Registration

1 The National Identity Register

- (1) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to establish and maintain a register of individuals (to be known as “the National Identity Register”).
- (2) The purposes for which the Register is to be established and maintained are confined to the statutory purposes. 5
- (3) The statutory purposes are to facilitate, by the maintenance of a record of registrable facts about individuals in the United Kingdom—
  - (a) the provision of a convenient method for such individuals to prove registrable facts about themselves to others; and 10
  - (b) the provision of a secure and reliable method for registrable facts about such individuals to be ascertained or verified wherever that is necessary in the public interest.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b) something is necessary in the public interest if, and only if, it is—
  - (a) in the interests of national security;
  - (b) for the purposes of the prevention or detection of crime;
  - (c) for the purposes of the enforcement of immigration controls; 15

- (d) for the purposes of the enforcement of prohibitions on unauthorised working or employment; or
- (e) for the purpose of securing the efficient and effective provision of public services.
- (5) In this Act “registrable fact”, in relation to an individual, means— 5
- (a) his identity;
- (b) where he resides in the United Kingdom;
- (c) where he has previously resided in the United Kingdom and elsewhere;
- (d) the times at which he was resident at different places in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; 10
- (e) his current residential status;
- (f) residential statuses previously held by him;
- (g) information about numbers allocated to him for identification purposes and about the documents to which they relate; 15
- (h) information about occasions on which information recorded about him in the Register has been provided to any person; and
- (i) information recorded in the Register at his request.
- (6) In this section references to an individual’s identity are references to— 20
- (a) his full name;
- (b) other names by which he is or has previously been known;
- (c) his date and place of birth and, if he has died, the date of his death; and
- (d) physical characteristics of his that are capable of being used for identifying him.
- (7) In this section “residential status”, in relation to an individual, means— 25
- (a) his nationality;
- (b) his entitlement to remain in the United Kingdom; and
- (c) where that entitlement derives from a grant of leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom, the terms and conditions of that leave.
- 2 Individuals entered in Register 30
- (1) An entry must be made in the Register for every individual who—
- (a) is entitled to be entered in it; and
- (b) applies to be entered in it.
- (2) The individuals entitled to be entered in the Register are— 35
- (a) every individual who has attained the age of 16 and, without being excluded under subsection (3) from an entitlement to be registered, is residing at a place in the United Kingdom; and
- (b) every individual of a prescribed description who has resided in the United Kingdom or who is proposing to enter the United Kingdom.
- (3) Regulations made by the Secretary of State may provide that an individual residing in the United Kingdom is excluded from an entitlement to be registered if— 40
- (a) he is residing in the United Kingdom in exercise of an entitlement to remain there that will end less than the prescribed period after it was acquired; 45

- (b) he is an individual of a prescribed description who has not yet been resident in the United Kingdom for the prescribed period; or
  - (c) he is residing in the United Kingdom despite having no entitlement to remain there.
- (4) An entry for an individual may be made in the Register (whether or not he has applied to be, or is entitled to be, entered in it) if information capable of being recorded in an entry for him is otherwise available to be recorded. 5
- (5) The Secretary of State –
- (a) may at any time modify the Register for the purpose of correcting information recorded in it that he is satisfied is inaccurate or incomplete; but 10
  - (b) is not, by virtue of any provision of this Act, to be under a duty to correct such information unless, in a case where he is so satisfied, he considers that it is appropriate to do so.
- (6) An entry in the Register consisting of all the information recorded about an individual must be given a unique number, to be known as his National Identity Registration Number; and that number must comply with the prescribed requirements. 15
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order modify the age for the time being specified in subsection (2)(a). 20
