TO

Make provision about education and training; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

DUTY TO PARTICIPATE IN EDUCATION OR TRAINING: ENGLAND

CHAPTER 1

YOUNG PERSONS

Duty to participate in education or training

1 Persons to whom Part 1 applies

This Part applies to any person who is resident in England and who—
(a) has ceased to be of compulsory school age,
(b) has not reached the age of 18, and
(c) has not attained a level 3 qualification (see section 3).

2 Duty to participate in education or training

(1) A person to whom this Part applies must—
(a) be participating in appropriate full-time education or training (see section 4),
(b) be participating in training in accordance with a contract of apprenticeship, or
(c) both—
   (i) be in full-time occupation (see section 5), and
   (ii) participate in sufficient relevant training or education in each relevant period (see sections 6 to 8).
(2) For the purposes of this Part, a person who is in full-time occupation is to be taken to be participating in sufficient relevant training or education at any particular time if—
   (a) arrangements have been made (whether by means of enrolment on a course or courses, or otherwise) for the person to receive sufficient relevant training or education during the current relevant period, and
   (b) where the arrangements call for the person to be participating in training or education at the time, the person is so participating.

Interpretation

3 Level 3 qualification

(1) In this Part, “level 3 qualification” means a prescribed external qualification, or an external qualification of a prescribed description, at level 3.

(2) For this purpose, level 3 is the level of attainment (in terms of breadth and depth) which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is demonstrated by the General Certificate of Education at the advanced level in two subjects.

(3) A qualification, or description of qualification, prescribed under subsection (1) may be prescribed by reference to an assessment made by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority of the level of attainment demonstrated by a qualification; and for that purpose regulations under subsection (1) may confer a function (which may include the exercise of a discretion) on the Authority.

(4) In subsection (1), “external qualification” has the meaning given in section 24 of the Education Act 1997 (c. 44).

(5) The Secretary of State may by order amend subsection (2) so as to substitute a different qualification for the qualification for the time being referred to.

4 Appropriate full-time education or training

(1) In this Part, “appropriate full-time education or training”, in relation to a person, means full-time education or training which is suitable for the person, having regard—
   (a) to the person’s age, ability and aptitude, and
   (b) to any learning difficulty which the person may have,
and is provided at a school, at a college of further education, at an institution within the higher education sector or otherwise.

(2) Regulations may provide that a particular description of—
   (a) education provided otherwise than at a school, or
   (b) training,
is, or is not, to be treated as being “full-time” for the purposes of this section.

(3) Subsections (5) and (6) of section 13 of the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (c. 21) (persons with learning difficulties) apply for the purposes of this section.

5 Full-time occupation

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a person is in full-time occupation if the person works for at least 20 hours per week—
   (a) under a contract of employment, or
(b) in any other way which may be prescribed, otherwise than under a short-term contract or arrangement.

(2) The power conferred by subsection (1)(b) includes, in particular, power to prescribe the following ways of working—
(a) as a self-employed person,
(b) otherwise than for reward, or
(c) as the holder of an office.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the number of hours for which a person works per week is—
(a) the number of the person’s normal weekly working hours, less
(b) the number of hours of actual guided learning—
   (i) which constitute relevant training or education, and
   (ii) in which the young person participates each week during normal weekly working hours.

(4) In subsection (3)—
   “normal weekly working hours”—
   (a) in relation to a person employed under a contract of employment, means the person’s normal working hours in a week (within the meaning of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (c. 18) (see section 234 of that Act)), and
   (b) in relation to a person working in a way prescribed under subsection (1)(b), has the prescribed meaning;
   “actual guided learning” has the meaning given by section 8(3).

(5) Regulations may make provision for a person to be, or not to be, treated as working for at least 20 hours per week in cases where the number of hours for which the person works per week (calculated under subsection (3)) varies from week to week.

(6) Where a person works otherwise than under—
   (a) a single contract of employment, or
   (b) a single arrangement (in the case of a way of working prescribed under subsection (1)(b)), the number of hours for which the person works per week is the aggregate of the amounts calculated under subsection (3) in relation to each of the contracts or arrangements under which the person works.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
   (a) a contract of employment is a short-term contract unless it—
      (i) has a fixed term of 8 weeks or longer, or
      (ii) does not have a fixed term but has been, or can reasonably be expected to be, in force for at least 8 weeks;
   (b) an arrangement, in the case of a way of working prescribed under paragraph (b) of that subsection, is a short-term arrangement unless it has been, or can reasonably be expected to be, in force for at least 8 weeks.

