Appendices

Letter from the Secretary of State for Wales to the Chairman of the Committee

I have today laid the draft National Assembly for Wales (Legislative Competence) (Culture and Other Fields) Order 2010 before Parliament for approval by both Houses. The draft LCO was approved by the National Assembly for Wales yesterday.

I would like to thank the Welsh Affairs Select Committee for undertaking a thorough and valuable inquiry into the proposed Order. I was pleased to note that the Committee welcomed the powers for the National Assembly to legislate.

The Committee noted that matter 2.1 in the proposed LCO differed in its drafting from matters 3.1 and 16.4 in referring specifically to local authority functions in the support, improvement and promotion of the appreciation by the public of archaeological remains and ancient monuments. The other matters in the LCO make no reference to public appreciation. The Committee's view was that the rationale for this difference should be set out in the Explanatory Memorandum (EM), and this has been done (at paragraph 7.10). The wording has been retained in the LCO in order to reflect the focus of the One Wales commitment on delivery of services and activities to the public. Unlike the other matters, many local authority functions under matter 2.1 are regulatory in nature and are not within the ambit of the One Wales commitment. The wording of the matter ensures that these regulatory functions do not come within scope.

The Committee also recommended that the use of the words "public appreciation" and "public awareness" should be standardised across the Order and EM. The Welsh Assembly Government has carefully reviewed the use of these terms, and believes their meanings are clear in both documents. In particular, it believes that the term "public appreciation" in matter 2.1 (and discussed above), and the phrase "local communities are made aware" in paragraph 7.4 of the enclosed EM, are appropriate in their respective contexts.

The Committee also agreed with Assembly Legislation Committee No. 4 that there is an inconsistency in the way in which fixed exceptions relating to public rights of access, library services and archives are drafted, which would allow the Assembly to legislate to strengthen provision in relation to access rights and libraries but not local authority archives. The Assembly Committee also recommended that all the fixed exceptions be removed from the Order, taking the view that it was important for the Assembly to have powers to legislate in all the areas covered by matters 2.1 and 3.1.

The LCO has been revised to remove these fixed exceptions. The UK and Welsh Assembly Governments, having considered these recommendations carefully, accept the Assembly Committee's view, concluding that removing the fixed exceptions gives the Assembly appropriate flexibility in this area and makes the competence contained in the LCO more coherent. The effect of the removal of these fixed exceptions is that the matters will encompass the local authority functions to which the exceptions related.

In considering the recommendations, we have borne in mind previous comments made by the Committee that LCOs should be drafted with the aims of clarity and simplicity in mind, and that excessive use of exceptions risks making the settlement unwieldy.

Following careful consideration of the scope of matters 3.1 and 16.4, the UK and Welsh Assembly Governments agreed to insert an exception relating to the 'licensing of sale and supply of alcohol, provision of entertainment and late night refreshment'. The phrasing of this exception mirrors the exception contained in Subject 12 of Part I of Schedule 7 to the 2006 Act. It bites only on matters 3.1 and 16.4 and so applies specifically to these matters.

We also carefully considered the extent to which the six floating exceptions related to the three matters in the proposed LCO. We concluded that the competence provided by these matters would not extend to the areas covered by the following general exceptions: Broadcasting, Government indemnities for objects on loan and payments to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs in respect of property accepted in satisfaction of tax, (apart from property in which there is a Welsh national interest). These general exceptions have been removed from the LCO as they have no substantive effect on the competence conferred by it.

The following general exceptions have been retained in the LCO: Public lending right, Classification of films and video recordings, and Betting, gaming and lotteries. A provision of an Assembly Measure will not be within competence if it falls within these general exceptions, which apply to all matters in Schedule 5.

I enclose a copy of the draft Order and the Explanatory Memorandum.

I am copying this letter to Lord Goodlad, Chairman of the Lords Constitution Committee.

Explanatory Memorandum to the National Assembly for Wales (Legislative Competence) (Culture and Other Fields) Order 2010

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by The Wales Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

2.1 The primary purpose of the Order is to provide the National Assembly for Wales (“the Assembly”) with legislative competence in the fields of ancient monuments and historic buildings, culture and sport and recreation. The Welsh Assembly Government’s One Wales Programme of Government contains a commitment to place a statutory duty on local authorities to promote culture and encourage partnership to deliver high quality cultural experiences for their communities.

2.2 The Order inserts one matter into each of the following three fields: field 2 (ancient monuments and historic buildings), field 3 (culture) and field 16 (sport and recreation) in Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the Government of Wales Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”). This would enable the Assembly to legislate in these areas by way of Assembly Measure.

