 - (b) it may lead to information that assists the investigation of the offence;

- (c) it may lead to information that assists the arrested person; or
- (d) the conduct of the arrested person's defence at trial is likely to be substantially prejudiced if the direction is not given.
- (3) A direction may be made or reviewed –

- (b) on the application of a Chief Constable or prosecuting authority;
- (c) on the application of any other person who is considered by a judge of the Crown Court to have a sufficient interest; or
- (d) by the Court of its own motion.
- (4) A direction shall be made under subsection (1) to the extent necessary to give effect to a joint application that is made under this section by – 10
- (a) the arrested person; and
- (b) a Chief Constable or prosecuting authority.
- (5) Any direction under this section may either disapply section 1 in its entirety or in relation to specified matters and time periods only. 15