6 Relevant training or education

(1) In this Part, “relevant training or education” means training or education towards an accredited qualification provided by a course or courses.
(2) For this purpose, “accredited qualification” means a qualification which has been accredited by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority under section 24(2)(g) of the Education Act 1997 (c. 44) (functions of the Authority in relation to external vocational and academic qualifications).

7 Relevant period

(1) In this Part, “relevant period”, in relation to a person, means a period beginning with a start date and ending with the next end date.

(2) The following are start dates for the purposes of subsection (1)—
   (a) a date on which subsection (4) starts to apply to the person;
   (b) the date immediately following the end of a relevant period (if on that date that subsection still applies to the person).

(3) The following are end dates for the purposes of subsection (1)—
   (a) a prescribed date;
   (b) a date on which subsection (4) ceases to apply to the person.

(4) This subsection applies to a person at any time when—
   (a) this Part applies to the person, and
   (b) the person is not participating in education or training in accordance with section 2(1)(a) or (b).

8 Sufficient relevant training or education

(1) For the purposes of this Part, relevant training or education is “sufficient” in relation to any relevant period if it amounts in aggregate to—
   (a) at least 280 hours of guided learning, in the case of a relevant period which is one year;
   (b) such number of hours of guided learning as is determined in accordance with regulations, in the case of any other relevant period.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, a person participates in a particular number of hours of guided learning by—
   (a) participating in actual guided learning for that number of hours, or
   (b) completing a course or courses which can reasonably be expected to be adequate to enable persons completing it or them to achieve any standard required to attain an accredited qualification to which that number of hours of guided learning has been assigned.

(3) In subsection (2)—
   “accredited qualification” has the meaning given by section 6(2);
   “actual guided learning”, in relation to a person, means time the person spends—
   (a) being taught or given instruction by a lecturer, tutor, supervisor or other appropriate provider of training or education, or
   (b) otherwise participating in education or training under the immediate guidance or supervision of such a person,
   but does not include time spent on unsupervised preparation or study, whether at home or otherwise;
   “assigned” means assigned by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority under subsection (2)(g) of section 24 of the Education Act.
1997 (functions of the Authority in relation to external vocational and academic qualifications) by virtue of subsection (2B) of that section.

(4) Regulations may make provision for attributing to any relevant period a number of hours of guided learning in which a person participates (or is treated by the regulations as participating) by virtue of subsection (2)(b) in cases where courses do not begin and end during a single relevant period.

9 Assignment of numbers of hours of guided learning to external qualifications

In section 24 of the Education Act 1997 (c. 44) (functions of Qualifications and Curriculum Authority in relation to external vocational and academic qualifications), after subsection (2A) insert—

“(2B) Any accreditation of a qualification under paragraph (g) of subsection (2) must assign to the qualification a number of notional hours (to be known as “the number of hours of guided learning”) representing an estimate of the amount of actual guided learning which could reasonably be expected to be required in order for persons to achieve the standard required to attain the qualification.

(2C) Accordingly, criteria published under paragraph (f) of that subsection must include criteria for the assignment of numbers of hours of guided learning to qualifications mentioned in that paragraph.

(2D) In subsection (2B), “actual guided learning” means time a person spends—

(a) being taught or given instruction by a lecturer, tutor, supervisor or other appropriate provider of training or education, or

(b) otherwise participating in education or training under the immediate guidance or supervision of such a person, but does not include time spent on unsupervised preparation or study, whether at home or otherwise.”

CHAPTER 3

EMPLOYERS

Interpretation

19 Contracts to which Chapter applies

(1) In this Chapter, “relevant contract of employment” means a contract of employment—

(a) under which the employee is required to work for at least 20 hours per week,

(b) which—

(i) has a fixed term of 8 weeks or longer, or

(ii) does not have a fixed term but can reasonably be expected to be, or has been, in force for at least 8 weeks, and

(c) under which the place of work, or one of the places where the employee may be required to work, is in England.