3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

None

4. Legislative Context

4.1 The constitutional context to this request is set out by the 2006 Act and the UK Government’s policy, contained in the White Paper “Better Governance for Wales”. Section 95 of the 2006 Act empowers Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to confer competence on the Assembly to legislate by Assembly Measure on specified matters. Matters may be added to the fields within Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the 2006 Act. Assembly Measures may make any provision which could be made by Act of Parliament, in relation to matters, subject to the limitations provided for in the 2006 Act. An Order in Council under Section 95 of the 2006 Act is referred to as a Legislative Competence Order (“LCO”) in this Memorandum. Attached at Annex A is a copy of Schedule 5 to the 2006 Act showing the legislative competence that the Assembly has acquired to date.

- 4.2 The current law in relation to culture encompasses a general local authority power and a series of specific powers and duties which are conferred by a wide range of legislation.
- 4.3 The widest power can be found in section 2 of the Local Government Act 2000. This power enables local authorities to do anything to promote or improve the economic, social or environmental well-being of their areas. The power may be exercised for the benefit of all or any persons in a local authority's area. In determining whether or how to exercise this power a local authority must have regard to its community strategy and to any guidance issued by the Welsh Ministers. This power is further limited in that:
- (i) it cannot be used by local authorities to do anything that they are unable to do by virtue of any prohibition, restriction or limitation on their powers that is contained in any other enactment;
 - (ii) it does not enable a local authority to raise money (whether by precepts, borrowing or otherwise); and
 - (iii) the Welsh Ministers may by order make provision preventing local authorities from doing, by virtue of this power, anything that is specified, or is of a description specified, in that order.
- 4.4 This wide-ranging power, in conjunction with other specific powers and duties, means that local authorities have extensive powers to provide cultural services and activities. The majority of these powers are permissive in that they do not place actual duties on local authorities to provide the majority of such services and activities.
- 4.5 There are however some exceptions to this position. The key areas of cultural provision where local authorities have statutory duties are:
- Library services – The Public Libraries and Museums Act 1964 places a duty on local authorities to provide a comprehensive and efficient library service. Libraries are therefore a statutory service that local authorities in Wales are obliged to provide;
 - Archive services – The Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 places a duty on local authorities to make and maintain a scheme setting out their arrangements for the proper care, preservation and management of their records - both historical archives and records which belong to or are in the custody of the council;

- Public access to monuments under public control – The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 places a duty on local authorities to provide public access to monuments under their ownership or guardianship;
- Allotments – The Small Holdings and Allotments Act 1908 places a duty on local authorities to assess the demand for allotments within their area and to provide and let a sufficient number of allotments according to that demand.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

Although this instrument extends to the whole of the United Kingdom, its practical application is limited to Wales. The LCO would permit the Assembly to legislate by Measure in relation to the specified functions of local authorities in Wales. There is no provision within the LCO that would enable the Assembly to legislate in relation to English local authority functions.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

Wayne David MP, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Wales, has made the following statement:

“In my view the provisions of The National Assembly for Wales (Legislative Competence) (Culture and Other Fields) Order 2010 are compatible with the Convention rights”

7. Policy background

7.1 Culture is not a luxury. Its importance as a vital element of everyone's lives, everyday, should be recognised. Welsh culture has and continues to play a fundamental role in the creation of Welsh national identity. At the national level it is one of the most important tools in attracting those who want to work, learn, visit and invest in Wales - the Welsh arts and creative industries play an important part in the Welsh economy and contribute to the prosperity of Wales; cultural tourism, the built heritage and major cultural events generate income for Wales. At the local level culture is an important element of community regeneration; cultural activities are widely recognised as an essential element of developing and sustaining community cohesion; sport and recreational activities are an essential element of the health and well-being agenda; culture is an essential part of the education and development of children, young people and lifelong learning and makes an important contribution to adult skills development. At the individual level cultural activities bring pleasure and wellbeing into people's lives.

- 7.2 The Welsh Assembly Government's aim is to widen participation in the full range of artistic, cultural, sporting and recreational services and activities. People's background, their level of income or where they live should not be a barrier to access to, and participation in, high quality cultural experiences. The One Wales Programme of Government contains a commitment aimed at promoting arts and culture and encouraging sport and recreational activity.

Rationale

- 7.3 The key role that Welsh local authorities play in the provision of cultural services and activities in their own local communities is fully recognised. It is in this context that One Wales identified as a key area strengthening and supporting the role of local authorities in the development and delivery of arts and cultural services and activities across Wales. However, at the current time, the Assembly does not have the necessary legislative competence over this subject area with which to consider updating the legislative framework to respond to the particular cultural needs and aspirations in Wales.
- 7.4 The current permissive legislative framework has resulted in variations in the range and quality of the local authority cultural services and activities provided across Wales. To respond to this need, One Wales contains a commitment to place a statutory duty on local authorities to promote culture and encourage partnership to deliver high quality cultural experiences for their communities. The aim of the One Wales commitment is to improve the delivery of high quality cultural experiences across the whole of Wales by placing local authority cultural services and activities on a statutory footing. By doing so, this could help to:
- enhance the contribution of cultural activities to cross cutting agendas such as regeneration, health and social inclusion, and to sharpen the focus on local authority performance in such areas;
 - raise the profile of cultural activities and the crucial role local authorities play in promoting and supporting them;
 - improve cultural service provision by local authorities over time;
 - ensure that local communities are made aware of the local authority cultural services and activities available to them;
 - increase access to and participation in local authority cultural services and activities, particularly for those groups of people that are not currently engaged or are under engaged in this provision, so that participation is not dependent on where people live or their background;

