Jeremy Corbyn
Ian Blackford
Sir Vince Cable
Liz Saville Roberts
Sir Oliver Letwin
Mr Nicholas Brown

Keir Starmer

Caroline Lucas

Anna Soubry

(1) That, on Tuesday 25 June –

(a) Standing Order No. 14\(1\) (which provides that government business shall have precedence at every sitting save as provided in that order) shall not apply;

(b) precedence shall be given to a motion relating to the Business of the House in connection with matters relating to the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union;

■ Inequality and social mobility

Jeremy Corbyn
Margaret Greenwood
Angela Rayner
Jonathan Ashworth
Lyn Brown
Mr Nicholas Brown

That this House notes the findings of the Institute for Fiscal Studies that the UK is second only to the US in terms of income inequality among the major world economies in Europe and North America, that the share of income going to the wealthiest one per cent of households has nearly tripled in the last four decades and that deaths from suicide and from drug and alcohol overdoses are rising among middle-aged people; further notes that 1.6 million food parcels were handed out by Trussell Trust food banks last year and that child poverty has increased by 500,000 since 2010; recognises that following the resignation of the entire Social Mobility Commission in November 2017 in protest against the Government's inaction and a near year-long delay in appointing replacements, the new Commission has found that social mobility has stagnated for four years; considers that the Government's programme of austerity has decimated social security and led to growing inequality of provision across education, health, social care and housing; further considers that the Government's austerity programme has caused and continues to cause suffering to millions of people; and calls on the Government to end child poverty, to end the need for the use of food banks and to take urgent action to tackle rising inequality throughout the UK and increase investment in public services.

■ Discrimination in sport

Jeremy Corbyn

Tom Watson

Dr Rosena Allin-Khan

Mr Steve Reed

Valerie Vaz

Mr Nicholas Brown

That this House notes with concern that levels of discrimination across sport remain unacceptable; considers that a combination of tougher sanctions against offenders, action by social media companies and better education are key to driving discrimination out of sport; and calls on the Government to hold social media companies to account on this issue.

Notes:

The matters to be debated have been selected by the Leader of the Official Opposition.