(2) But a contract is not a “relevant contract of employment” if—

(a) the employer has undertaken to provide the employee with sufficient relevant training or education in each relevant period, and

(b) by virtue of the contract, the employee is in full-time occupation for the purposes of this Part.
20 Appropriate arrangements

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person to whom this Part applies has made appropriate arrangements for training or education if—
   (a) the person has enrolled on a course or courses constituting relevant training or education (or arrangements have otherwise been made for the person to receive relevant training or education), or
   (b) the person is participating in full-time education or training.

(2) References in this Chapter to appropriate arrangements made by the person are to the arrangements (of whatever kind and whether or not made by the person) for the person to receive the training or education in question.

Commencement of employment

21 Appropriate arrangements to be in place before employment begins

(1) A person must not, as employer, enter into a relevant contract of employment with a person to whom this Part applies without being satisfied, having taken all such steps as are reasonable to ascertain, that the person has made appropriate arrangements for training or education.

(2) In the case of a relevant contract of employment which provides for commencement of the employment to be conditional on the employee’s having made such arrangements—
   (a) subsection (1) does not apply, but
   (b) the employer must not permit the employment to commence, at a time when the employee is a person to whom this Part applies, without being satisfied, having taken all such steps as are reasonable to ascertain, that the employee has made appropriate arrangements for training or education.

(3) Failure to comply with this section in relation to a contract of employment is not to be taken to affect the validity of the contract.

22 Financial penalty for contravention of section 21

(1) Where a relevant local education authority is satisfied that a person (“the employer”) has contravened section 21, the authority may by notice (a “penalty notice”) require the employer to pay a financial penalty.

(2) The amount of the financial penalty is to be determined in accordance with regulations.

(3) A penalty notice must state—
   (a) the ground for imposing the penalty,
   (b) the amount of the penalty,
   (c) how payment may be made,
   (d) the period within which the penalty must be paid (which must be not less than 4 weeks beginning with the date on which the notice is given), and
   (e) the consequences of non-payment.
(4) For the purposes of subsection (1), a local education is a relevant local education authority in relation to a contract of employment under which a person to whom this Part applies is employed if—
   (a) the person belongs to the authority’s area, or
   (b) the person’s place of work, or one of the places at which the person works, under the contract is in the authority’s area.

(5) Without prejudice to section 142(4), regulations under subsection (2) may make provision for penalties of different amounts to be payable in different cases or circumstances (including provision for the penalty payable under a penalty notice to differ according to the time by which it is paid).

23 Withdrawal of penalty notice given under section 22

(1) This section applies where a penalty notice has been given to a person (“the employer”) under section 22 by a local education authority (and has not already been withdrawn).

(2) The authority may withdraw the penalty notice by giving notice of the withdrawal to the employer.

(3) If a penalty notice is withdrawn under subsection (2), any sum already paid or recovered in respect of the penalty notice must be repaid to the employer with interest at the appropriate rate running from the date when the sum was paid or recovered.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) “the appropriate rate” means the rate that, on the date the sum was paid or recovered, was specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 (c. 110).

24 Duty to enable participation: initial arrangements

(1) This section applies where—
   (a) a person to whom this Part applies is employed under a relevant contract of employment, and
   (b) before commencement of the employment the person notified the employer in accordance with subsection (3) of appropriate arrangements which the person had made.

(2) The employer must permit the employee to participate in training or education in accordance with those appropriate arrangements.

(3) A person notifies an employer (or a prospective employer) of appropriate arrangements in accordance with this subsection by giving a notice which—
   (a) specifies the arrangements,
   (b) states the times when the person would need to be not at work in order to participate in training or education in accordance with those arrangements, and
   (c) if so required under subsection (4), is given in writing.

(4) Such a notice need not be given in writing, but, if it is not, the employer may, on the occasion when the notice is given, require it to be given in writing; and, if the employer does so, the notice is not to be treated as having been given until given in writing.

(5) The obligation in subsection (2) operates as a requirement, in relation to each of the times specified in the notice under subsection (3)(b) which falls during normal working time, for the employer—
   (a) if the contract was entered into before the notice was given, to offer to vary the terms and conditions of the contract of employment so as to secure that that time does not fall during normal working time, or
   (b) in any case, to permit the employee to take that time off.

(6) In this section, “normal working time”, in relation to a contract of employment, means any time when, in accordance with the contract, the employee is required to be at work.

25 Duty to enable participation: arrangements subsequently notified

(1) This section applies where—
   (a) a person to whom this Part applies is employed under a relevant contract of employment, and
   (b) after commencement of the employment the person notifies the employer in accordance with subsection (4) of appropriate arrangements which the person has made.

