section 39

CURFEW ORDERS AND SUPERVISION ORDERS

Interpretation

- 1 In this Schedule “the 2000 Act” means the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6). 5

Curfew orders

- 2 (1) Section 37 of the 2000 Act (curfew orders) is amended as follows.
- (2) Subsection (4) (which limits to three months the duration of a curfew order made in respect of a person aged under 16 on conviction) is omitted.
- (3) For subsection (12) there is substituted – 10
- “(12) In this Act, “responsible officer”, in relation to an offender subject to a curfew order, means –
- (a) where the offender is also subject to a supervision order, the person who is the supervisor in relation to the supervision order, and 15
- (b) in any other case, the person who is responsible for monitoring the offender’s whereabouts during the curfew periods specified in the order.”

Supervision orders

- 3 After section 64 of the 2000 Act there is inserted – 20
- “64A Supervision orders and curfew orders
- Nothing in this Chapter prevents a court which makes a supervision order in respect of an offender from also making a curfew order in respect of him.”
- 4 (1) Schedule 6 to the 2000 Act (requirements which may be included in supervision orders) is amended as follows. 25
- (2) In paragraph 2(5) (total number of days during which offender may be required to comply with directions of supervisor not to exceed 90), for “90” there is substituted “180”.
- (3) In paragraph 3 (requirements as to activities, reparation, night restrictions etc) – 30
- (a) sub-paragraph (2)(e) (night restriction) is omitted, and
- (b) in sub-paragraph (3) (total number of days in respect of which an offender may be subject to requirements imposed by virtue of any of paragraphs (2)(a) to (e) not to exceed 90) – 35
- (i) for the words “, (d) or (e)” there is substituted “or (d)”, and
- (ii) for “90” there is substituted “180”.
- (4) Paragraph 4 (night restrictions) is omitted.

(5) After paragraph 5 there is inserted –

“Requirement to live for specified period with local authority foster parent

- 5A (1) Where the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) below are satisfied, a supervision order may impose a requirement (“a foster parent residence requirement”) that the offender shall live for a specified period with a local authority foster parent. 5
- (2) The conditions are that –
- (a) the offence is punishable with imprisonment in the case of an offender aged 18 or over;
  - (b) the offence, or the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it, was so serious that a custodial sentence would normally be appropriate (or, where the offender is aged 10 or 11, would normally be appropriate if the offender were aged 12 or over); and 10
  - (c) the court is satisfied that – 15
    - (i) the behaviour which constituted the offence was due to a significant extent to the circumstances in which the offender was living, and
    - (ii) the imposition of a foster parent residence requirement will assist in his rehabilitation. 20
- (3) A foster parent residence requirement shall designate the local authority who are to place the offender with a local authority foster parent under section 23(2)(a) of the Children Act 1989, and that authority shall be the authority in whose area the offender resides. 25
- (4) A court shall not impose a foster parent residence requirement unless –
- (a) the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that arrangements for implementing such a requirement are available in the area of the designated authority; 30
  - (b) the notice has not been withdrawn; and
  - (c) the court has consulted the designated authority.
- (5) Subject to paragraph 5(2A) of Schedule 7 to this Act, the maximum period which may be specified in a foster parent residence requirement is twelve months. 35
- (6) A court shall not impose a foster parent residence requirement in respect of an offender who is not legally represented at the relevant time in that court unless –
- (a) he was granted a right to representation funded by the Legal Services Commission as part of the Criminal Defence Service for the purposes of the proceedings but the right was withdrawn because of his conduct; or 40
  - (b) he has been informed of his right to apply for such representation for the purposes of the proceedings and has had opportunity to do so, but nevertheless refused or failed to apply. 45
- (7) In sub-paragraph (6) above –

- (a) “the relevant time” means the time when the court is considering whether or not to impose the requirement, and
- (b) “the proceedings” means –
- (i) the whole proceedings, or 5
  - (ii) the part of the proceedings relating to the imposition of the requirement.
- (8) A supervision order imposing a foster parent residence requirement may also impose any of the requirements mentioned in paragraphs 2, 3, 6 and 7 of this Schedule. 10
- (9) This paragraph does not affect the power of a local authority to place with a local authority foster parent an offender to whom a local authority residence requirement under paragraph 5 above relates.
- (10) In this paragraph “local authority foster parent” has the same meaning as in the Children Act 1989.” 15

Consequential amendments

- 5 In section 21 of the Children Act 1989 (c. 41) (provision of accommodation for children in police protection or detention or on remand, etc.) in subsection (2)(c)(ii) after “2000” there is inserted “or a foster parent residence requirement under paragraph 5A of that Schedule”. 20
- 6 (1) Schedule 7 to the 2000 Act (breach, revocation and amendment of supervision orders) is amended as follows.
- (2) In paragraph 2 (breach of requirement of supervision order) –
- (a) in sub-paragraph (1), after “5” there is inserted “,5A”, 25
  - (b) in sub-paragraph (2)(a)(ii) after “subject to” there is inserted “sub-paragraph (2A) below and”, and
  - (c) after sub-paragraph (2) there is inserted –
- “(2A) The court may not make a curfew order under sub-paragraph (2)(a)(ii) above in respect of an offender who is already subject to a curfew order.” 30
- (3) In paragraph 5 (revocation and amendment of supervision order) –
- (a) after sub-paragraph (2) there is inserted –
- “(2A) In relation to a supervision order imposing a foster parent residence requirement under paragraph 5A of Schedule 6 to this Act, the power conferred by sub-paragraph (1)(b)(ii) above includes power to extend the period specified in the requirement to a period of not more than 18 months beginning with the day on which the requirement first had effect.”, and 35
- (b) sub-paragraph (3)(b) and the word “or” immediately preceding it are omitted. 40
