LORDS INSISTENCE, DISAGREEMENT AND REASONS

[The page and line references are to HL Bill 53, the bill as first printed for the Lords]

Clause 10

12 Page 5, line 13, at end insert –

- “(1A) The Code shall include rules and principles relating to the access to official statistics in their final form prior to publication (“pre-release access”), including –
- (a) the circumstances in which, or descriptions of statistics in relation to which, pre-release access may or may not be granted;
 - (b) the persons, or descriptions of persons, to whom pre-release access may be granted;
 - (c) the period, or maximum period, during which pre-release access may be granted; and
 - (d) the conditions subject to which pre-release access may be granted.
- (1B) The Code may make different provision for different cases.”

COMMONS DISAGREEMENT AND REASON

The Commons disagree to Lords Amendment No. 12 for the following Reason –

12A Because the rules and principles relating to pre-release access are more appropriately provided for by order made by Ministers or the devolved administrations, subject to scrutiny by affirmative resolution procedure, than by the Statistics Board.

LORDS INSISTENCE AND REASON

The Lords insist on Amendment No. 12 for the following Reason –

12B Because it is appropriate that the rules and principles relating to pre-release access should be decided by the Statistics Board.

13 Page 5, line 13, at end insert –

- “(1C) The rules and principles for pre-release access required by subsection (1A) shall keep such access to the minimum necessary to meet the needs of Ministers.”