- encourage local authorities to co-operate with each other and with a range of organisations such as public bodies, the third sector, associations and clubs in order to promote and deliver their cultural services and activities through the greater use of partnerships.

7.5 The current permissive statutory position in relation to local authority cultural services and activities means that it is not possible to achieve the policy aim of the One Wales commitment without new legislation. Issuing guidance to local authorities (which the Welsh Assembly Government could do under existing powers) which is not backed by a statutory duty would not achieve the policy aim of the One Wales commitment as set out in paragraph 7.4 above.

7.6 The Welsh Assembly Government is mindful that in taking forward the One Wales commitment there is a need to preserve the flexibility of individual local authorities to determine and meet the cultural service needs of their own communities. There is also a need to ensure that putting culture on a statutory footing does not create a minimum standard which could have the unwanted impact of lowering provision in some areas rather than securing improvement.

7.7 The LCO will provide the necessary competence to enable the Welsh Assembly Government to propose an Assembly Measure that will implement the One Wales commitment and achieve its policy objectives.

Scope

7.8 The LCO confers further legislative competence on the Assembly by inserting one matter into each of the following fields; Field 2 (Ancient Monuments and Historic Buildings), Field 3 (Culture) and Field 16 (Sport and Recreation) in Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the 2006 Act, to enable the Assembly to legislate in these areas by way of Assembly Measure.

Matter 2.1- archaeological remains, ancient monuments, buildings and places of historical or architectural interest, and historic wrecks.

7.9 Article 2(2) inserts matter 2.1 into Field 2. This matter provides the Assembly with legislative competence in relation to the functions of local authorities in the support, improvement and promotion of the appreciation by the public of archaeological remains, ancient monuments, buildings and places of historical or architectural interest and historic wrecks.

7.10 Matter 2.1 is worded differently to matters 3.1 and 16.4 in that it includes the words 'the appreciation by the public of' which the other two matters do not. The One Wales commitment is aimed at delivery of services and activities to the public. Many of the local authority functions in relation to the areas covered by matter 2.1 are regulatory in nature and do not necessarily result in services or activities being delivered to the public. These words have been included to encompass those local authority functions that are relevant to the One Wales commitment.

Matter 3.1 - museums, galleries and libraries, arts and crafts, archives and historical records, and cultural activities and projects

- 7.11 Article 2(3) inserts matter 3.1 into Field 3. The matter provides the Assembly with legislative competence in relation to the functions of local authorities in the support, improvement and promotion of museums, galleries and libraries, arts and crafts, archives and historical records, and cultural activities and projects. The matter does not include licensing the sale and supply of alcohol, provision of entertainment and late night refreshment (see paragraph 8.7).

Matter 16.4 – sport and recreation

- 7.12 Article 2(4) inserts matter 16.4 into Field 16. The matter provides the Assembly with legislative competence in relation to the functions of local authorities in the support, improvement and promotion of sport and recreational activities. It also excludes licensing the sale and supply of alcohol, provision of entertainment and late night refreshment (see paragraph 8.7).
- 7.13 Each of these matters is concerned with the functions of local authorities. ‘Function’ is a term defined in section 158(1) of the 2006 Act as meaning ‘power or duty’.
- 7.14 The application of these matters is specifically linked to the support, improvement or promotion of local authority cultural provision. The matters reflect the wording used in section 60 and 61 of the 2006 Act and section 2 of the Local Government Act 2000. The wording encompasses functions that will enable the policy aim of the One Wales commitment to be achieved including, by way of example, functions of finance, planning, consultation, collaboration and co-operation.
- 7.15 Competence is limited to the functions of local authorities. Local authorities are defined as meaning “councils of counties and county boroughs in Wales”.

Minister of the Crown functions

- 7.16 By virtue of Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the 2006 Act, a provision of an Assembly Measure cannot confer or impose any function on a Minister of the Crown. By virtue of Parts 2 and 3 of Schedule 5 of the 2006 Act, a provision of an Assembly Measure cannot remove or modify any function of a Minister of the Crown without the consent of the Secretary of State. The LCO has no impact on any Minister of the Crown functions.