(2) The employer must, so far as is reasonable having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (3), permit the person to participate in training or education in accordance with those appropriate arrangements.

(3) Those matters are—
   (a) the needs of the person in order to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2;
   (b) the circumstances of the employer’s business;
   (c) the effect of the person’s absence from work on the running of that business.

(4) A person notifies an employer of appropriate arrangements in accordance with this subsection by giving a notice which—
   (a) specifies the arrangements,
   (b) states the times when the employee needs to be not at work in order to participate in education or training in accordance with those arrangements, and
   (c) if so required under subsection (5), is given in writing.

(5) Such a notice need not be given in writing but, if it is not, the employer may, on the occasion when the notice is given, require it to be given in writing; and, if the employer does so, the notice is not to be treated as having been given until given in writing.

(6) The obligation in subsection (2) operates as a requirement, in relation to each of the times specified in the notice under subsection (4)(b) which falls during normal working time, for the employer—
   (a) to offer to vary the terms and conditions of the contract of employment so as to secure that, so far as is reasonable having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (3), that time does not fall during normal working time, or

(b) so far as is reasonable having regard to those matters, to permit the employee to take that time off.

(7) In this section, “normal working time”, in relation to a contract of employment, means any time when, in accordance with the contract, the employee is required to be at work.

26 Sections 24 and 25: extension for person reaching 18

(1) This section applies where—

(a) a person to whom this Part applies is employed under a relevant contract of employment,

(b) the person reaches the age of 18, and

(c) at that time the person is participating in a course of education or training for the purpose of fulfilling the duty imposed by section 2.

(2) The person is to continue to be treated, for the purposes of sections 24, 25 and 27 to 30, as a person to whom this Part applies until one of the following occurs—

(a) the course of education or training concludes;

(b) the person reaches the age of 19;

(c) the person ceases to be resident in England;

(d) the person attains a level 3 qualification.

27 Contravention of section 24 or 25: enforcement notice

(1) This section applies where a person to whom this Part applies is employed under a relevant contract of employment.

(2) Where a relevant local education authority in England is satisfied that the employer has contravened section 24 or 25, the authority may give the employer a notice (an “enforcement notice”).

(3) An enforcement notice means a notice requiring the employer to take such steps as are specified in the notice.

(4) The steps that may be specified in the notice are—

(a) to offer to vary the terms and conditions of employment in the manner specified in the notice;

(b) to permit the employee to take time off during normal working time at the times specified in the notice.

(5) But—

(a) any variation specified under subsection (4)(a) must be a variation only for the purpose of securing that normal working time does not include any time when, in order to be able to participate in education or training in accordance with appropriate arrangements notified to the employer under section 24(1)(b) or 25(1)(b), the employee needs to be not at work;

(b) any time specified under subsection (4)(b) must be a time when the employee needs to be not at work in order to participate in education or training in accordance with appropriate arrangements so notified to the employer;

(c) in the case of an enforcement notice given in respect of a contravention of section 25, any steps specified in the notice must be steps which it would be reasonable for the employer to take having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (3) of that section.

(6) An enforcement notice must also specify—
(a) the ground on which it is imposed, and
(b) the consequences of failure to comply with any requirement imposed by it.

(7) Where an enforcement notice requires the employer to offer to vary the terms and conditions of employment under subsection (4)(a)—
(a) the employer must make the offer within the time specified in the notice,
(b) the employer’s offer must not be made directly or indirectly conditional on the employee’s agreeing to any other variation of the terms and conditions of employment, and
(c) if the employee accepts the employer’s offer to vary the terms and conditions of employment, those terms and conditions have effect subject to the variation (but subject to any subsequent variation that may be agreed between the employer and employee).

(8) Where an enforcement notice requires the employer, under subsection (4)(b), to permit the employee to take time off at specified times during normal working time, the enforcement notice remains in force until—
(a) the last of the times so specified, or
(b) if earlier, the termination of the contract of employment.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (2), a local education authority is a relevant local education authority in relation to a contract of employment under which a person to whom this Part applies is employed if—
(a) the person belongs to the authority’s area, or
(b) the person’s place of work, or one of the places at which the person works, under the contract is in the authority’s area.

(10) In this section, “normal working time”, in relation to a contract of employment, means any time when, in accordance with the contract, the employee is required to be at work.

