PART 1

SERIOUS CRIME PREVENTION ORDERS

General

1 Serious crime prevention orders

- (1) The High Court in England and Wales may make an order if— 5
- (a) it is satisfied that a person has been involved in serious crime (whether in England and Wales or elsewhere); and
 - (b) it has reasonable grounds to believe that the order would protect the public by preventing, restricting or disrupting involvement by the person in serious crime in England and Wales. 10
- (2) The High Court in Northern Ireland may make an order if—
- (a) it is satisfied that a person has been involved in serious crime (whether in Northern Ireland or elsewhere); and

- (b) it has reasonable grounds to believe that the order would protect the public by preventing, restricting or disrupting involvement by the person in serious crime in Northern Ireland.
- (3) An order under this section may contain –
- (a) such prohibitions, restrictions or requirements; and
- (b) such other terms;
- as the court considers appropriate for the purpose of protecting the public by preventing, restricting or disrupting involvement by the person concerned in serious crime in England and Wales or (as the case may be) Northern Ireland.
- (4) The powers of the court in respect of an order under this section are subject to sections 6 to 15 (safeguards).
- (5) In this Part “serious crime prevention order” means –
- (a) an order under this section; or
- (b) an order under section 19 (corresponding order of the Crown Court on conviction).
- (6) For the purposes of this Part references to the person who is the subject of a serious crime prevention order are references to the person against whom the public are to be protected.
- 2 Involvement in serious crime: England and Wales orders
- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a person has been involved in serious crime in England and Wales if he –
- (a) has committed a serious offence in England and Wales;

- (c) has conducted himself in a way that was likely to facilitate the commission by himself or another person of a serious offence in England and Wales (whether or not such an offence was committed).
- (2) In this Part “a serious offence in England and Wales” means an offence under the law of England and Wales which, at the time when the court is considering the application or matter in question –
- (a) is specified, or falls within a description specified, in Part 1 of Schedule 1; or
- (b) is one which, in the particular circumstances of the case, the court considers to be sufficiently serious to be treated for the purposes of the application or matter as if it were so specified.

- (1) A person commits an offence if— 5
 (a) he does an act capable of encouraging or assisting the commission of an offence; and
 (b) he intends to encourage or assist its commission.
- (2) But he is not to be taken to have intended to encourage or assist the commission of an offence merely because such encouragement or assistance was a foreseeable consequence of his act. 10

40 Encouraging or assisting an offence believing it will be committed

- A person commits an offence if—
- (a) he does an act capable of encouraging or assisting the commission of an offence; and 15
(b) he believes—
 (i) that the offence will be committed; and
 (ii) that his act will encourage or assist its commission.

41 Encouraging or assisting offences believing one or more will be committed

- (1) A person commits an offence if— 20
 (a) he does an act capable of encouraging or assisting the commission of one or more of a number of offences; and
 (b) he believes—
 (i) that one or more of those offences will be committed (but has no belief as to which); and 25
 (ii) that his act will encourage or assist the commission of one or more of them.
- (2) It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(ii) whether the person has any belief as to which offence will be encouraged or assisted.
- (3) If a person is charged with an offence under subsection (1)— 30
 (a) the charge or indictment must specify the offences alleged to be the “number of offences” mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection; but
 (b) nothing in paragraph (a) requires all the offences potentially comprised in that number to be specified. 35
- (4) In relation to an offence under this section, reference in this Part to the offences specified in the charge or indictment is to the offences specified by virtue of subsection (3)(a).

42 Proving an offence under this Part

- (1) Sections 39, 40 and 41 are to be read in accordance with this section.
- (2) If it is alleged under section 39(1)(b) that a person (D) intended to encourage or assist the commission of an offence, it is sufficient to prove that he intended to encourage or assist the doing of an act which would amount to the commission of that offence. 5
- (3) If it is alleged under section 40(b) that a person (D) believed that an offence would be committed and that his act would encourage or assist its commission, it is sufficient to prove that he believed—
 - (a) that an act would be done which would amount to the commission of that offence; and 10
 - (b) that his act would encourage or assist the doing of that act.
- (4) If it is alleged under section 41(1)(b) that a person (D) believed that one or more of a number of offences would be committed and that his act would encourage or assist the commission of one or more of them, it is sufficient to prove that he believed— 15
 - (a) that one or more of a number of acts would be done which would amount to the commission of one or more of those offences; and
 - (b) that his act would encourage or assist the doing of one or more of those acts. 20
- (5) In proving for the purposes of this section whether an act is one which, if done, would amount to the commission of an offence—
 - (a) if the offence is one requiring proof of fault, it must be proved that—
 - (i) D believed that, were the act to be done, it would be done with that fault; 25
 - (ii) D was reckless as to whether or not it would be done with that fault; or
 - (iii) D’s state of mind was such that, were he to do it, it would be done with that fault; and
 - (b) if the offence is one requiring proof of particular circumstances or consequences (or both), it must be proved that— 30
 - (i) D believed that, were the act to be done, it would be done in those circumstances or with those consequences; or
 - (ii) D was reckless as to whether or not it would be done in those circumstances or with those consequences. 35
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(a)(iii), D is to be assumed to be able to do the act in question.
- (7) In the case of an offence under section 39—
 - (a) subsection (5)(b)(i) is to be read as if the reference to “D believed” were a reference to “D intended or believed”; but 40
 - (b) D is not to be taken to have intended that an act would be done in particular circumstances or with particular consequences merely because its being done in those circumstances or with those consequences was a foreseeable consequence of his act of encouragement or assistance. 45
- (8) Reference in this section to the doing of an act includes reference to—
 - (a) a failure to act;

- (b) the continuation of an act that has already begun;
 - (c) an attempt to do an act (except an act amounting to the commission of the offence of attempting to commit another offence).

 - (b) in relation to an offence under section 40, a reference to the offence mentioned in subsection (3).

 - (3) The offence or offences by reference to which those matters are proved must be one of the offences specified in the charge or indictment. 15
 - (4) Subsection (3) does not affect any enactment or rule of law under which a person charged with one offence may be convicted of another and is subject to section 52.
 - (5) In this Part “charge” means a written charge under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and, accordingly, in the application of this Part to Northern Ireland, references to a charge or indictment have effect as references to an indictment. 20
- 44 Supplemental provisions