8. Consultation Outcome

- 8.1 There has been no consultation on this Order. However, it has been subject to pre-legislative scrutiny in both the Assembly and Parliament, and submissions of evidence were invited as part of their inquiries.
- 8.2 Any Assembly Measure brought forward as a result of the legislative competence conferred by this instrument would usually first be subject to consultation. Assembly Measures are a matter for the Assembly to consider.

Changes to the Proposed LCO following Pre-Legislative Scrutiny

- 8.3 Pre-legislative scrutiny of the proposed LCO was undertaken by the House of Lords Constitution Committee, the National Assembly for Wales Legislation Committee No 4 and the House of Commons Welsh Affairs Committee. The Committees published their findings on 15 October, 9 November and 7 December 2009 respectively.
- 8.4 The Welsh Affairs Committee recommended changes to the Explanatory Memorandum to clarify the use of the words 'support, improvement and promotion' in the LCO. These changes have been made. The Committee also recommended the use of the words 'public appreciation' and 'public awareness' be standardised across the LCO and EM. The Welsh Assembly Government has carefully reviewed the use of these terms, and believes their meanings are clear in both documents.
- 8.5 A key recommendation of the National Assembly for Wales Legislation Committee No.4 was that the fixed exceptions contained within matters 2.1 and 3.1 should be removed. The Committee took the view that it was important for the Assembly to have powers to legislate in all the areas covered by matters 2.1 and 3.1.
- 8.6 The LCO has been revised to remove these fixed exceptions. The Welsh Assembly and UK Governments, having considered this recommendation carefully, accept the Committee's view, concluding that removing the exceptions gives the Assembly appropriate flexibility in this area and makes the competence contained in the LCO more coherent.

The effect of the removal of these fixed exceptions is that the matters will encompass the local authority functions to which the exceptions related.

- 8.7 Following careful consideration of the scope of matters 3.1 and 16.4, the Welsh Assembly Government and the UK Government have agreed to insert an exception relating to the 'licensing of sale and supply of alcohol, provision of entertainment and late night refreshment'. The phrasing of this exception mirrors the exception contained in Subject 12 of Part 1 of Schedule 7 to the 2006 Act. It bites only on matters 3.1 and 16.4, and so applies specifically to these matters.
- 8.8 The National Assembly for Wales Legislation Committee No.4 recommended that the wording 'of the appreciation by the public' be removed from matter 2.1. This wording has been retained in the LCO as it encompasses those local authority functions that are relevant to the One Wales commitment.
- 8.9 The House of Lords Constitution Committee concluded that the LCO does not raise any matters of constitutional principle. It noted that, looking forward, the Committee may want to take a closer look at the evolving constitutional relationship between the Welsh Assembly Government and local authorities in Wales.

Article 3 - General exceptions

- 8.10 The proposed LCO contained general exceptions that applied to all matters in Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the 2006 Act. Article 3 of the proposed LCO included the following six general or 'floating' exceptions:
- Public lending right.
 - Broadcasting.
 - Classification of films, and video recordings.
 - Government indemnities for objects on loan.
 - Payments to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs in respect of property accepted in satisfaction of tax, apart from property in which there is a Welsh national interest.
 - Betting, gaming and lotteries.
- 8.11 These exceptions mirror the exceptions contained in Subjects 3 and 16 of Part 1 of Schedule 7 to the 2006 Act.
- 8.12 Following pre-legislative scrutiny, the Welsh Assembly and UK Governments carefully considered the extent to which the six floating exceptions relate to the three matters in the LCO. They concluded that the competence provided by these matters would not extend to the areas covered by the following general exceptions contained within Article 3 of the proposed LCO: Broadcasting, Government indemnities for objects on loan and Payments to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs in respect of property accepted in satisfaction of tax, apart from property in which there is a Welsh national interest. These general exceptions have been removed from the LCO as they have no substantive effect on the competence conferred by it.

- 8.13 The following general exceptions have been retained in the LCO: Public lending right, Classification of films and video recordings and Betting, gaming and lotteries. A provision of an Assembly Measure will not be within competence if it falls within these general exceptions, which apply to all matters in Schedule 5.

9. Guidance

No guidance has been, or will be, issued in relation to this LCO. This Explanatory Memorandum explains the scope and policy context of matters included in the LCO.

10. Impact

A Regulatory Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it only confers legislative competence on the Assembly, and so has no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies. The Welsh Assembly Government would prepare a Regulatory Impact Assessment when bringing forward any proposed Assembly Measures as a result of the legislative competence this LCO confers.

11. Regulating small business

This legislation does not apply to small business.

12. Monitoring & review

This LCO confers legislative competence on the Assembly. The monitoring or review of any Assembly Measures brought forward as a result of this legislative competence is primarily a matter for the Welsh Assembly Government and/or the Assembly.