28 Financial penalty for non-compliance with enforcement notice given under section 27

(1) This section applies where a local education authority has given an enforcement notice to a person (“the employer”) under section 27.

(2) Where the local education authority is satisfied—
(a) that the employer has failed to comply with the notice, or
(b) in the case of an enforcement notice requiring the employer to offer to vary the terms and conditions of employment by virtue of section 27(4)(a), the employee has agreed to the variation but the employer has failed to give effect to the variation, the authority may by notice (a “penalty notice”) require the employer to pay a financial penalty.

(3) The amount of the financial penalty is to be determined in accordance with regulations.

(4) A penalty notice must state—
(a) the ground for imposing the penalty,
(b) the amount of the penalty,
(c) how payment may be made,
(d) the period within which the penalty must be paid (which must be not less than 4 weeks beginning with the date on which the notice is given), and
(e) the consequences of non-payment.

(5) Without prejudice to section 142(4), regulations under subsection (3) may make provision for penalties of different amounts to be payable in different cases or circumstances (including provision for the penalty payable under a penalty notice to differ according to the time by which it is paid).

29 Withdrawal of enforcement notice given under section 27

(1) This section applies where an enforcement notice has been given to a person (“the employer”) under section 27 by a local education authority (and has not already been withdrawn).

(2) The local education authority may withdraw the enforcement notice by giving notice of the withdrawal to the employer.

(3) After the withdrawal, no penalty notice may be given under section 28 in respect of—
   (a) any failure to comply with the enforcement notice, or
   (b) any failure to give effect to any variation of terms and conditions of employment required by the enforcement notice to be offered, which occurred before the enforcement notice was withdrawn.

(4) Where an enforcement notice is withdrawn—
   (a) any penalty notice given under section 28 in respect of the enforcement notice ceases to have effect, and
   (b) any sum paid or recovered in respect of any such penalty notice must be repaid to the employer with interest at the appropriate rate running from the date when the sum was paid or recovered.

(5) In subsection (4)(b) “the appropriate rate” means the rate that, on the date the sum was paid or recovered, was specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 (c. 110).

(6) A notice of withdrawal under subsection (2) must state the effect of the withdrawal (but a failure to do so does not make the notice of withdrawal ineffective).

30 Withdrawal of penalty notice given under section 28

(1) This section applies where a penalty notice has been given to a person (“the employer”) under section 28 by a local education authority (and has not already been withdrawn).

(2) The authority may withdraw the penalty notice by giving notice of the withdrawal to the employer.

(3) If a penalty notice is withdrawn under subsection (2), any sum already paid or recovered in respect of the penalty notice must be repaid to the employer with interest at the appropriate rate running from the date when the sum was paid or recovered.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) “the appropriate rate” means the rate that, on the date the sum was paid or recovered, was specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 (c. 110).

Supplementary

31 Right not to suffer detriment

After section 47A of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (c. 18) insert—

“47AA Employees in England aged 16 or 17 participating in education or training

(1) An employee has the right not to be subjected to any detriment by any act, or any deliberate failure to act, by his employer done on the ground that, being a person entitled to be permitted to participate in education or training by section 24 or 25 of the Education and Skills Act 2008, the employee exercised, or proposed to exercise, that right.

(2) This section does not apply where the detriment in question amounts to dismissal (within the meaning of Part 10).”

32 Dismissal to be treated as unfair

After section 101A of the Employment Rights Act 1996 insert—

“101B Participation in education or training

An employee who is dismissed shall be regarded for the purposes of this Part as unfairly dismissed if the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for the dismissal is that, being a person entitled to be permitted to participate in education or training by section 24 or 25 of the Education and Skills Act 2008, the employee exercised, or proposed to exercise, that right.”

33 Other amendments of Employment Rights Act 1996

(1) The Employment Rights Act 1996 is further amended as follows.

(2) In section 63A (right to time off for young person for study or training), after subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) References in this section to an employee do not include a person to whom Part 1 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 (duty to participate in education or training for 16 and 17 year olds in England) applies, or is treated by section 26 (extension for person reaching 18) as applying.”; and, in the title, after “young person” insert “in Wales or Scotland”.

(3) In section 194 (House of Lords staff), in subsection (2)(c), after “47,” insert “47AA,”.

