1. On 27 October, the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards sent us a memorandum, reporting on his inquiry into allegations made against Ms Margaret Moran, concerning her use of Additional Costs Allowance when she was the Member for Luton South. On 28 October, we received a letter from the Metropolitan Police Service, informing us that they are investigating allegations about Ms Moran's claims and inviting us to consider the possible implications of publishing a Report on Ms Moran for the fairness of any potential criminal proceedings.

2. In accordance with procedures agreed in 2008 between the Committee on Standards and Privileges, the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards and the Metropolitan Police,¹ we have decided to postpone our consideration of the Commissioner's memorandum, to allow time for the question of possible criminal proceedings to be resolved.
