That this House declines to give the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Bill a Second Reading because 62 per cent of voters in Scotland supported remaining in the European Union in the 2016 European Union referendum and 74 per cent of the voters in Scotland supported political parties that proposed either remaining in the European Union or a second referendum on European Union membership in the 2019 General Election; and agrees that the United Kingdom must not leave the European Union before gaining the legislative consent of the Scottish Parliament.

That this House declines to give a Second Reading to the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Bill because the Withdrawal Agreement of October 2019 substantively concludes arrangements for Northern Ireland prior to agreement on the future relationship between the European Union and the United Kingdom and without adequate provision for applying the consent mechanisms in the Belfast Agreement as given effect by the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer our humble thanks to Your Majesty for the Gracious Speech which Your Majesty has addressed to both Houses of Parliament

Amendment (a)Caroline Lucas

At end add 'but believes that the measures in the Gracious Speech fail to deliver the urgent transformative action which the environment and climate emergency demand; calls on your Government to enact a Green New Deal to restructure and decarbonise the economy and restore nature, based on alternative measures of economic success to GDP, and including public investment of 5 per cent of GDP on well-paid jobs and new industries country-wide; urges your Government to establish a Committee on Sustainability to advise on restoring and protecting ecosystems; further urges your Government to prioritise climate justice, the reversal of social and economic inequality and the revitalisation of democracy, with legislation to end public spending on fossil fuel projects overseas, to contribute a fair share to international climate finance for mitigation and adaptation alongside loss and damage, and to deliver a universal basic income, proportional voting, votes at 16, citizens assemblies, and end to privatising public services including the NHS and a reversal of cuts inflicted on local government since 2010.