(4) In section 195 (House of Commons staff), in subsection (2)(c), after “47,” insert “47AA,”.
CHAPTER 4

PARENTING CONTRACTS AND PARENTING ORDERS

34 Parenting contracts

(1) This section applies where a person to whom this Part applies (“the young person”) is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2.

(2) A local education authority in England may enter into a parenting contract with a parent of the young person—
   (a) if the parent is resident in England, and
   (b) the authority considers that entering into the parenting contract would be desirable in the interests of the young person’s fulfilment of that duty.

(3) A parenting contract is a document which contains—
   (a) a statement by the parent that the parent agrees to comply with such requirements as may be specified in the document for such period as may be so specified, and
   (b) a statement by the local education authority that it agrees to provide support to the parent for the purpose of complying with those requirements.

(4) The requirements mentioned in subsection (3) may include (in particular) a requirement to attend a counselling or guidance programme.

(5) A parenting contract must be signed by the parent and signed on behalf of the local education authority.

(6) A parenting contract does not create any obligations in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort.

35 Parenting orders

(1) This section applies where a person to whom this Part applies (“the young person”) is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2.

(2) A local education authority in England may apply to a magistrates’ court for a parenting order in respect of a parent of the young person, if the parent is resident in England.

(3) If such an application is made, the court may make a parenting order in respect of the parent if it is satisfied that—
   (a) the young person is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2, and
   (b) the making of the order would be desirable in the interests of the young person’s fulfilment of that duty.

(4) A parenting order is an order which requires the parent—
   (a) to comply, for a period not exceeding 12 months, with such requirements as are specified in the order, and
   (b) subject to subsection (5), to attend, for a concurrent period not exceeding 3 months, such counselling or guidance programme as may be specified in directions given by the responsible officer.
(5) A parenting order under this section may, but need not, include a requirement mentioned in subsection (4)(b) in any case where a parenting order under this section or any other enactment has been made in respect of the parent on a previous occasion.

(6) A counselling or guidance programme which a parent is required to attend by virtue of subsection (4)(b) may be or include a residential course but only if the court is satisfied that the following two conditions are fulfilled.

(7) The first condition is that the attendance of the parent at a residential course is likely to be more effective than attendance at a non-residential course in the interests of the young person’s fulfilment of the duty imposed by section 2.

(8) The second condition is that any interference with family life which is likely to result from the attendance of the parent at a residential course is proportionate in all the circumstances.

36 Parenting orders: supplemental

(1) In deciding whether to make a parenting order under section 35, a court must take into account (amongst other things) —
   (a) any refusal by the parent to enter into a parenting contract under section 34 in respect of the person to whom this Part applies, or
   (b) if the parent has entered into such a parenting contract, any failure by the parent to comply with the requirements specified in the contract.

(2) Subsections (3) to (7) of section 9 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) (supplemental provisions about parenting orders) apply in relation to a parenting order under section 35 as they apply in relation to a parenting order under section 8 of that Act.

37 Parenting orders: appeals

(1) An appeal lies to the Crown Court against the making of a parenting order under section 35.

(2) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 10 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (appeals against parenting orders) apply in relation to an appeal under this section as they apply in relation to an appeal under subsection (1)(b) of that section.

38 Parenting contracts and parenting orders: further provisions

(1) Local education authorities in England and responsible officers must, in carrying out their functions in relation to parenting contracts under section 34 and parenting orders under section 35, have regard to the extent to which any failure by, or anything done by, a parent of a person to whom this Part applies is affecting, or is likely to affect, that person’s fulfilment of the duty imposed by section 2.

(2) Regulations may make further provision about the exercise by local education authorities in England of their functions relating to —
   (a) parenting contracts under section 34, or
   (b) parenting orders under section 35.

(3) The provision that may be made under subsection (2) includes —
(a) provision limiting the power of a local education authority to enter into a parenting contract, or apply for a parenting order, in prescribed cases;
(b) provision requiring one local education authority to consult with another before taking any prescribed step;
(c) provision requiring the provision of information by one local education authority in England to another;
(d) provision as to how the costs associated with parenting contracts under section 34 or parenting orders under section 35 (including in each case the costs of providing counselling or guidance programmes) are to be met.

(4) In this Chapter—
“parent”, in relation to a young person, is to be construed in accordance with section 576 of the Education Act 1996 (c. 56), but does not include a person who is not an individual;
“responsible officer”, in relation to a parenting order, means an officer of a local education authority who is specified in the order.

