Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add, "rejects the Government's withdrawal agreement and the framework for the future relationship with the EU; recognises the resolutions of the Scottish Parliament and Welsh Assembly on 5 March 2019 to oppose the UK Government's exit deal and agree that a no deal outcome to the current negotiations on EU withdrawal would be completely unacceptable on 29 March 2019, or at any time; recalls the endorsement of this House of the Claim of Right for Scotland on 4 July 2018, recognising the sovereign right of the Scottish people to determine the form of government best suited to their needs; notes that people in Scotland voted decisively by 62 per cent to remain in the European Union in the referendum held in June 2016 and believes Scotland should not be forced to leave the EU against its will; believes the way the interests of Scotland have been ignored throughout the Brexit process demonstrates beyond doubt the UK Government's contempt for the idea of the UK as a partnership of equal nations; and further believes that the best future for Scotland lies in it becoming, like so many of its neighbours, a full, equal, sovereign, independent Member State of the European Union."

Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add ", in view of the urgency of resolving the present crisis over the United Kingdom's future relationship with the European Union, resolves to give that matter priority over all other Government business up to and including Thursday 28 March; and orders that, notwithstanding Standing Order No. 14\(1\), which gives precedence to Government business, the first item of public business on any sitting day up to and including Thursday 28 March shall be an amendable Business of the House motion to approve the agenda set down for that day by the Government, unless in the opinion of the Speaker the principal business set down for that day relates to the UK's relationship with the EU."

Amendment (g)Geraint Davies*Ben Lake*Tom Brake*John Grogan*Jonathan Edwards

Line 1, leave out from House to end and add "notes that on Tuesday 29 January 2019 this House rejected the UK's leaving the EU without a withdrawal agreement and a future relationship framework and, in order to avoid a catastrophic no-deal exit on Friday 29 March 2019 and to secure ratification of a Withdrawal Agreement, orders accordingly that—

(1) the Prime Minister should ask the European Council to decide unanimously before 29 March 2019 to agree an extension of the two-year negotiating period under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union, in order for a negotiated Withdrawal Agreement to be subject to a democratic decision of the people of the United Kingdom;

(c) that motion may be proceeded with until any hour though opposed, shall not be interrupted at the moment of interruption, and, if under discussion when business is postponed, under the provisions of any standing order, may be resumed, though opposed, after the interruption of business; and Standing Order No. 41A (Deferred divisions) will not apply;

(d) at the conclusion of debate on that motion, the questions necessary to dispose of proceedings on that motion (including for the purposes of Standing Order No. 36(2) (Questions to be put following closure of debate)) shall include the questions on any amendments selected by the Speaker which may then be moved; and

(3) In respect of the Terms of Withdrawal from the EU (Referendum) (No. 2) Bill, notices of Amendments, new Clauses and new Schedules to be moved in Committee may be accepted by the Clerks at the Table before the Bill has been read a second time.”.

Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add "notes that the National Assembly for Wales, the Scottish Parliament and the House of Commons all voted overwhelmingly to reject the Prime Minister's deal; recognises that the National Assembly for Wales and the Scottish Parliament voted convincingly in favour of a People's Vote; further notes that this House rejected the UK's leaving the EU without a withdrawal agreement and a future relationship framework; and therefore calls on the Government to honour the respective will of each Parliament by seeking to extend the time under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union until 2021, or until the future relationship has been negotiated, and by holding a binding referendum at the end of that period on either accepting the Withdrawal Agreement or retaining membership of the European Union."

Amendment (j)

Line 1, leave out from "House" to end and add "recognises that Scotland voted to remain in the European Union but a UK-wide Withdrawal Agreement would take Scotland out of the European Union; and requires Ministers to make a section 30 order for a referendum to determine whether Scotland wants to be independent and to pursue its future as it sees fit."

At end, add "; notes that, according to a cautious UK Trade Policy Observatory prediction, an estimated 750,000 people would become jobless if the UK left the EU with no deal; and accordingly calls on the Government to use both fiscal and monetary tools available to support the economy and to create an emergency Brexit Support Fund of at least £7.5 billion to mitigate job losses caused by Brexit uncertainty, a No Deal Brexit or the PM's deal, with the fund being ring-fenced to support UK workers made redundant as a result of businesses leaving the UK, closing down or downsizing as a result of the impact of Brexit, and to offer workers the chance to receive advice or re-training to help them secure employment or start a new business.”.
