Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add "considers that the most effective means of determining the position of the House on any negotiated withdrawal agreement and future framework presented by the Government for approval by the House is through a ballot on all options commanding support in the House, conducted under a method in which Members may rank their preferences; and accordingly orders that, notwithstanding the practice of the House in deciding questions on motions, in relation to any motion moved by a Minister of the Crown pursuant to section 13(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("the European Union withdrawal motion"), no amendment to the question proposed from the Chair may be selected or moved, and the question shall be decided by a ballot under the following arrangements:

(1) 90 minutes before the scheduled end of proceedings on the European Union withdrawal motion, the Speaker shall interrupt the debate and initiate the ballot on the question; and proceedings shall then be suspended until the outcome of the ballot is announced from the Chair.

(2) (a) The ballot shall take place in the lobbies.

(b) Each Member intending to vote shall be provided with a ballot paper listing each text entered into the ballot, together with the name of the Member proposing the text.

(c) Members shall vote for their preferred text using the method set out in Standing Order No. 122B (11)(d) (Election of select committee chairs).

(d) 30 minutes after the initiation of the ballot, the Speaker shall declare it closed; and counting shall then take place under arrangements made by the Clerk of the House.

(e) The Speaker shall have power to give final directions on any matter of doubt arising from the conduct of the ballot or from an individual ballot paper.

(3) The text of any question proposed from the Chair is eligible for entry in the ballot.

(4) Any text proposing an amendment to the question shall be eligible for entry in the ballot provided that:

- (a) it has been signed by at least 50 Members; and
  - (b) notice of the proposed amendment has been given, and that notice has been published on the Order Paper.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the ballot has closed, the Speaker shall:
- (a) resume proceedings on the European Union withdrawal motion;
  - (b) announce from the Chair the text which has received more than half the votes;
  - (c) put forthwith either
    - (i) the question originally proposed from the Chair, if the text of that question has received more than half the votes; or
    - (ii) the question on the European Union withdrawal motion, as amended by the text which has received more than half the votes.
- (6) As soon as possible after the conclusion of the ballot the Speaker shall cause to be published a table indicating the ranking given to each text by each Member casting a ballot.”.

Line 1, leave out from “House” to end and add “orders that on Tuesday 26th February–

(1) Standing Order No.14(1) (which provides that government business shall have precedence at every sitting save as provided in that order) shall not apply;

(2) The motions set out below shall be in the name of the Chairman of Ways & Means and shall be debated and the questions put without amendment at the conclusion of those proceedings:

- (a) That this House approves of Option 1 (a further vote on the draft Withdrawal Agreement and Framework for the Future Relationship) as set out in paragraphs 15 to 19 of the Eleventh Report of the Exiting the European Union Select Committee Session 2017-19.

(b) That this House approves of Option 2 (leaving the EU with no deal on 29 March 2019) as set out in paragraphs 15 to 19 of the Eleventh Report of the Exiting the European Union Select Committee Session 2017-19.

(c) That this House approves of Option 3(a) (seeking changes to the text of the Withdrawal Agreement on the backstop arrangements) as set out in paragraphs 15 to 19 of the Eleventh Report of the Exiting the European Union Select Committee Session 2017-19.

(d) That this House approves of Option 3(b) (seeking a Canada-style deal) as set out in paragraphs 15 to 19 of the Eleventh Report of the Exiting the European Union Select Committee Session 2017-19.

(e) That this House approves of Option 3(c) (seeking to join the EEA through the EFTA pillar and remaining in a customs union with the EU) as set out in paragraphs 15 to 19 of the Eleventh Report of the Exiting the European Union Select Committee Session 2017-19.

(f) That this House approves of Option 4 (that a public vote should be held to allow the British people the opportunity to decide either which kind of Brexit deal they want or whether they wish to remain in the EU) as set out in paragraphs 15 to 19 of the Eleventh Report of the Exiting the European Union Select Committee Session 2017-19.