CHAPTER 5

ATTENDANCE NOTICES

Initial steps

39 Failure to fulfil duty under section 2: initial steps

(1) This section applies where it appears to a local education authority that a person to whom this Part applies and who belongs to the authority’s area is failing to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2.

(2) The authority may give a written notice to the person stating—
(a) that it appears to the authority that the person—
(i) is a person to whom this Part applies, and
(ii) is failing without reasonable excuse to fulfil that duty, and
(b) that if, after the date specified in the notice, the person appears to the authority to be failing, without reasonable excuse, to fulfil that duty, the authority may issue an attendance notice under section 40, and explaining the effect of an attendance notice.

(3) The date specified under subsection (2)(b) must not be less than 15 days after the date on which the notice is given.

(4) Subsections (5) and (6) apply where an authority proposes to give a notice to a person under subsection (2).

(5) The authority—
(a) must take all reasonable steps to secure that relevant support is offered to the person, and
(b) may not give the notice unless satisfied that the person has been afforded an opportunity to take advantage of the support offered.

(6) The authority—
(a) must give the person an opportunity to make representations, and
(b) may not give the notice—
(i) in a case within subsection (7), unless, having regard to any representations made, the person appears to the authority to have no reasonable excuse for the failure;
(ii) in any other case, if, having regard to any representations made, the person appears to the authority to have a reasonable excuse for the failure.

(7) This subsection applies where—
(a) arrangements have been made for the person to participate during the current relevant period in a course or courses constituting relevant training or education,
(b) the only failure by the person during that relevant period is that the relevant education and training to which the arrangements relate is not sufficient relevant education and training,
(c) the course has not, or the courses have not all, concluded, and
(d) further arrangements for relevant training or education after the conclusion of the course or courses could be made which would enable the person to participate in sufficient relevant training or education during the current relevant period.

(8) In subsection (5), “relevant support” means support provided by means of services made available by the local education authority in exercise of its functions under section 54.

Attendance notices

40 Attendance notice

(1) This section applies where—
(a) a local education authority has given a notice to a person under section 39(2),
(b) this Part still applies to the person, and
(c) at any time after the date specified in the notice under section 39(2)(b), it appears to the local education authority that the person is, without reasonable excuse, failing to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2.

(2) The local education authority may, before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the notice under section 39(2) was given to the person, give the person a further notice in accordance with this section (an “attendance notice”) requiring the person to participate in education or training specified in the notice.

(3) Subsections (6) and (7) of section 39 apply in relation to the giving of attendance notices as they apply in relation to the giving of notices under subsection (2) of that section.

(4) The education or training specified under subsection (2) must satisfy section 41.

(5) Where the education or training specified is education or training provided by means of a course, the attendance notice must specify—
(a) the school, college or other training or educational establishment at which the education or training is to be provided, and
(b) the name and description of the course.
(6) Where the education or training specified is training provided in accordance with a contract of apprenticeship otherwise than by a course, the attendance notice must specify prescribed details of the contract of apprenticeship.

(7) An attendance notice given to a person must specify—
   (a) the place or places at which the person is required to attend,
   (b) the time or times at which the person is required to attend,
   (c) the person or persons to whom the person must present himself or herself, and may specify other prescribed requirements relating to the description of education or training specified in the notice.

(8) An attendance notice must state—
   (a) the period for which the notice has effect,
   (b) the consequences of failing to comply with any requirement imposed by the notice, and
   (c) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(9) An attendance notice given by a local education authority to a person has effect for the period beginning with the day on which it is given and ending with—
   (a) the last day on which the person is a person to whom this Part applies, or
   (b) if earlier, the day on which it is revoked.

41 Attendance notice: description of education or training

(1) This section must be satisfied in relation to education or training specified in an attendance notice given to a person to whom this Part applies by a local education authority.

(2) The education or training must be provided—
   (a) at a school, college or other training or educational establishment by means of a course, or
   (b) in accordance with a contract of apprenticeship.

(3) The education or training must be such that, by participating in it, the young person would fulfil the duty imposed by section 2.

(4) For that purpose, account may be taken of any contract of employment of the person or other arrangement under which the person works.

(5) The education or training must be suitable for the person.

(6) Where the education or training is to be provided by means of a course, the local education authority—
   (a) must have consulted the governing body or proprietor of the school, college or other training or educational establishment at which the education or training is to be provided, and
   (b) must have made arrangements, or be satisfied that arrangements have been made, for the education or training to be provided there for the person.

