BACKBENCH BUSINESS

- Errors in payments made to victims of the Equitable Life scandal

Bob BlackmanMr David Davis*Sir Edward Leigh*Dame Margaret Hodge

That this House expresses grave concern in relation to the Government's continued inaction in response to the injustice suffered by Equitable Life policyholders, the vast majority of whom have only received partial compensation compared to the confirmed losses directly attributed to regulatory failures; notes the Government's acceptance of the Parliamentary Ombudsman's findings to compensate victims in full following the maladministration of Equitable Life; further notes the concern previously expressed by the Public Accounts Committee in relation to the transparency and accuracy of the payments being made to victims; highlights the Government's failure to fulfil the Committee's request to publish an intelligible and transparent explanation to policyholders on how to verify the accuracy of the compensation they have received; further highlights examples of grossly inaccurate payments, adjusted only when identified by policyholders, gathered by the Equitable Members Action Group; notes the Government's continued insistence that there have been no mistakes in the methodology for calculating payments to policyholders; and calls on the Public Accounts Committee and the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Committee to establish a joint inquiry into the accuracy of the payments made to victims of the Equitable Life scandal.

■ Human rights in Kashmir

Debbie Abrahams [R]

Yasmin Qureshi [R]

That this House notes with grave concern the escalation of tensions between India and Pakistan, two nuclear powers, following the revocation of Articles 370 and 35A from the Indian Constitution in August 2019; further notes the United Nations reports of 14 June 2018 and 8 July 2019 on human rights violations in Indian-administered Kashmir and Pakistan-administered Kashmir; and calls on the Government to work with the UN, the Commonwealth and the wider international community to help ensure that international law is upheld and human rights are protected throughout India, Kashmir and Pakistan.
