105. IMMIGRATION AND SOCIAL SECURITY CO-ORDINATION (EU WITHDRAWAL) BILL: SECOND READING*Sir Vince Cable*Sir Edward Davey*Jo Swinson*Tom Brake*Christine Jardine*Mr Alistair Carmichael

Wera Hobhouse

Layla Moran

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the Immigration and Social Security Co-ordination (EU Withdrawal) Bill because the Bill fails to secure the rights of British citizens to live, work and study in other EU Member States and the rights of EU citizens to do likewise in the UK; fails to fully guarantee the rights of British citizens across the EU and EU citizens already in the UK; fails to establish an immigration system to replace free movement that would allow businesses and public services to recruit the workers they need; contains no provisions to dismantle the hostile environment or to make the immigration system simpler and fairer; and denies parliamentary sovereignty by granting excessive powers to the Government to make changes to immigration law without primary legislation.

Stuart C. McDonald

Ian Blackford

Kirsty Blackman

Joanna Cherry

Gavin Newlands

Patrick Grady

This House declines to give a Second Reading to the Immigration and Social Security Co-ordination (EU Withdrawal) Bill because it ends free movement of people, despite free movement bringing huge benefits for the UK and for UK citizens as well as for EU nationals, because the Bill is inconsistent with continued membership of the European Union, because the Bill is premature in that the White Paper consultation on future immigration policy is scheduled to last until the end of 2019, because the Bill provides the Government with unreasonably broad powers of delegated legislation, because the Bill fails to provide sufficient protections and guarantees for EU citizens already in the UK and will instead subject them to the risk of hostile environment measures introduced in previous immigration legislation and other unacceptable policies, because the Bill fails to recognise the hugely negative impact that ending free movement of people would have on Scotland, and because the Bill fails to provide a differentiated migration policy for Scotland or to devolve immigration powers so that the Scottish Government and Parliament can take the necessary action to reverse the damage these measures would cause.