(7) Where the education or training is to be provided by means of a course, the local education authority must have consulted the employer in relation to the contract of apprenticeship.
42 Attendance panel

(1) A local education authority in England must establish a panel (an “attendance panel”), constituted in accordance with regulations.

(2) An attendance panel of a local education authority in England has the following functions—
   (a) functions conferred on it by virtue of section 43 in relation to appeals against attendance notices;
   (b) functions conferred on it by virtue of section 44(6)(b);
   (c) functions conferred on it by section 46(5) and (6);
   (d) functions conferred on it by virtue of section 48 in relation to appeals against fixed penalty notices.

(3) Regulations under subsection (1)—
   (a) must require a local education authority to secure that any person who chairs an attendance panel is not a member of the authority; and
   (b) may make provision for the payment by the local education authority of allowances to members of an appeal panel.

(4) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (3)(b) may provide for any of the provisions of sections 173 to 174 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) (allowances to members of local authorities and other bodies) to apply with prescribed modifications in relation to members of an attendance panel.

43 Appeal arrangements

(1) A local education authority in England must make arrangements for enabling a young person to whom an attendance notice is given by the authority to appeal against—
   (a) the giving of the attendance notice;
   (b) the description of education or training specified in the attendance notice;
   (c) any variation of the notice—
      (i) under subsection (2) of section 44;
      (ii) by virtue of subsection (5) or (6)(b) of that section.

(2) The arrangements must provide for any appeal under the arrangements to be to an attendance panel established under section 42.

(3) Regulations may make provision about the making of appeals under arrangements under this section, including provision—
   (a) as to the procedure on such appeals; and
   (b) as to the powers of the attendance panel in relation to such appeals.

44 Variation and revocation of attendance notice

(1) Subsection (2) applies where a local education authority has given an attendance notice under section 40 to a person to whom this Part applies.

(2) If the attendance notice still has effect when—
   (a) the education or training specified in the notice ends, or
(b) it becomes impracticable for the person to comply with the requirements specified in the notice because of a change of residence, the local education authority may by notice to the person specify other education or training.

(3) Subsections (5) to (7) and (8)(c) of section 40 apply in relation to specifying education or training under subsection (2) as they apply in relation to the giving of an attendance notice.

(4) Where the local education authority gives a notice under subsection (2), the attendance notice has effect as if it specified the education or training specified in the notice under that subsection.

(5) Prescribed matters specified in an attendance notice given by a local education authority may be varied by the authority by notice given to the person to whom the attendance notice was given.

(6) Regulations may provide for other matters specified in an attendance notice given by a local education authority to be varied—
   (a) with the consent of the person to whom the notice was given, or
   (b) with the consent of an attendance panel established by the local education authority under section 42.

(7) An attendance notice given by a local education authority may be revoked by the authority by notice given to the person to whom the attendance notice was given.

45 Offence of failure to comply with attendance notice

(1) It is an offence for a person to whom an attendance notice has been given to fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the requirements of the attendance notice.

(2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to show that he or she is, and since the giving of the attendance notice has been, fulfilling the duty imposed by section 2.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale.

46 Restrictions on proceedings for offences under section 45

(1) This section applies to proceedings for an alleged offence under section 45 relating to an attendance notice.

(2) The proceedings may not be instituted except by the local education authority which gave the attendance notice.

(3) The proceedings may not be instituted if the attendance notice has been—
   (a) rescinded on an appeal by virtue of section 43, or
   (b) revoked under section 44(7).

(4) The proceedings may not be instituted unless—
(a) a penalty notice has been given under section 47 in respect of the alleged offence and has not been rescinded on an appeal by virtue of section 48, and
(b) the penalty imposed by the notice has not been paid in accordance with the notice.

(5) The proceedings may not be instituted unless—
(a) the local education authority has consulted an attendance panel established by it under section 42, and
(b) the panel has recommended to the local education authority that the proceedings should be instituted.

(6) In considering whether to make a recommendation under subsection (5)(b), an attendance panel must invite the person alleged to have committed the offence under section 45 to make representations to it.

(7) The proceedings may not be instituted after this Part has ceased to apply to the person alleged to have committed the offence under section 45.

(8) Subsection (7) does not affect proceedings for such an offence by a person which were instituted while this Part applied to the person.