(3) Debate may continue for up to six and a half hours after its commencement, though opposed, and shall not be interrupted at the moment of interruption and Standing Order No.41A (deferred divisions) shall not apply;

(4) At the conclusion of those proceedings, the Speaker shall put the question necessary to dispose of the proceedings on each motion;

(5) In the event that only one of the six motions in paragraph (2) is approved, the Prime Minister is instructed to pursue that option in good faith and report back to the House in an oral statement on Tuesday 5 March 2019 and to make a request to the European Council for an extension to the Article 50(3) timetable necessary to pursue that resolution;

(6) In the event that two or more of the six motions in paragraph (2) are approved, the Prime Minister is instructed to immediately prepare for a public referendum giving the British people the opportunity to determine which of those options should be pursued and shall introduce legislation to facilitate that referendum at the earliest opportunity and shall make a request to the European Council for an extension to the Article 50(3) timetable necessary to pursue that referendum and those resolutions;

(7) In the event that none of the six motions in paragraph (2) is approved, the Prime Minister is instructed to immediately prepare for a public referendum on whether the United Kingdom should leave the European Union on the terms of the Withdrawal Agreement and Framework for the Future Relationship agreed at the European Council on 25 November 2018, or whether the United Kingdom should remain a member of the European Union, and the Prime Minister shall introduce legislation to facilitate that referendum at the earliest opportunity and shall make a request to the European Council for an extension to the Article 50(3) timetable necessary to pursue that referendum."

Amendment (g)*Jonathan Edwards*Hywel Williams*Liz Saville Roberts*Ben Lake

Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add "notes that the National Assembly for Wales, the Scottish Parliament and the House of Commons all voted overwhelmingly to reject the Prime Minister's deal; recognises that the National Assembly for Wales and the Scottish Parliament voted convincingly in favour of a People's Vote; further notes that this House rejected the UK's leaving the EU without a withdrawal agreement and a future relationship framework; and therefore calls on the Government to honour the respective will of each Parliament by seeking more time under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union to ensure passage of the necessary legislation to ratify the Withdrawal Agreement, which should include provision for a binding referendum on either accepting the Withdrawal Agreement or retaining membership of the European Union, or, if the Government is unable to secure such additional time under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union for a pre-ratification referendum, seeking to include in a revised political declaration a commitment for the UK to hold a referendum at the end of the transition period on either accepting the terms of the UK's future relationship with the European Union or re-joining the European Union under the terms of the UK's existing membership, and accordingly including provision for a referendum at the end of the transition period in the Withdrawal Agreement Bill needed for ratifying the Withdrawal Agreement."

Amendment (h)*Geraint Davies*Janet Daby*Tonia Antoniazzi*Ruth Cadbury*Jonathan Edwards*Ben Lake

Mr Chris Leslie

Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add "notes that the negotiated Withdrawal Agreement and framework for the future relationship between the UK and the EU were rejected by a majority of 230 votes on 15 January; notes that on 29 January this House rejected the UK's leaving the EU without a withdrawal agreement and a future relationship framework; notes that in the present circumstances no withdrawal agreement can be passed by this House without the support or at least abstention of Members on the Opposition benches; and, in the light of these facts, in order to avoid a catastrophic no-deal exit on 29 March and secure ratification of the Withdrawal Agreement, calls on the Government to make firm commitments to this House which must include: seeking more time under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union to ensure passage of the necessary legislation, planning for the UK to adopt dynamic alignment after exit with EU rights and protections, continuing participation after exit in EU agencies and funding programmes, leaving options open for this or a future Government to seek a permanent comprehensive UK-wide customs union with the EU and a retained close alignment with the single market, and voter ratification by a public vote to either accept the Withdrawal Agreement or remain a member state of the European Union.”.

13(1)(b) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 by 27 February 2019, the Prime Minister to immediately seek an extension of the period of two years specified in Article 50 (3) of the Treaty on European Union for the purposes of a referendum on whether to exit the European Union under the terms of the negotiated Withdrawal Agreement or stay in membership of the European Union.”.

Amendment (b)

Mr Roger Godsiff

At end, add “; and furthermore believes that an extension to Article 50 should be requested in order to enable legislation, associated with any agreement, to be enacted and to enable any final agreement between the UK Government and the EU, once it has been approved by Parliament and mindful of the fact that the original decision was made by the electorate, not Parliament, to be put to a referendum of the electorate with three questions on the ballot paper, namely to accept the agreement; to reject the agreement and to leave the EU without an agreement; or to reject the agreement and remain in the EU, and that the voting take place using the alternative vote method whereby each of the three options are voted upon in preference and if a 50 per cent majority is not achieved on the first ballot then the second preferences of the eliminated option are redistributed to achieve a majority outcome on the second ballot.”.
